Calders Kidnapped, Beaten; Protested Burton Arrest

The Scars And Stripes Forever!

Expect Senate Investigation of Case Soon

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Walter A. Hanes, Captain of Company L, of the Alabama National Guard, and Bill Williams, Second Lieutenant in the same Company, were arrested last night by Joseph L. Golders and identified as two of the four men who scrubbed and eagled him last Sept. 23.

WASHINGTON — Background, chief of the Senate Finance Committee, declared that "serious consideration" had been given appeals to investigate the kidnapping and lynching of Joseph Golders in Birmingham.

"Our best legal advice now shows that Birmingham is a dark spot." Washington declared. "And the situation in the Gulf states will be brought out in a similar treatment to that given Calders very recently."

On November 3, one of the most important, historic, colorful, and colorful events in the history of the United States will wind up, when millions of Americans go to the polls to make known their choice for president of the country.

With millions of dollars spent on advertising and publicity, President Roosevelt and his campaign managers are spending every cent they can from coast to coast to win.

This month saw the packing of the cars of Alabama's most-beloved trade union leaders. After a month of intense activity, the leaders were forced to leave due to the violent reaction of the local authorities.

Bill Ramsey came to the Alabama coal fields three years ago, and he immediately began to organize the miners. He was active in the state legislature, and as a result of his efforts, the mine operators were forced to recognize the miners' union.

Bill Ramsey was known as a soldier and a union leader. His bravery and determination made him a hero in the eyes of the miners.

There have been reports of organizing activities in the coal mining industry. The CIO leader reports that the miners are showing a strong interest in joining the union.

CIO leader Charles L. Tindley, who is responsible for organizing the coal miners, said, "The miners are tired of the old system of management. They want something better." He added, "We have been able to organize several mines and the miners are responding well."
Main Issue America
To Decide on Nov. 3
Progress vs. Fascism

Date for president, declared in a radio address, is the choice between "capitalism and fascism." Cuba, the benighted island, will be interested in the fact that the Americans are prepared to accept a definitely progressive program. The present administration's lack of progress and record of government has made its people aware of the urgent need for change. Fortunately, this majority is not yet organized for political action. It has been growing stronger as the progressive platform adopted by one or other of the old parties. Today these people are turning toward the formation of a new party which in most places takes the form of a Farmer-Labor Party.

Commuter, Class Progress
At the battle of the big corporations, the primary issue is the company, and the more progressive the company, the better off the workers. Sharpness, however, is to be held throughout the United States. The idea is to rally an unprecedented large wave of activity behind its candidates. The two parties who demand the workers of America:
1. Full America Back to the World
2. Higher Wages for the Workers
3. Vote for the new people.
4. Free the farmers from debts, unemployment, and foreclosures. Guarantee the land to those who till the soil.
5. Abolish the power of the United States Steel, the rich, and the Farmers' Produce Corporation.

Yes, Communists
Run James Ford, Republicans Told

Haleyville, Ala. — Yes the Communists are running James Ford, and the Republican party platform is the only one which guarantees the Negro people their full and equal rights and opportunities.

Republicans at an open forum political meeting last night gave a loud and prolonged ovation to the speaker, who urged the need for a strong and united party. "As the workers are the backbone of the country," he declared, "they must be organized and organized for the purpose of fighting for the rights of the underprivileged.

Judge Lee, in his charge to the Grand Jury, said he was satisfied that the charges were supported by the evidence adduced.
Negro Free, "Shot it Out" With Sheriff

ANNISTON, Ala.—They had no reason to suspect Art Bush, 20, or his neighbor, Sheriff, and his posse was out for revenge against suspicions of having shot Willard W. Williams, a Negro. Mrs. U. L. Williams, a farm wife, Bush found her son's body being "shot for a theft" afterwards. The posse, determined to get its man, fired on Black Geneva in the dark to make him come out. Art Bush put up a fight to defend his home, while two of Black Geneva at the posse shot Pat Hicks, a member of the posse.

Tried for first degree murder of Hicks by a jury composed entirely of white farmers, Art Bush was found guilty and sentenced to prison for his right to defend his home.

Price Rise Makes Birmingham's Milk Most Expensive in Country

BIRMINGHAM—Milk delivered to Birmingham doorstep after October 15, becomes the most expensive in the country. Only three other large cities charge as much as 50 cents a quart for delivered milk, according to surveys of prices in Atlanta, Miami, and Charleston, S. C. This compares with 11 cents a quart delivered in Pittsburgh, 9 cents in Cleveland, 10 cents in Milwaukee, and 10 cents in Milwaukee, 12 cents in St. Louis.

The increase of one cent is re- sented by the Alabama State Milk Control Board. When dairy farmers of Jefferson County began to charge 75 cents a dozen for whole milk in the fall of 1933, the price of milk dropped on the Board to raise milk prices to two to four cents per quart.

No Help Given Rural Schools

TALLAPOOSA COUNTY, Ala.—Negro school teachers in Tal- laapoosa County have come to the conclusion that the only way to obtain better school facilities is through organization and strength.

The last week in October found the rural Negro schools opening with the same miserable overcrowded buildings, overworked and underpaid teachers, and grudgingly inadequate equipment. Buildings are mostly of one small room. The two room buildings are rare. Few school houses are really of any size. The small schools have only two teachers. The large schools, 500 or more, have more teachers.

The school board of Tallapoosa County has not been able to resist the pressure to raise the price of milk to 75 cents a dozen. The Tallapoosa Board was defeated by the Board and small patrons influenced the Board to report on the cost of raising the price of milk to 75 cents a dozen. The Tallapoosa Board has not been able to resist the pressure to raise the price of milk to 75 cents a dozen.

Gird for Battle Against 3% Tax Graves Wants

BIRMINGHAM — Anticipating the coming of a special session of the Alabama Legislature by Gov- ernor Bibb Graves in November to levy a 3% sales tax, the Consumers Anti-Sales Tax Association of Alabama is tightening its campaign against the measure. The association plans to hold a series of meetings to inform the public of the dangers of the proposed tax.

Although Graves promised that under no conditions would such a tax be levied, the administration now claims that several million dollars of additional revenue is needed to maintain the public school system.

The consumers' association has declared that the administration is willing to sacrifice a small percentage of its revenue in order to maintain the public school system. They believe that revenue from the sales tax would go to political job holders and not to the school teachers.

La. Sales Tax Up 2%, Consumers Protest Bitterly

NEW ORLEANS, La.—March 2, the state of Louisiana is joining with the consumers in an increasing and bitter protest of the recently imposed 2% "luxury" tax. The movement is led by the people of New Orleans who are forced to pay an additional 2% tax, making a total of 5%, against the city. The movement began against the city, but has now spread to other cities in the state.

Find New Method For Discrimination

LITTLE ROCK, Ark.—A pro- vocative for the South was set in motion recently when Circuit Judge A. P. Steel ordered a Negro to stay in his office until the judge deemed him fit to return. The Negro was charged with murder in the case of a Negro charged with murdering another Negro.

Judge Steel declared that he was influenced by the Scottsboro Case in which the U.S. Supreme Court ordered new trials because of the lack of Negro representation on the jury. However, Judge Steel's real attitude was expressed when he told reporters that "Our Negroes are all uneducat- ed and under control."

Case Affected By Scottsboro

CHARLOTTE, N.C. — Effects of the Scottsboro Decision, in which the U. S. Supreme Court ordered a new trial of the Scottsboro defendants because Negroes were excluded from the jury in the case, were seen in a recent case in Charlotte. N. C., a Negro was acquitted of forgery and the judge declared that the verdict was a moral victory for the Negro.

The judge said that the case showed that the Negro is not inferior in intelligence and that the jury should be fair. He declared that the verdict was a moral victory for the Negro.

Brother William C. Irby made a second trip to Jackson last week to introduce the Cotton Gin Smith presidential candidate, William Linder in a state meeting in Mississippi. Brother Irby is very popular in Alabama and has expressed his support of the Farmer-Labor movement. Wherever Brother Irby goes he is always Met with open arms and open doors. He has been a strong supporter of the Farmer-Labor movement. When Brother Irby threw his support to Linder he also threw his support to Father Couplin and Roy Gerald K. Smith, the most active and popular leader of the American Farmer-Labor Party. Father Couplin has donated $10,000 to the Linder campaign and Roy Gerald K. Smith is trying to organize a local chapter of the party.

Oxford Farmer Reports Another Gyp by C. of C.

OXFORD, Miss. A farmer here reports another gyp by the Chamber of Commerce working through the County Agent. Farmers were induced by the County Agent to plant large acreages in watermelons with the promise of very good markets. Many unsuspecting farmers planted and reaped with expectations of good returns. Harvest found the cotton growers with the truck drivers taking the cotton from the fields. It is important for farmers to be on their guard against these schemes.

Arrest Planter For Kidnapping

Laurel, Miss.—Charged with kidnapping four young Negro boys and forcing them to leave their cotton, at the point of a gun, L. E. Rogers, white planter, was arrested and put in jail.

Rogers was in his shanty, forced the four boys out with a club and forced them to work in the fields on his farm. The boys were Lee McCay, 16; Manning James, 18; Robert McCormick, 14; and Peter Willett, 15. The boys were freed by the police and the planter was arrested and charged with murder.

The boys claimed that Rogers had locked them up in a room and then driven them out with a club. They said he told them they would be shot if they did not work in the fields.

The planter denied the charges and said he was just trying to make a living. He said he was not a kidnapper and that he had never forced the boys to work.

The case is still under investigation and will be tried in the court.

Ghost of Murdered Worker Haunts Steel Bosses' Feast

By Rob F. Hall

Judging from the pictures—

After all we might as well admit frankly that your correspondents did not attend the banquet in person. This was partly due to the fact that T.C.I. neglected to send the Southern Worker an invitation. We also know what we read—in between the lines—in the papers. Well, judging from the pictures, the biggest and best of the Big Business Men and Mrs. Taylor, in the best of taste, scattered through the facilities of the Magnolia Motor Hotel. The author of the speech did not name Mr. Taylor but there was a big smile on his face.

It is possible that we are doing Old Stone Face an injustice. That is, of course, if Mr. Taylor was not receiving sympathy and support from business men who did not get rich because of the strike. You see, the strike lasted all day and worry all night. It was also the 10th anniversary of the death of a steel worker who was killed in a mine. There was a photograph of the steel worker in the Birmingham News.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were on the guest list and the party was held in the Colorado Room of the Magnolia Motor Hotel. It was a big party and it was well attended. There were about 500 people in attendance. The party was held in the Colorado Room of the Magnolia Motor Hotel. It was a big party and it was well attended. There were about 500 people in attendance.

Mr. Taylor did not speak but a member of the Board, Mr. C. C. Ross, did. He spoke about the strike and the need for better relations between labor and management. He also thanked Mr. Taylor for his hospitality.

Seemingly out of place in the happy gathering was a photograph of a steel worker who was killed in a mine. The photograph was taken in 1933 and it showed the steel worker in his work clothes. The photograph was given to Mr. Taylor by a friend of the steel worker.

The ghost may have worn a little American flag in his button hole because it was Independence Day that Sam Childs was killed. Of course I have no way of knowing definitely, because ghosts do not photograph very well, but the newspapers picture included the ghost.

Mr. Taylor did not speak because Mr. Ross did. Mr. Taylor's family have his work clothes still and he brought them into the party. He also brought his hat and his cane.

In the words of the speech: "We have been able to achieve peace and cooperation between labor and management. We have been able to achieve this peace and cooperation because we have been able to achieve it."

Defend Madrid; Need Munitions; Appeal For Aid

by Ted Wallman

The defense of the Spanish Republic has reached its most critical stage. With the aid of the World Worker, a picture of the intense fighting at the hands of the Fascist forces, it is seen that the people of Madrid are defending themselves against armed hordes, and it is urgent for assistance in sending the necessary arms to aid the workers in every country in the world.

Past a Mockery

German and Italian fascist governments have made a bloody mockery of the non-intervention pact signed by 27 countries. While the democratic countries, France, England, and America in particular, have refused to sell munitions to the People's Front Government in Spain, selected by an overwhelming majority of the Spanish people last February, Germany and Italy have sold large shipments of arms and aircraft to General Franco's forces.

It is not too late to keep silence any longer. The Soviet Union, in a strongly worded series of documents to the King of Spain, demanded that "certain countries cease supplying arms to the rebels at once. The Soviet Union will not declare war but will take steps to prevent further similar aid to the government.

Your use of this, a gang of negroes kidnapped Golds in a brutal, senseless, and bloody orgy. Americans demand justice for this foul crime. Everyone knows that if the truth is ever spread out before the people, it will be shown that this kidnapping was organized by the most respectable and most reactionary interests in the state.

Golds are a symbol of the fact that it is a warping to the people of Alabama, that their rights have been trampled on and that they are being looked down upon by the white community.
