Correspondence of the National Executive Committee During September

National Headquarters,
Socialist Party,

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 15, 1906.

To the National Executive Committee.
Comrades:—On the question of uniform literature, I wish to report the action thus far taken. Herewith is submitted a sample leaflet entitled "For Congress, 1906."

An opportunity was presented for the purchase of 125 reams of paper at most favorable figures, and it has been secured. The size of the leaflet was determined by the capacity of the largest available press in order to secure the greatest number of copies per impression and advantageous press rates on the order.

The first edition will be 1,250,000 copies. The name of the candidate for Congress in the respective districts will be changed in each lot of 5,000 and appear in place of Comrade Breckon's name, which is on the sample.

The entire cost of production will be less than 40 cents per 1,000, or somewhat under $450 for the entire edition of 1,250,000 copies.

Under these favorable conditions 5,000 copies will be shipped to each candidate free, the recipient paying cost of carriage. Shipment will be made to the nominees, except when State Secretaries or Organizers of large cities desire them in bulk, for the reason that there are few Congressional district organizations. The candidates will provide for payment of shipping charges, via locals in the district.

Minnesota and Wisconsin will be supplied. The changes regarding the party name will be made as required.

Orders are being solicited for lots of 5,000 in addition to the initial 5,000 which are supplied free, the price to be $2 for the additional lot, the recipient paying transportation charges as in the first instance. According to orders received, the edition will be increased.

I recommend to your committee the reprinting of the story of "The Moyer-Haywood Outrage," written by Comrade Wanhope, and that it be widely circulated in Colorado and Idaho.

Figures secured for a reprint of the quantity needed are prohibitive, and the project has been definitely abandoned.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 24, 1906.

To the National Executive Committee.
Dear Comrades:—I desire to direct your attention to a National Committee motion, and submit for your judgment the advisability of carrying out the letter of the same, since the trend of events following its adoption, July 24, 1906, has most completely fulfilled the spirit of the motion.

MOTION NO. 9.

"I move, as the trial of Comrades Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone has been continued until December, with a possible purpose of allowing the incarceration of our comrades to die in the minds of the working class, therefore be it ordered that the National Secretary get out a special semi-monthly bulletin of all obtainable news pertaining to our comrades, and same to be sent to all State Secretaries and territorial organizations, urging for continued protest meetings in the various States and Territories until the time of trial."

The purpose of the motion is summed up in a sentence: The necessity of continued publicity, "lest we forget." The various divisions of the party and the National Organizers have been requested to see to it that a feature of every meeting shall be a pointed reference to the kidnaping outrage of which Comrades Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone are the victims.

The Socialist press, and, to a greater extent than ever before, the Labor press, have taken up the issue, and the developments from day to day are recorded in detail and with dispatch.

The effectiveness of this united assault is shown by the desperate straits, not to say fear, manifest in the camp of the conspirators.

The climax was reached when the comrades in convention assembled gave the kidnapers their fitting answer, accepted the gauge of battle and made front against capitalism, at its most vulnerable point, by nominating one of the victims, Comrade Wm. D. Haywood, as their standard-bearer in a fight for the Governorship of Colorado.

This master stroke contained news that the whole world had to hear, and of such character that the exploiting class will never forget.

The candidacy of Comrade Haywood has made this outrage and Socialism the only vital issues in the storm center of opposition, namely, Colorado, where the kidnaping occurred, and Idaho, where the trial, now reduced to a farce, is to be held.

This letter, as usual, will reach the regular channels of party information, and its purpose is also to again call the attention of comrades everywhere to THE NECESSITY OF TAKING ADVANTAGE OF EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO PUBLISH AND PROCLAIM THE FACTS AND DETAILS OF THIS KIDNAPING CONSPIRACY.

To the extent that is possible, this subject will be dealt with in the "Weekly Press Bulletins" now being sent to 129 publications.

After a careful canvass of the situation, I deem the expense unwarranted. An issue of a semi-monthly Official Bulletin would contain only a reprint at a later date of current news items now more widely circulated.

Fraternally submitted,
J. MAHLON BARNES,
National Secretary.

There will be a number of candidates in the present campaign in excess of the number here stated. Oklahoma, owing to pending statehood, has no congressional election this year. Some states have not reported at all, and some have made only partial returns. Again, a place on the ticket for a number of additional congressional candidates depends on nomination papers, yet to be filed.

Illinois, reported eleven, will have a complete ticket or fourteen more than now credited. Massachusetts with four nominees now placed, will probably have the same number (13) as in 1904. Indiana, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Texas and Wisconsin will likely place or report candidates in districts not herein listed.

In the final line-up the number of Socialist congressional candidates will, therefore, be considerably increased.

J. MAHLON BARNES,
National Secretary.

Press Bulletin Inaugurated

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 17, 1906.
To the National Committee.
Comrades:—I herewith enclose first copy of Press Bulletin, issued this day to 118 daily or weekly papers which have filed application for the service.
The Press Bulletin is issued in accord with the National Executive Committee Motion adopted August 7th:

MOTION.
"I move that J. Mahlon Barnes, A. M. Simons and Joseph Medill Patterson be appointed as a Press Committee to carry out Section 5 of the Hillquit motion."

SECTION FIVE.
"To furnish information of the aims, methods and progress of our campaign in the daily press, and to endeavor to secure as wide a publication of it as possible."

Also in accord with the special circular addressed to locals August 29, 1906.
The National Press Committee, composed of Comrades Joseph M. Patterson and A. M. Simons, are arranging to assist the Socialist workers throughout the country to secure publicity for Socialist matter. Comrade Patterson especially is willing to give sufficient time to prepare matter to be sent out each week to consist of news and propaganda stuff as would be most apt to receive space in non-socialist papers, yet which would be of value to the Socialist Cause.

The Press Bulletin for the present will be mailed weekly on Tuesdays, but towards the close of the campaign it will be issued semi-weekly.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 17, 1906.
To the Editor or Person Addressed.

Dear Sir:—Your name has been presented as one who would use the Weekly Press service in whole or in part, or that you would see to its publication in some paper in your vicinity.

The understanding was that it should be supplied weekly and free of cost to the recipient.

The first copy of the Press Bulletin is forwarded herewith and for the present the mailing day will be Tuesday of each week. Later it will probably be issued semi-weekly.

A considerable expense is involved in the item of postage alone and we therefore respectfully request that in the event the service is not used, that you favor us with a postal card, so stating.

Very truly yours,
The Committee:

A. M. SIMONS,
JOSEPH M. PATTERSON,
J. MAHLON BARNES
National Secretary.

PRESS BULLETIN NO. 1.

National Headquarters,
Socialist Party.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 17, 1906.

This extraordinary editorial note appears in one of the most independent papers of its class, the "Catholic Citizen," of Milwaukee:

"At Milwaukee, the past week, there came before the Board of Aldermen a question of granting licenses to eleven notorious saloons, most of which are virtually temples of 'free love.' Singular to relate, all of the twelve Socialist Aldermen voted against licensing these places, and, sad to say, all the Catholic Aldermen, except one, voted to license these temples of 'free love.' Evidently it is a condition and not a theory that confronts us."—"The Independent," New York, August 30, 1906.

The Socialists of Kalamazoo, Mich., being denied the privilege of street speaking, are submitting the following referendum to the citizens:

Citizen's Ballot.

"Resolved, That, irrespective of political opinions and affiliations, I am in favor of free speech in Kalamazoo, and that the streets of this city, especially the corners of Burdick and Water and Rose and Main streets, be used by the citizens for peaceable political meetings, provided due precaution is taken not to blockade the same."

Lake City, Ia., Sept. 17, 1906.

E. S. Sheffield, an attorney of this city, who is the Socialist candidate for Congress in the tenth Iowa district, was such a strenuous opponent of Socialism three years ago that he took the anti-Socialist side in a joint debate with George R. Kirkpatrick.

Denver, Col.

Steve Adams, upon whom the prosecution mainly relied for corroborating evidence to support the confession of Harry Orchard in charging that the assassination of former Governor of Idaho, Steunenburg, was committed by direction of the officials of the Western Federation of Miners, has issued the following statement:

"This is to certify that the statement which I signed was made up by James McPartland, detective, and Harry Orchard, alias Tom Hogan. I signed it because I was threatened by Governor Gooding, saying I would be hanged if I did not corroborate Orchard's story against the officers of the Western Federation of Miners.

"(Signed) STEPHEN ADAMS.
"Witness: ANNA ADAMS."

President Van Cleave, of the Citizens' Industrial Alliance, addresses his fellow-members of the association on the question of politics as follows:

"Let me take this opportunity of impressing on everyone 'the duty of the hour,' so to speak. I refer to your vote at the coming election. It is a duty, as I have said, and I am proud and glad to know that you, my friends of the Citizens' Alliance, will so regard it; but do not, I beg of you, be thrown off your guard by the people or publications that will pretend to minimize the importance of labor in politics.

"This is a personal appeal. I appeal to you as my personal friends quite as much as I do as your chosen presiding officer. Don't fail to vote. At whatever cost of inclination, consider it a sacred duty to record your vote, whether it be Republican or Democratic, against those enemies of law and order who, whatever party name they adopt, seek to undermine the foundations of justice in the interest of Socialism or Anarchy.

"You can influence others, your friends and neighbors, your employees.

Make it your business to see them and talk of the importance of this coming election, and how necessary it is that there should be the greatest massing of friends of law and order ever known."

(Special Correspondence.)

Sydney, Aug. 12.—Not content with its professed objective of a "Co-operative Commonwealth" on land, the Australian Labor Party is seeking a socialistic experiment on the high seas. After all, this is perhaps only a logical sequence of the policy of "nationalizing all the means of production, distribution and exchange."

It has been recommended by the federal royal commission on shipping—the majority of the members of which were chosen by the Deakin government from its labor allies—that the commonwealth shall acquire and run a line of mail steamers between England and Australia, with Australian crews at Australian wage rates, and that as far as possible all supplies shall be obtained from Australia and all overhauls and repairs effected in Australian ports. It is further recommended, among other things, that the commonwealth shall take its own insurance risks and shall grant through bills of lading from inland railway stations. All the way through the object of the undertaking is to dispossess private enterprise, and this is admitted by those who are pushing it on with a frankness which is appalling to the business interests of the commonwealth. It is confessedly a move forward in the campaign of the labor party against capital.

The service will begin with eight 12,000-ton mail steamers at $1,875,000 each, a total of $15,000,000.

Business men who control the Orient, P. & O. and other lines plying between here and Europe are alarmed at the prospect of this unfair competition. If the government does not seek a profit, it may be able to put rates so low that the private lines will be run out of business. On the other hand, the present owners find encouragement and amusement in the purpose of the government ships to pay "Australian wages" to their crews. The private lines are crewed with the cheapest labor in the market. Again, the Australian government proposes to waste a lot of room on sailors' accommodations, while the private lines crowd the forecastle to overflowing. There is the food question, too. The class of seamen employed on the private lines will eat anything—and do, while the Australian government proposes to feed its men well.

For these reasons the business men of Australia are bitterly opposed to the new government line, especially since they claim its operation is apt, by cutting down the profits, to work a serious hardship on many widows and orphans who are stockholders. On the other hand, the Seamen's Union of Australia is in favor of the project on account of the shorter hours, better pay, food and accommodation which it promises.

Trenton, N. J.

Bishop McFaul, speaking here before the fifth annual society of the American Federation of Catholic Societies, was bitterly denouncing Socialism, when a sensation was caused by the interruptions of a strange man in the audience, who was evidently a Socialist.

When the bishop in the course of his peroration exclaimed: "Socialism would stretch out her foul hands upon the property of the people," the Socialist exclaimed: "What people? Rockefeller, Morgan, Gould, Harriman, Ryan, and so forth?" The bishop was visibly nettled, but answered: "Does not Socialism propose to lay its impious hands upon the property not only of men, but of God as well—upon the real estate, buildings, churches, parish houses of the Holy Catholic Church?" This answer was received with cheers by the audience.

Asserting that Socialism meant the destruction of the home, the bishop pointed out Prof. Herron and Jack London as conspicuous examples of Socialists who had had marital trouble. Again the interrupter broke in: "You point out two Socialists among the 400,000 in this country. I can point out twenty capitalists among the 400 of New York, each of whom has done worse. How about W. K. Vanderbilt, August Belmont, O. H. P. Belmont, Herman Oelrichs, Stuyvesant Leroy, Rhineland Stewart, W. W. Astor, Jr., Frederick Gebhardt, Hollis Hunnewell, Henry Clews, Jr.—"

At this point the interrupter was howled down.

He continued to add names, when cries of "Put him out!" were heard, and he was summarily ejected. After the disturbance was quieted the bishop finished his speech with a dramatic appeal against the poison of Socialism, and took his seat amidst great applause.

Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Edna Ohnstein, 1252 Elm street, wishes to arrange a debate between William Jennings Bryan and Gaylord Wilshire, New York Socialist. Wilshire has authorized Mrs. Ohnstein to challenge Bryan for him, and is willing to meet the Democratic leader at any time or place.

Wilshire tried to get a date for a debate with Bryan in New York, but the latter found that his time would be taken up with other events arranged for him long before.

Mrs. Ohnstein wrote Wilshire on behalf of the Cincinnati Socialists that they would be glad to have the two champions of their parties clash in Cincinnati. Wilshire answered:

"I will adopt your suggestion and give Mr. Bryan an opportunity to debate with me in Cincinnati. You are authorized on my behalf to offer Mr. Bryan $10,000 if he will accept my challenge to debate, $5,000 cash upon his appearance on the platform and $5,000 additional if the audience decides that he wins the debate. The subject shall be: 'Shall the Nation Destroy the Trusts, or Shall the Nation Own the Trusts?'

Mrs. Ohnstein wrote to Bryan, naming the conditions of the debate.

One of the most amusing features of the fall campaign is the vigor with which the candidates of the two old parties are denying that they are Socialists. Mr. Bryan explains in every speech he makes that he is "not a Socialist." He always adds, however, that Socialism should be heard respectfully and argued down kindly.

William Randolph Hearst insists at least once a week that he is no Socialist. The Socialists, too, insist just as warmly that he isn't, so that ought to settle it.

Candidates of the Lincoln Republican Party in Pennsylvania have got out a round robin to state that they are not Socialists. Tom Johnson asserts he is no Socialist. Mayor Dunne, of Chicago, says he is a near-Socialist, and that near-Socialism is the best possible antidote for pure Socialism.

The patriot who is willing to serve the plain "peepul" has a rather hard time of it. If he is too conservative he is called a corporation tool; if too liberal, he is called a Socialist.

RESOLUTIONS PROPOSED FOR A NATIONAL REFERENDUM BY LOCAL NEW ORLEANS.

We, Local New Orleans, Louisiana, Socialist Party, propose the following resolutions for national referendum:

Be it Resolved, That the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Party is hereby instructed to call upon the locals for nominations to, and to provide for and conduct an election, by the entire membership of the party, of a committee of twenty-five (25) members; and be it further

Resolved, That the National Executive Committee invite the Socialist Labor Party, through its National Executive Committee, to elect an equal number of conferees, and arrange with the said National Executive Committee of the Socialist Labor Party for a joint conference; and be it further

Resolved, That said joint conference be known as the Socialist Unity Conference, and that the duty of said conference shall be to devise ways and means to unite the two Socialist parties, its findings to be submitted to a general vote of the membership of the parties for approval or disapproval.

Moved by:

(Signed) W. COVINGTON HALL.

Seconded by:

(Signed) W. B. LANCASTER.

Adopted September 5, 1906.

JAMES P. O'NEIL,
Chairman.

J. B. CAMERON,
Acting Secretary.

Passed and ordered mailed to "Appeal to Reason" and New York People and National Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS BY LOCAL OMAHA, NEBRASKA.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 9, 1906.

J. Mahlon Barnes.

Dear National Secretary:—It is my duty to place into your hands the following resolution which was duly passed upon by the Omaha (Neb.) Local in general meeting assembled, July 11, 1906, and for you to take such steps as are deemed necessary:

"Whereas, The Socialist Party has to depend entirely upon privately owned newspapers to represent it politically; and

"Whereas, We believe the time has arrived for us to have a party owned and controlled weekly newspaper to represent us politically. Therefore be it Resolved, That Local Omaha goes upon record as being in favor of a party owned and controlled weekly newspaper."

Fraternally yours,

(Signed) W. WETTMAN.

LETTER OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEMBER A. L. SMITH, OF LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, La., Sept. 9, 1906.

To National Committee, S. P.

Dear Comrades:—When I voted to put as many speakers in Colorado as possible and in my comment stated that I objected to Max Hayes or any of his stripe going into Colorado, I did not know that Comrade Mills felt about it. Nor did I think that the objection would have caused so much debate. Now, seeing the interest manifested and fearing the possibility of Hayes or Hanford or some of that unfortunate ilk going into the state, and clearly foreseeing the injury that they will do the working class, I wish to again have my objection recorded. (Note I use the word working class, not S. P. The devil with S. P. or any other party. The working class is the thing to consider, and when the S. P. shall fail to subserve the interests of the working class I shall fight it with no less determination than I now fight capitalism.)

There is a monument of wisdom in New York that seeks to defend Max Hayes. Among other things, Mr. Lee says that Hayes stands for the trade union policy set forth by Marx.

Hayes is opposed to the working class. He lives for and does for the American Federation of Labor. This is a scientific organization. Hayes may yell scabs at those who will not become disloyal to their class by joining it, but he has scabbery reduced to a science. It practically teaches the identity or at least the community of interest between the robber and the robbed. And this to the policy of trade unionism advocated and supported by Max Hayes. And Lee, the economic illumination of New York, tells us that that is the same policy of Marx. Poor Marx! He sleeps now, he cannot deny that. But it must be so simply because Lee says it. Though I am sure I inferred from reading Marx, that he stood for the solidarity of labor, but I suppose I was wrong just because Mr. Lee must know better, must be more capable of understanding. However, still I object to Hayes going to Colorado just because the comrades over there believe in the solidarity of labor and he, Hayes, does not, and I felt he would not be well received. Not being well received, it may be that he would be unable to do much good for the working class upon whom he has bestowed such a sweet and tender affection. I further oppose his service there upon the grounds of his being unfit to teach the working class. Any man who seeks to defend the A. F. of L. (the master's tool of oppression) and is active against, or even passive relative to the I. W. W., is beyond all peradventure of doubt either a fool or a fakir.

Max is one of the two (and perhaps Lee is the other). To the working class it matters not which—either disqualifies him as a teacher of our class. Please publish this in full before the vote closes. Yours for the revolution.

A. L. SMITH.

LETTER OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEMBER ROBERT BANDLOW, OF OHIO.

Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 19, 1906.

J. Mahlon Barnes, Esq., National Secretary Socialist Party:

Dear Comrade:—As member of the National Committee from Ohio, I cannot refrain from raising a protest against the manner in which the National Committee from Louisiana is abusing his high office to denounce Comrade Max S. Hayes. I deem it unnecessary to undertake a defense of Comrade Hayes against the denunciation presented in the Weekly Bulletin, being satisfied that Hayes is a well known, not only as a member of the party, but as a propagandist for the cause of labor, or rather the working class, to require such defense. It seems to me that the Weekly Bulletin should not be made the vehicle through which members of the party are maligned. Publish this please, and oblige. Fraternalty yours,

(Signed) ROBERT BANDLOW,
National Committeeman for Ohio.

LETTER OF NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEMBER FRED L. SCHWARTZ, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Allegheny, Pa., Sept. 24, 1906.

J. Mahlon Barnes, Esq., National Committeeman of Pennsylvania, I desire to protest against the use of the Weekly Bulletin, of such unwarranted attacks upon our comrades as the "R-R-Revolutionary" Smith of Louisiana makes.

Right here I might suggest that perhaps we might send Smith to Colorado, as he seems to be the only one competent to tell the working class that state what socialism is.

As a rule, we find that these "R-R-Revolutionary" socialists, so called, come from some little two-by-four scab, who like to see their names in socialist papers. Please publish in Bulletin.

Yours fraternally,

(Signed) FRED L. SCHWARTZ,
National Committeeman of Texas.

EXPLANATORY TO THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

In justice to myself, I wish to correct an inadvertent error of the typist who transcribed the text of my comment urging that the comrades should be sent to Colorado who are militant socialists in touch with both the industrial and political expression of the socialist movement, rather than men of the type of Comrade Hayes. The Bulletin quoted me as using the words "professionals, pure and simple," when the original text reads "pure and simpler" professionals, which has an entirely different significance.

(Signed) WORD H. MILLS,
National Committeeman of Texas.

REPORT OF FRATERNAL DELEGATE TO THE CONVENTION OF THE POLISH SOCIALIST ALLIANCE.

Comrade William Maily, representing the National Organization of the Socialist Party, attended a convention of the Polish Socialist Alliance, held in New York, September 2d-5th, and reports in part as follows:

At the morning session of the first day William Maily, representing the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Party, addressed the convention and conveyed to it the greetings of the organization.

In the course of his remarks Comrade Maily dwelt upon the necessity of the Polish comrades becoming more closely affiliated with the Socialist Party and urged that action be taken which would encourage the Polish Socialists to join the party individually, so that the party could become a greater factor in national politics and exercise an influence on behalf of the working class struggle abroad as well as at home. Socialists of every nationality should support the Socialist Party in each country, so as to strengthen the whole international movement.

The report of the delegates showed that the Polish Socialist Alliance is making gratifying progress throughout the country, with the local treasuries in good condition, notwithstanding the great demands made upon them to support the revolution in Poland and Russia. In all $15,086 had been collected for the revolution, and of this, $14,480 had been forwarded to the Central Committee, leaving a balance of $906.28.

At the third day's proceedings a resolution was adopted amid much enthusiasm, recognizing the Socialist Party as the party of the American proletariat; acknowledging that the class struggle exists here as in all other countries, and that it is even more apparent here than elsewhere. Class conscious workingmen should recognize it as their duty to gather under the banner of the Socialist Party and become members of the International Socialist movement. All Polish workingmen should declare their affiliation with the Socialist movement, and the convention bound itself to strive among its constituents to the end that every assistance be given the Socialist Party. The Polish Socialists who can speak English should join English branches and others should consider it their duty to start Polish branches wherever possible.

After a long discussion the convention adopted a resolution recognizing the Russian Social Democratic Party as the representative of the politically organized Russian proletariat, but expressing the hope that the Russian workingmen would soon see the necessity of a united Socialist Party.

Resolutions of thanks to Comrades Moyer, Hayward and Pettibone for their brave stand against the capitalist class were adopted and a telegram of greeting ordered sent the imprisoned comrades.

One of the most important matters acted upon was that of the official organ, "Robotnik." The consensus of opinion was that the paper should give more attention to the Socialist Party, as the agitation literature of the Alliance was purposeless if it did not deal with American conditions as well as those in Poland. It was decided to remove the place of publication of "Robotnik" from Chicago to New York.

A translation of "The Jungle" was ordered published in "Robotnik," Comrade Sinclair having given permission for this to be done.

NATIONAL NOTES.

Andrew MacDonald, of Bismark, N. D., was arrested on Sept. 23rd for street speaking, but undaunted, tried it again on Sept. 25th, and was not molested.

The leaflet on congressional elections written at the request of the National Executive Committee by Comrade Wentworth of Massachusetts, was not considered suitable by the Literature Committee for the use intended. The leaflet "For Congress, 1906," now being promulgated, was prepared therefore, by Comrade Kerr. At the request of the National Office, Comrade Wentworth has consented to allow the publication of the leaflet written by him in the International Socialist Review, from which it will be reprinted in The Worker, New York.

State Organizer, A. E. Welch, of Kansas, during the last 60 days has organized locals at the following places with a total membership of 250: McPherson, Canton, Enterprise, Herington, Dwight, Lost Springs, Dighton, Leoti, Tribune, Nickerson, Lyons, Ness City, Brownell, Pollard, Hoisington and Salina.

The Denver, Colo., comrades, after about 60 arrests for street speaking, have won their fight with the police.

The International Union of Brewery Workmen in convention assembled at Toronto, Ontario, Sept. 20th, after passing a scorching resolution of condemnation upon the conspirators in the Moyer-Haywood-Pettibone kidnaping outrage, voted $500 as a donation to the National Campaign Fund of the Socialist Party.

National Organizer J. M. Caldwell reports a good meeting and the revolutionary spirit strong at Sturgis, Ky., where the miners have been on strike, against insufferable conditions, for more than a year. The miners are being fed by a commissary store maintained by the National Union.

The operations of the bosses are confined principally to managing a searchlight, bossing an army of guards, keeping Gatling guns in working order and training their large kennel of bloodhounds.

The day following the heroic entry of Sheriff Sutherland and Steve Adams into Wallace, Idaho, National Organizer George H. Goebel arrived there. He found everything quiet, notwithstanding the fact that press dispatches dated at that place were sent all over the country saying the town was in a turmoil of excitement and bloodshed, and riot was feared. Comrade Goebel exploited this deceit, and the first night challenged any defender of McPartland or Gooding to a debate the following evening. As was the case with Comrade Hazlett recently, the next night found the city in darkness, the electric current was not turned on for the street lights, but there was some excitement—it was to hear Comrade Goebel. The scheme of the opposition was frustrated in that he spoke to the largest meeting ever assembled in Wallace.

Comrade Mother Jones will divide her time between the Eighteenth Illinois (Speaker Cannon's) District and the Eleventh Pennsylvania Congressional District, in which National Board members of the United Mine Workers of America are candidates for Congress on the Socialist ticket, namely, John Walker and William Detry.

Globe, Ariz., perhaps supplied the most unique Labor Day demonstration on record. It was organized and managed by the mine-owners in conjunction with the county sheriff, the lieutenant of the Arizona Rangers and ruffian politicians as an anti-climax to the monster demonstration held by the Socialists and Western Federation of Miners on May 1st.

In July the capitalists tried to create a race war by pretending to arrange for a parade of negroes, and then announce that it was abandoned by reason of the fear that the Socialists would mob the paraders on account of the American flag being carried, by which ruse they became valiant defenders of the flag.

Several weeks before Labor Day the press advertised the fact that American flags would be carried in profusion, and, therefore, they expected to discover the number of Socialists in the town, knowing the Socialists would not parade. The sheriff headed the procession, and, exclusive of the local band, the marchers numbered 54, which is quite in contrast to the 1,300 in line in the May Day procession.

An order has been placed for a reprint of "Workingmen Next," by Benjamin Feigenbaum. This is a 48-page Jewish pamphlet, and also contains a translation of the National Platform. Single copies, 5 cents; 50 for $2; 100 for $3.50, postpaid. Orders may be filed at once.

The leaflets, "Socialist Methods" and "How to Organize a Socialist Local," have been translated into the Finnish language. Price, $1.50 per thousand, prepaid.

The National Office has granted charters to Local Franklinville, Md., six members, and Local Manhattan, Nev., eighteen members.

Jos. D. Cannon, of Phoenix, Ariz., has been nominated for delegate to Congress by a recent referendum.

For Congress Socialist Party Candidates 1906

The official returns of the Socialist vote in Arkansas showed gratifying results. In 1904 the vote polled for our Presidential candidate, Debs, was 1,853; the vote for Comrade Penrose, our candidate for Governor the same year, was 1,364. The vote for Comrade Hogan, for Governor, in the recent election was 2,104. This shows an increase of 251 over the Debs vote and 740 over the gubernatorial vote in 1904, and represents an increased percentage of 13 1/2 per cent and 55 per cent, respectively.

The Colorado State Committee during the month of August issued fifteen charters, as follows:

Molina, Pueblo, Lawson, Wray, Dumont, Nucla, Boulder, Mesa, Silverton, Georgetown, Colorado City, Russell Gulch, Rocky Ford, La Junta and Loveland.

Stanley J. Clarke, State Organizer of Texas, reports that he has been polling some of the audiences which he addressed on the question of how they will vote, and at least four-fifths of the audience, by a show of hands, indicated that they would vote the straight Socialist ticket.

Charters have been granted recently by the State Committee of Wyoming to Marshall, Albany County, and Mountain View, Uinta County.

A Socialist telegrapher writes: "It is unlikely that the potency of the telegraph operator has been given due consideration. Not even the Socialist world understands what is going on and being done by the telegrapher who is a Socialist or comprehends the scope of his opportunities or the field at his command. At leisure periods, when the Socialist operator 'is clear,' he is sounding his fellow-worker at the end of the wire or at intermediate points, which may be at Seattle, San Francisco, Chicago, New Orleans or Boston.

"Again, the telegrapher who sees things from a Socialist viewpoint has everlasting proof of the hypocrisy on the one hand and 'class consciousness' on the other of the capitalist class. In the first instance, he observes the requests filed for railroad passes by the 'Reformer' and anti-railroad Congressmen, Senators and members of the Legislature. On the other, by wires from the different employers' associations to 'our' Congressmen and 'our' Senators to vote against the eight-hour and anti-injunction bills, etc."

Comrade George H. Goebel organized a local at Bismarck, N. D., eight members; also Dickinson, N. D., seven members.

Comrade John M. Work, during his tour through Nebraska, just closed, organized seven locals, with an aggregate membership of 64.

THE SOUTH COMING TO THE FRONT.

From George B. Kline, State Secretary of West Virginia: "We will have twelve county tickets in the field against three two years ago; eight State Senators against none two years ago; thirty-two nominees for House of Delegates against ten two years ago."

The Socialist Party, by the action of the local authorities at a number of places, has been compelled to assume the role of valiant defenders of free speech, and this is an issue on which they find many sympathizers and even financial contributors among persons at variance on every other point with their entire program.

A State mass meeting and convention of the Socialist Party members of Mississippi will be held at Jackson, October 11th and 12th. All the comrades and readers of party papers in that State should write to Comrade Sumner W. Rose, Box No. 32, Biloxi. Reference the same.

Herman F. Titus was arrested for street speaking in Seattle, Wash. There is no doubt that a victory will be secured by the party.

While Comrade George W. Woodbey, of California, was speaking at Manhattan, Nev., eggs, the best argument of the capitalists against Socialism, were injected into the discussion. This so incensed a large and sympathetic audience that, had the culprits been discovered, they would have fared badly. The next night a deputy sheriff tried to prevent him from speaking, making the very logical claim that Comrade Woodbey was the cause of the disturbance, for if he would not speak, eggs would not be used.

Local Spokane, Washington, has opened a large and commodious free reading room at 112 1/2 Washington street, where all visitors are made welcome.

Photo-sized electrotypes of Comrades Moyer and Haywood can be secured at the National Office at cost, 75 cents each.

Ira Culp, nominee of the Socialist Party in the sixth district of Maryland, expects to visit every town in the district and make a systematic canvass.

A number of orders for supplies reached the National Office unaccompanied by cash, with the statement that the price is not known. The price list of supplies is printed in each Monthly Bulletin. If comrades placing orders will send cash, it will save a considerable amount of unnecessary bookkeeping.

The Republicans in the Shelby County district, in which Memphis, Tenn., is located, are not going to put up a ticket. The fight for the Legislature will be between the Socialists and Democrats.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Aug. 28, 1906.
J. Mahlon Barnes, National Secretary Socialist Party, Chicago, Ill.

Dear Comrade:—The Territorial Committee desires to notify you officially that for some time past Jack Wood, of London, England, has been lecturing and organizing for the Socialist Party of Oklahoma, but that it has now severed itself from the services of Comrade Jack Wood, as his work was not conducive to harmony in the party.

Yours for Socialism,
(Signed) JOS. A. HANNA,
JOHN HAGEL,
J. BARNARD,
J. C. CALHOUN,
J. E. SNYDER,
Secretary.

Charters have been granted by the National Office to Pocomoke City, Md., six members, and Spartanburg, S. C., eight members.

If the representations made as to the political prospects by a number of local committees are realized, the next Congress will contain several Socialist representatives, and the present number of Socialist members of the Legislature will be vastly increased.

Frank H. Streine, State Secretary of Kentucky, under date of August 31st, writes as follows:

"At present I have Congressional candidates in the 1st, 2d, 3d, 5th, 6th, 7th, 9th and 11th districts, and am trying to get one in the 4th. Heretofore there have never been more than two in the State.

"I am distributing over the State 10,000 copies of 'By the Throat,' 5,000 of 'The Power of Monopoly,' and 30,000 platforms, besides the 10,000 which the 6th district is handling itself."

Arrangements have been completed to supply each Congressional candidate with 5,000 leaflets free. The leaflets supplied to each will contain the name of the candidate and the name of the city or town in which he resides. The title of the leaflet is: "For Congress, 1906."

The story of the "Mollie Maguire" is handled by the National Office, which story vividly reveals the infamies of James McPartland, alias Jim McKenna, who is now so prominently identified with the Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone persecution. Five cents a copy, 30 for $1, prepaid.
