DIAZ DEMANDS NEW VICTIM FROM U. S.

Immigration Officials Attempt to Send Socialist Organizer De Lara to His Death.

(Special to The Call.)

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 18.—L. Gutierrez De Lara, a Spanish national organizer of the Socialist party of the United States, was arrested today by the immigration officials as an alien anarchist, to be deported to Mexico. The governmental officials here have been trying to railroad De Lara into prison or out of the country for more than a fortnight, having arrested him on October 9 on the charge of having designs on the life of President Taft, who was to arrive in the city the next day, but that charge fell through. Now it appears that a determined effort is to be made to turn De Lara over to the Mexican government, so that he may be executed.

De Lara was born in Mexico and springs from a wealthy family. He is a graduate of the Mexican College of Jurisprudence in Mexico City. He was at one time a judge, and later a member of the Mexican diplomatic corps. The study of economic and sociological subjects and the denial to the Mexican people of the elementary rights of the constitution of 1857 led De Lara to become an agitator for the enforcement of the constitution.

De Lara's agitation for the constitutional rights of the Mexican people led to his arrest, and he was sentenced to be shot. He escaped from prison, fled to the United States, and became a Socialist.

De Lara was addressing a large crowd of Mexicans in the Plaza when he was arrested on October 9 and taken to the city jail with three other Mexican Socialists. The four were charged with having designs on the life of Taft, which was merely a pretext to arrest and imprison them because they were enemies of Diaz.

ACQUITS GRESSER

Governor Hughes Dismisses Charges Against Queens Borough President.

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Governor Hughes has dismissed the charges recently filed against Lawrence Gresser, Borough President of Queens, declaring that there was no warrant for the charges. The substance of the charges which were made by William F. Roselle, an inspector in the Sewer Department, was that President Gresser was guilty of malfeasance in office and neglect of duty for failing to prosecute certain employees in the Sewer Department who had stolen one of his $25 pay checks, forged Roselle's name and had the check cashed.

Roselle especially made complaint against Bookkeeper Joseph Nelson in the Sewer Department, but after President Gresser looked into Roselle's charges he did not find them sufficient to warrant action by him. Then Roselle brought the matter to Governor Hughes' attention and tonight the Governor's secretary sent the following letter to Roselle:

"The Governor has considered the charges which you filed on September 1 against Lawrence Gresser, President of the Borough of Queens, and is of the opinion that they are insufficient to warrant proceedings for the Borough President's removal.

"You refer to the action of the Borough President upon the charges which you presented to him last June against Joseph Nelson. The Governor has examined the record of the hearing upon these charges and finds that in the light of the testimony which was adduced the charges were withdrawn at the close of the hearing."

MAY KILL WAYMAN

Chicago "Jury Fixers" Said to Be After State's Attorney's Scalp.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Reports that threats had been made to kill State's Attorney Wayman if he continued his crusade against alleged "jury fixing" and that one of the men said to be involved in the "jury fixing" scandal had attempted to end his life were current today. Only the promptness of a detective from the state's attorney's office is said to have saved the life of the would-be suicide, as he was about to leap into the lake.

The report is that the man who sought to end his life had made a confession to the state's attorney involving others in an alleged plot to "fix juries." It is these men who are reported to have threatened the state's attorney's life.

Meanwhile the present grand jury continues to hear witnesses regarding the "jury fixings" and new indictments are expected before many days. The grand jury is also expected to indict several prominent politicians who, it is said, will be accused of conspiracy. State's Attorney Wayman today declined to discuss the reported threats.

ICE CASE BEGUN

Seven Jurors Obtained Yesterday for Trial of "Frozen Trust."

Trial of the criminal proceedings against the American Ice Company as a monopoly, effective or attempted, was begun yesterday in a special term of the Supreme Court before Justice Charles B. Wheeler.

The company was represented by John B. Stanchfield, while James W. Osborne appeared as a deputy attorney general. Seven jurors were obtained.

Talents were asked if they were acquainted with Charles W. Morse or other men in the American Ice Company, or were prejudiced against corporations.

BABES TO GUARD CZAR

Russian Butcher's Bloodhounds Have New Plan to Protect His Life.

ODESSA, Oct. 18.—A bodyguard of babes is to preserve Czar Nicholas from the vengeance of his people when he passes through Odessa on route to Italy, where he is expected to go next week.

From the time he enters Odessa until he leaves, the Czar will be surrounded by little children, babes of the Odessa townspeople, who by orders of the police will accompany his carriage and form a double line along the streets through which his party will pass.

This plan was adopted by the secret service officers in charge of the Czar's person after various modes of insuring his safety in Odessa, the hotbed of the revolution, had been considered. They feel assured of the success of the plan, for they believe that no revolutionist would risk injuring the babes in order to kill Nicholas.

SAN REMO, Oct. 18.—The police profess to have uncovered a plot to assassinate Czar Nicholas of Russia on his coming visit to Italy. Three Russians were arrested today, and Russian secret service agents, who have swarmed all over Italy since the Czar's visit was first projected, are at work here to weave a plot to hold the trio.

The Russians came to San Remo some three months ago. The fact that the three started for Raccogli, where the Czar and King Emmanuel are scheduled to meet, caused their arrest.

ARREST OF MOTHER JONES IS RUMORED

Socialist Agitator Said to Have Been Jailed to Prevent Anti-Mexican Demonstration.

(Staff Correspondent of The Call.)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 18.—Mother Jones, the famous Socialist agitator, was seen in this city yesterday, it is said, but she disappeared almost immediately, and it is thought that she was jailed in order to prevent any demonstration being made while Taft was here.

A rumor has been floating around town that Mother Jones was arrested and jailed at the request of Federal Secret Service men because of her activity in the Political Refugee Defense League, which has been very active in behalf of several Mexican political revolutionists who have fled to this country to avoid execution by Diaz for making a demand that the people of Mexico be permitted to enjoy the rights granted to them by the constitution of 1857.

The local Socialists are greatly incensed over the reported arrest of Mother Jones, and if it turns out that she has been imprisoned, in all probability the national organization of the Socialist party will take her case up and make a fight against police usurpation of power and violation of the rights of a citizen.

Northwestern Life Insurance People Won't Pay Heirs of Hanged Man.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The highest court of the land is to consider the unique question of whether hanging is an insurable risk.

The Supreme Court today granted a petition of the Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company for a review of the decision in the Circuit Court of Appeals where it was held that the company must pay the $15,000 policy on the life of former Mayor Samuel McCue, of Charlottesville, Va., who was executed on February 10, 1905, for the murder of his wife.

His heirs sued for payment of the policy. The company maintained that it had not insured the man in the event of his death at the hands of the law.

AID WHITE SLAVES

National "Purity" Congress Plans to Fight Against Traffic in Girls.

BORLINGTON, Iowa, Oct. 18.—The proper methods of curbing the evils of "white slavery" are expected to play a prominent part in the discussions of the National "Purity" Congress, which began here today.

The address of Harry A. Parkin, assistant to United States District Attorney Simms, of Chicago, in the "white slave" traffic, delivered last night, was the sole topic of discussion when today's session began, and it is likely to result in the adoption of strong resolutions memorializing Congress to enact more drastic laws against this evil.

At the opening session today the principal addresses were those on "The Duty of the State to the Child," by Mrs. A. F. MacKenzie, of Seattle; "Adolescence," by Mrs. Ellen Snyder, of Chicago; and "Pre-Natal Influence," by J. B. Caldwell, of Chicago.

At tonight's session a paper was read on "Christo-Eugenics; the Next Step in Human Redemption," by Mrs. Mary A. Teat, national "purity" evangelist.

COILS TIGHTENING

Fall River Police After New Suspect in Tiverton Murder.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 18.—The police of Fall River are slowly but surely tightening a net of evidence about "Doctor" Frank Hill, charged with the murder of Amelia St. Jean, the Tiverton murder victim. On the other hand Wilfred Thibault, the other man under arrest, seems to be improving. His alibi is, it is said, practically unassailable.

Thibault's shoes were sent to Professor Whitney of Harvard, for examination as to blood spots, which he thought to be on them. Tonight the police received word that no trace of blood was found on the shoes; that what had been taken for blood was hardened blackening.

The contents of the stomach of the murdered girl have not yet been analyzed, and it may be two or three days before it is known whether or not she was drugged or poisoned.

A new piece of evidence against Hill developed today when a newsdealer who lives in the vicinity of the place where the parts of the body were found said that a week ago last Sunday morning in company with a friend he was boating on St. Ford Pond, and when about fifteen feet from the shore they were startled by hearing a heavy rustling in the underbrush near the edge of the pond. They stopped the boat and, watching, saw the figure of a man breaking through the bushes which fringe the pond. The man was carrying a market basket on his arm, but as soon as he saw the men in the boat he whirled around and dashed back into the brush. The newsdealer said, however, that the man was within sight long enough to recognize him as the man pictured in the papers as Professor Hill.

A box found on a farm and supposed to have been used for carrying the body of the slain girl was identified by an Italian tailor as one he had seen in Professor Hill's place.

Today the police confined their search for the missing head to the section of the country between where the legs and arms were found and where the box was found.

HAVANA STRIKE WON

Street Cleaners Induce President Gomez to Get Money for Them.

HAVANA, Oct. 18.—The two days' strike of the street cleaners, which left the city in a very bad condition, ended today. The strike was caused by a reduction of the men's pay and the discharge of 200 sweepers on the ground that there was no money with which to pay them. The deficit resulted from the creation of many high salaried offices.

A committee of the strikers visited President Gomez today. The latter advised the men to return to work. When the strikers received the committee's report they decided to return, whereupon President Gomez issued a decree transferring funds to the department of sanitation to make up the deficit.

Syracuse Man Cuts Throat, Leaving Two Small Children Behind.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 18.—Thomas Lane, thirty-five years old, committed suicide at his home at Amber, fifteen miles from here, early this morning by cutting his throat. His wife's funeral was to have been held today. She died last Friday and Lane was constantly watched by his relatives for fear that he would end his life, owing to his despondency.

At about 3 o'clock this morning he was missed. A search was begun and his body, with his throat cut from ear to ear, was found lying in a shed. Mr. and Mrs. Lane leave two little children, one nine years old and the other five.

THOUSANDS OF CITIZENS TO GATHER AT CARNEGIE HALL INDIGNATION MEETING.

MANY NOTABLE SPEAKERS

Wave of Protest Against Spanish Government Sweeps Over Whole Europe.

Tonight at Carnegie Hall thousands of New York workingmen will gather to listen to a number of eloquent orators denounce the Spanish government for its murder of Francisco Ferrer, the founder of the modern school of teaching in Spain, and to adopt a set of resolutions which will express not only horror at the crime committed, but the hope that Ferrer will be quickly avenged by the overthrow of Alfonso and his despotic state and the establishment of a genuine republic of the workers upon the ruins of the fallen autocracy.

The meeting, which has been called by the International Labor Aid Conference, composed of delegates representing the local Socialist and labor union organizations, will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. The doors will open one hour earlier and it is expected that the crowd will be so large that a number of overflow meetings will be held in the adjoining streets.

Among the speakers who will voice their sympathy with the dead teacher and with the Spanish revolutionists are: Judge Samuel Sanbury, Charles Edward Russell, Prof. Dewey of Columbia, Raoul Stephan S. Winsor, Morris Hillquit, Leonard O'Reilly, Joshua Wanhope, Edward F. Cassidy and Henry Frank.

William Dean Howells informed the Labor Aid Conference yesterday that he should have been pleased to have presided at this great manifestation of indignation over Professor Ferrer's murder, but that he was under orders from his physician not to leave the house.

That tonight's meeting will be the real beginning of a series of demonstrations that will prove to the world that America will not be behind Europe in the final battle for the freedom of the working class from capitalist and clerical domination is undoubted. The young people are also falling into line, as is shown by the fact that realizing that the death of Francisco Ferrer spells a vast loss to the young generation of the working class of Spain even more than to any other part of the working class, because of the eminent educator's connection with the younger generation of Spain, and feeling their solidarity with the youthful proletariat of that nation, the Young People's Socialist Federation, Circle 8, has arranged to hold a mass meeting Wednesday night, October 20, at Terrace Lyceum, 206 East Broadway, at 8 o'clock.

The speakers will be Jacob Fankel, Vladek, Meyer London, Eugene Wood and William Karlin. Edwin James Ross will preside.

Circle 8 is the first of the young Socialist organizations of this city to arrange a protest meeting against the reactionary outbreak in Spain, which the execution of Francisco Ferrer was a symptom.

Alfonso May Try "Reform" Scheme.

MADRID, Oct. 18.—The talk today has all been of the prospect of a change in the Ministry. The Diario Universal today published an article attributed to Senor Moret, the Liberal leader, criticizing the Maura Cabinet, and offering on behalf of the Liberals to restore order in Spain by inaugurating sweeping social reforms. This was followed later by a striking speech by Senor Moret in the chamber, denouncing the resignation of the government. The speech made a great impression. It is believed King Alfonso would welcome a change.

Gossip tonight mentions that Senor Azcaraya is likely to become temporary premier in the event of the resignation of the government. It is stated that France and England earnestly wish Senor Maura out of office.

General Weyler declares that a ministry is impossible when its premier has to be protected by a hundred bayonets and its home minister by eighty.

It is reported that Senor Maura has been summoned from the provinces to strengthen the Madrid garrison in view of a coming Socialist and Republican demonstration against the government.

Paris Alderman "Insults" Spanish Official

PARIS, Oct. 18.—France was placed in a position that may involve her in the Spanish troubles today when the representative of the Spanish embassy abruptly rose and left the funeral of Policeman Dufrene, who was killed on Wednesday in the demonstration over Ferrer's murder by the Spanish government in Barcelona.

The Spanish attaché deserted the ceremony, causing great consternation, when Councilman Mosso, as the official representative of the city, characterized Wednesday's demonstration as "a response to the call of conscience against the horrible news from Spain," and said that Paris was standing nobly faithful to the traditions of her glorious past.

Mosso took the place of President of the City Council Chausse as official speaker. Chausse and many other members of the council were among those who participated in the demonstration of Wednesday, and he and the others who were present when Dufrene was killed did not attend the funeral.

The Spanish embassy, taking cognizance of the fact that Dufrene met death repelling the people from the embassy building, sent an attaché to officially represent the embassy at the funeral. Mosso, in his disparaging remarks about the Spanish government and directly at the Spanish diplomat, who, without waiting for the speaker to finish his remarks, walked from the room.

It is generally believed that the incident will cause international complications, as there seems no doubt that the Spanish embassy will make it the basis for official representations to the French Foreign Office.

Royal Idiot Tries to Dodge

A special from Madrid says that King Alfonso had a violent quarrel with the premier because of the latter's alleged failure to give him an opportunity to exercise the royal prerogative of pardon in the case of Ferrer. The dispatch says that the interview followed when the King learned of the temper that had been raised abroad by Ferrer's death.

Joseph Calliaux, former minister of finance, in a speech at Bonnetable today warned the country of the danger of being involved in a recrudescence of clerical activity against the government schools. He declared that text books of unquestioned history had been interdicted solely because they failed to eulogize such incidents as the St. Bartholomew massacre and the revocation of the edict of Nantes.

The organ of Cardinal Andrieu, the archbishop of Marseille, replying to a conciliatory speech of Premier Briand at Perpignan, declares that if the government wishes peace it must apply at Rome.

Bombs Busy in Barcelona

BARCELONA, Oct. 18.—Twenty-seven bombs have been exploded, five persons killed and more than thirty wounded in the outbreaks following the execution of Francisco Ferrer. The authorities today are in dread of open revolt. It is believed that more than reported have been killed by the bomb outrages and taken away.

The police and military claim today to have a stronger grip than ever on the situation. It is said that 1,500 persons more are crowded into the prisons.

Reinforcements have been sent to Barcelona since the attack on the Montjuich fortress, where Ferrer was shot to death. Machine guns are directed down the thoroughfares leading to the prison.

Large crowds of workmen met in anti-government meeting at Hlbaoc and Corunna Sunday. Rousing speeches were made. Troops are held in readiness to check possible "disorders."

The Impartial announces that the government is concentrating troops at Madrid to take the place of those that have been sent to Morocco.

Leading Germans Denounce Spain

BERLIN, Oct. 18.—A public protest against the execution of Ferrer, which it is designed to transmit to the Spanish government at Madrid, is being circulated here. The paper expresses horror at what is termed a legal murder, and among the signers are Professor Ernest H. Haackel, the author and naturalist, formerly a member of

Chief Wilkie Has Murray Arrested

Head of U. S. Spies Holds Defense League Secretary Incommunicado During Taft Visit.

(Special to The Call.)
GREENWOOD, Tex., Oct. 18.—John Murray, the secretary of the Political Refugee Defense League, was arrested by United States Marshal Lancaster under instructions from Chief Wilkie of the Federal Secret Service to imprison him during Taft's visit to San Antonio on the charge of violating the neutrality laws. Murray was kept incommunicado in the county jail two nights, and the jailers refused to permit him to talk with his lawyer.

Murray was released by Commissioner Scott on Saturday on request of District Attorney Boynton, who denies responsibility for the arrest.

A committee of local Socialists hunted in vain for Murray, thinking that he might have been kidnapped. E. Davila, a Socialist, was arrested on the charge of vagrancy, and his release was only obtained after a writ of habeas corpus had been got.

Murray and Davila will institute suits for damages for false arrest and their cases will be fought to a finish, as the Socialists refuse to permit the police to arrest them without a warrant.

A report from El Paso announces that a number of Socialists were also arrested there.

FIVE YEARS FOR BANK MAN.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 18.—Eugene R. Wilbank, formerly teller of the Second National Bank of Atlantic City, was sentenced in the United States District Court today to five years in the penitentiary at Atlanta for embezzlement. He pleaded guilty last week to an indictment containing thirty counts in which the embezzlement charge aggregated $7,500.

waited for a good chance at him. He was tried politically three times, but a conviction was never secured until that of the secret court which resulted in his death. I believe the church took an active part in the trial and aided in his conviction. He was not given a fair chance and as a result died followed.

"His death has brought on a grave danger for the present government. The Socialist people all over Europe are excited over it, for they have long looked upon Professor Ferrer as a beacon light in benighted Spain. He was a man of great breadth and ability and his death is extremely unfortunate."

The resolution is the outcome of yesterday's anti-Spanish demonstration, in which 10,000 Socialists and members of various labor organizations paraded to the very doors of Buckingham Palace and the Spanish embassy, carrying a red banner inscribed, "To hell with the murderer Alfonso."

The police charged the people in the streets surrounding the Spanish embassy, and the latter turned toward the Parliament buildings. A reserve force of policemen, however, succeeded in dispersing the gathering just at dusk, driving it into the side streets. There was no violence.

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 18.—At a meeting yesterday of the Centro Asturiano, a Spanish organization here, representing 20,000 persons, a resolution was adopted condemning the shooting of Ferrer. Some of his many personal friends here spoke this afternoon, reviewing his life and eulogizing his character.

General 24-Hour Strike at Matanzas

HAVANA, Oct. 18.—As a pro-Ferrer demonstration against Spain a general strike of workmen for a single day was declared this morning at Matanzas. Almost every labor organization in the city indorsed the strike, and practically every business is at a standstill for the day.

Spanish Minister Soler today submitted to the State Department representations protesting against the demonstrations in Havana yesterday which culminated in the burning of photographs of King Alfonso in the public square by a party of students. The burning of the photographs is the only incident mentioned in the representations.

Many Havana labor organizations took part in yesterday's demonstration, but the Cuban branch of the American Typographical Union refused to participate.

Moors Chase Back Spanish

MELILLA, Oct. 18.—Three regiments and a mounted battery while reconnoitering west of Nador engaged the enemy.

The Spanish retired, having lost a commander and two captains killed and fourteen men wounded.

Says Church Killed Ferrer

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 18.—Professor Rudolph Schavill, of the Department of Romance Languages in Yale University, commenting this afternoon on the shooting of Professor Ferrer in Spain, said that the Roman Catholic Church was in the main to blame for the death of Ferrer and had been waiting for a chance to put him out of the way for a long time.

"To understand the circumstances, which led up to Professor Ferrer's death, it is necessary to know of the differences between Catalonia and the other parts of Spain, especially that in which Madrid is located.

"The people of Catalonia paid so much attention to business that they did not go along with the other parts of Spain in religious fields and their religion was more like that of people in the outside world. Thus they became progressive and did not cling to the old church.

"One of the chief representatives of the progressive age was Professor Ferrer, who founded schools for the propounding of this doctrine. The advanced ideas were slowly spreading all over the section and were opposed to the government. CHIEF WILKIE HAS MURRAY ARRESTED

Head of U. S. Spies Holds Defense League Secretary Incommunicado During Taft Visit.

(Special to The Call.)
GREENWOOD, Tex., Oct. 18.—John Murray, the secretary of the Political Refugee Defense League, was arrested by United States Marshal Lancaster under instructions from Chief Wilkie of the Federal Secret Service to imprison him during Taft's visit to San Antonio on the charge of violating the neutrality laws. Murray was kept incommunicado in the county jail two nights, and the jailers refused to permit him to talk with his lawyer.

Murray was released by Commissioner Scott on Saturday on request of District Attorney Boynton, who denies responsibility for the arrest.

A committee of local Socialists hunted in vain for Murray, thinking that he might have been kidnapped. E. Davila, a Socialist, was arrested on the charge of vagrancy, and his release was only obtained after a writ of habeas corpus had been got.

Murray and Davila will institute suits for damages for false arrest and their cases will be fought to a finish, as the Socialists refuse to permit the police to arrest them without a warrant.

A report from El Paso announces that a number of Socialists were also arrested there.

FIVE YEARS FOR BANK MAN.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 18.—Eugene R. Wilbank, formerly teller of the Second National Bank of Atlantic City, was sentenced in the United States District Court today to five years in the penitentiary at Atlanta for embezzlement. He pleaded guilty last week to an indictment containing thirty counts in which the embezzlement charge aggregated $7,500.

waited for a good chance at him. He was tried politically three times, but a conviction was never secured until that of the secret court which resulted in his death. I believe the church took an active part in the trial and aided in his conviction. He was not given a fair chance and as a result died followed.

"His death has brought on a grave danger for the present government. The Socialist people all over Europe are excited over it, for they have long looked upon Professor Ferrer as a beacon light in benighted Spain. He was a man of great breadth and ability and his death is extremely unfortunate."

The resolution is the outcome of yesterday's anti-Spanish demonstration, in which 10,000 Socialists and members of various labor organizations paraded to the very doors of Buckingham Palace and the Spanish embassy, carrying a red banner inscribed, "To hell with the murderer Alfonso."

The police charged the people in the streets surrounding the Spanish embassy, and the latter turned toward the Parliament buildings. A reserve force of policemen, however, succeeded in dispersing the gathering just at dusk, driving it into the side streets. There was no violence.

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 18.—At a meeting yesterday of the Centro Asturiano, a Spanish organization here, representing 20,000 persons, a resolution was adopted condemning the shooting of Ferrer. Some of his many personal friends here spoke this afternoon, reviewing his life and eulogizing his character.

HAVANA, Oct. 18.—As a pro-Ferrer demonstration against Spain a general strike of workmen for a single day was declared this morning at Matanzas. Almost every labor organization in the city indorsed the strike, and practically every business is at a standstill for the day.

Spanish Minister Soler today submitted to the State Department representations protesting against the demonstrations in Havana yesterday which culminated in the burning of photographs of King Alfonso in the public square by a party of students. The burning of the photographs is the only incident mentioned in the representations.

Many Havana labor organizations took part in yesterday's demonstration, but the Cuban branch of the American Typographical Union refused to participate.

Moors Chase Back Spanish

MELILLA, Oct. 18.—Three regiments and a mounted battery while reconnoitering west of Nador engaged the enemy.

The Spanish retired, having lost a commander and two captains killed and fourteen men wounded.

Says Church Killed Ferrer

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 18.—Professor Rudolph Schavill, of the Department of Romance Languages in Yale University, commenting this afternoon on the shooting of Professor Ferrer in Spain, said that the Roman Catholic Church was in the main to blame for the death of Ferrer and had been waiting for a chance to put him out of the way for a long time.

"To understand the circumstances, which led up to Professor Ferrer's death, it is necessary to know of the differences between Catalonia and the other parts of Spain, especially that in which Madrid is located.

"The people of Catalonia paid so much attention to business that they did not go along with the other parts of Spain in religious fields and their religion was more like that of people in the outside world. Thus they became progressive and did not cling to the old church.

"One of the chief representatives of the progressive age was Professor Ferrer, who founded schools for the propounding of this doctrine. The advanced ideas were slowly spreading all over the section and were opposed to the government. When the pupils came out of these schools they, too, preached abroad the doctrine and some of them had a mistaken idea of Professor Ferrer, who never incited bloodshed or riot in my opinion. THE CALL'S THREE THOUSAND

CORRECTIONS—F. GENZ and C. O. N. Newark, N. J., each gave the Wage Fund $2, but were credited with only $1—MORRIS HYMAN, Providence, R. I., sent $3 for subscriptions, which was erroneously credited to the Wage Fund, and H. ROTH, Charleston, Va., $1, met with a like fate

FRED S. ARLAND was credited with $1 in the Wage Fund which did not belong there—THE TIMES CHAPEL was credited with $5 in the Wage Fund which belonged in the Sustaining Fund—OLIVER C. CARBETH, Cincinnati, sent $4, but was credited with only $1, and A. GOLDBERG, White Plains, sent $1, and was credited with $2—There are a number of contributions for October 4, 9 and 11 that through my oversight remain unacknowledged.

CIRCULATION—Do not overlook any opportunity to further The Call's circulation. If you can get a live workman to read The Call for a week you have very likely got The Call a permanent friend and subscriber.

SOUVENIR EDITION—I have not yet set the date of The Call Wage Fund Souvenir Edition. It will not be long delayed. I am considering Tuesday, October 26, and Sunday, October 31.

These Workers Love The Call More Than They Love The Dollar

GEORGE ALLEN ENGLAND, Peak's Island, Me.—"Herewith I inclose you my day's wage—though we slaves of the typewriter can't speak of really having any fixed income at all. It's meat today and bone tomorrow, thanks to the fluctuations of the market. A word about The Call, you say? I have no criticism, save that I think a few more cuts would live up to the paper. My idea, heretofore as it may appear, is that instead of starting a Sunday edition it would be better to install a small photo-engraving plant for the daily, or at least adequate cuts made for every edition, especially on the front page. I don't believe you appreciate the selling value of pictures. Put Socialism on the billboards, say I, and into the street cars; put it into quarter-page ads in the capitalist dailies; put it into kites, balloons, sandwich-men—short, easy, snappy phrases of it. Get the people thinking and talking bits of it; make it familiar as the Gold Dust Twins or Pear's Soap, and half the battle is won. Do you agree?"

"Poet of the Sierras" Says Teddy Incites People to Crime. SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Joaquin Miller, the poet of the Sierras, in an address to San Quentin prison convicts yesterday, declared that President Roosevelt and his policy of strenuous life are responsible for more evils and crime in this country than any other cause. After warning the convicts against the evils of lying, Miller said: "There is something wrong with the way people in this country live. They're too strenuous, too active, too highly aroused."

SHIPPERS KICKING

Southwestern Business Men Charge Railroads With Discrimination. WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Complaint has been filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission by the Southwestern Shippers' Traffic Association against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe and three other railroad companies, alleging that rates from Galveston, Port Arthur and other Texas ports to points in Oklahoma, Kansas and Colorado are unjust as compared with the rates given by the same railroads between ports on the Atlantic and Gulf seaboard to the interior and between Galveston and points in the States of Missouri and Arkansas.

ITALIANO HELD.

Bookkeeper Accused of Shooting Wife Must Await Inquest's Result. Philip Italiano, a bookkeeper living at 276 First avenue, who was arrested on Sunday on a charge of shooting his wife, was held by Coroner Harburger yesterday in $5,000 bail to await an inquest. The shooting occurred at noon on Sunday. Santima Dato was the dead woman. She was found shot soon after she had quarreled with Italiano. Absence of powder stains led to the belief that her wound was not self-inflicted and the police arrested Italiano. Neighbors in the flat said they thought she had killed herself. Coroner Harburger decided that a jury should pass upon it.

TRACK WALKER KILLED.

Daniel Matzello, a track walker, was killed just south of the 81st street station of the Broadway branch of the subway early yesterday by a south-bound train. He was the last of a number of track walkers, and evidently did not hear the warning whistle blast blown by the first of the track gang. Matzello was hurled against the wall and nearly every bone was broken.

HELD IN PRIMARY ROW.

Robert C. Quinn, an expressman of 731 Columbus avenue, was indicted yesterday on two charges of carrying away ballots and of adding ballots on September 21 in the 11th and 12th Election districts of the 17th Assembly district. Ross Williams' district. He had been indicted before on similar charges. He was held in $2,000 bail by Judge Crain in General Sessions and furnished it.

GOVERNOR POST ARRIVES.

Among the passengers who arrived yesterday on board the steamship Philadelphia from San Juan was Regis H. Post, the retiring Governor of Porto Rico. Governor Post will meet his successor, Colonel Coletan, and will attend the Lake Mohunk conference.

CENTRAL LOSES POINT

Railroad Company May Be Compelled to Take Up 11th Ave. Tracks. The New York Central and Hudson River Railroad lost a point yesterday in its fight to prevent the City of New York from removing the tracks on Eleventh avenue, when Supreme Court Justice Blanchard ordered stricken out many sections of the complaint in the suit brought to test the legality of the city's claim that the franchise by which the railroad company is occupying Eleventh avenue has expired.

HELD FOR BOARD BILL

Quaker City Society Seized on Arrested on Hotel Man's Charge. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Charles Newhall, son of a Chestnut Hill millionaire society man and nephew of John Jacob Astor, was arrested here today as he was alighting from a train at Broad street station. He is charged with jumping a board bill by the New Willard Hotel management of Washington. As the offense is charged to have been committed on government ground, Newhall was later taken to the Federal building, where he was held in $500 bail by a United States commissioner. Newhall was a star football player at Yale and one of the best fullbacks the Blue ever had. After he left Yale he obtained a commission and was sent to Cuba, but because of some irregularities was dismissed from the service.

SLAYER GETS FOUR YEARS.

Man Who Shot Flatbush Florist Goes to Sing Sing. Aloysius Gross, who shot and killed John Scott, a Flatbush florist, last April and was convicted of manslaughter in the first degree, was yesterday sentenced by Justice Crane in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, to not more than seven or less than four years' imprisonment in Sing Sing. It was during a dispute with Scott over his discharge as watchman at the nursery that the shooting occurred. Gross said that he intended only to fire into the ground.

NOVA SCOTIA BUYS COAL

Long Strike of United Mine Workers Keeps Supply Cut Off. HALIFAX, N. S., Oct. 18.—The protracted strike of Cape Breton miners for the recognition of the United Mine Workers of America is beginning to show its effect on the coal supply in the maritime provinces. Dealers are making large importations from United States and Scotland. Prices are going up.

AFTER SUNDAY SCHOOL MAN.

Greenwich, Conn., Police on Trail of Elopers With 16-Year-Old Girl. GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 18.—The Greenwich police today went to work, it is understood, on the case of Archibald Payton, the thirty-five-year-old Sunday school superintendent who eloped last week with sixteen-year-old Mabel Slagle, of this town, and efforts will probably be made to apprehend him and the girl. The father of the girl, Chas. Slagle, of East Portchester, was led to taking the step of reporting the matter to the police by information which came to him to the effect that Payton, though he was generally known in Portchester, where he has lived for the past six months, as a man of high character, had once before eloped with a young girl and had married her, notwithstanding the fact that at the same time he had a wife and two children living in this town.

FLIES AROUND PARIS

De Lambert Makes Good Showing, but Le Blanc Falls on Crowd.

PARIS, Oct. 15.—Comte De Lambert, in his Wright biplane, circled the outskirts of Paris from the Juvisy aerodrome today, flying a distance of seventy kilometers. He was in the air one hour, and returned to the aerodrome, landing directly in front of the grandstand.

De Lambert's flight is within three minutes of the cross-country record for aeroplanes, which is held by Captain Cody, the American-born aviator connected with the British War Department. Cody flew forty-seven miles in sixty-three minutes over rough country near London.

Just as the crowd, wildly excited by the Lambert flight, surged into the field after the aviator had landed, to carry him about the course in triumph, M. Le Blanc, flying a Blériot monoplane, lost control of the machine and crashed down into the cheering crowd.

Two men and a woman were borne to the earth beneath the machine and the woman was probably fatally injured. The men were seriously hurt, but Le Blanc escaped with a few cuts and bruises. The monoplane was totally wrecked.

The accident caused a panic among the spectators, and several were trampled upon and bruised in the rush. The police succeeded in quieting the crowd before anyone was seriously hurt, however.

BLACKPOOL MEET ON

Second Aviation Match in England Opens With Big Crowd.

BLACKPOOL, Oct. 18.—England's second aviation meeting, the first officially recognized by the Aero Club, opened here today with twenty-one flying machines entered.

A hundred thousand spectators assembled to witness the flights. Paulhan and Farman opened the proceedings by completing the circuit, the former going at the rate of forty miles an hour. The latter flew about fifty yards.

The aviators are contesting for the following prizes: $10,000 for a long distance flight, $2,000 for the greatest altitude, $2,000 for carrying passengers, $1,500 for general merit and $500 for the slowest circuit of the track. Special prizes of $1,250 and $750 are offered for British aviators using all-British machines.

In the speed competition Farman made a magnificent flight of seven-and-a-half miles. Rougier beat Farman's distance and covered twenty miles before descending.

While attempting a flight Molon's machine fell and the aviator was pitched into a ditch. He escaped without injury.

Captain Wyndham's repaired machine broke in half while the aviator was essaying a trial flight.

DONCASTER, England, Oct. 18.—At the aviation meet here today Leblon made the best display of any of the aviators. He flew around the course fifteen times and won the Bradford Cup. He covered two rounds of the course in 20 minutes 22-5 seconds.

TIGERS DIVIDE COIN.

Detroit, Mich. Players Remember Their Friends in Whacking Up.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 18.—The members of the Detroit club, eligible according to the ruling of the National Commission to participate in the division of the post-series receipts, held a meeting at the Hotel Tuller this noon and voted to devote $500 of the sum to Trainer Tuller.

Ex-Captain Schaefer was voted $500 after debate on allowing him equal shares with the others. A sum was set apart for the employees of the Detroit club house and for the purchase of several other remembrances.

The distribution of cash for each man was finally announced at $1,180. Detroit is still loyal to the Tigers and proved it tonight with a big banquet in their honor.

BRITISH BOUT POSTPONED.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The lightweight battle between Freddie Welsh and Johnny Summers, scheduled for the National Sporting Club tonight, was postponed until November 8.

The bout is for the lightweight championship of England, a purse of $7,000, a side bet of $1,000, and a gold belt offered by Lord Londale. Welsh is the favorite in the betting 10 to 7.

AUTO BREAKS MAN'S SKULL.

Machine Loaded With Joy Party Runs Away; Number Unknown.

After hurling Frank Popper of 2323 Seventh avenue, against an elevated pillar at 25th street and Third avenue early yesterday, an auto, in which were seven men and women got away before the police arrived. Popper's skull was fractured. He is in Bellevue Hospital.

Popper had waited for a car to pass and then started across the tracks. He did not see the auto.

Without stopping, the machine speeded down the avenue.

TO HIGHER COURT

Saratoga Gas Companies Fight for "Property Rights."

Albany, Oct. 18.—The fight of the New York Carbonic Acid Company, the Geysers Natural Gas Company and the Lincoln Spring Water Company, of Saratoga, to prevent the state from stopping them from pumping water and gas from their wells under the law created in 1900 to preserve the mineral springs of Saratoga, reached the Court of Appeals today. The three companies appealed from a decision made by Judge Andrews at an extraordinary term of court called by Governor Hughes, which held the law to be constitutional. Permanent injunctions restraining the companies from pumping the gas and water were granted. The decision was affirmed by the appellate division, and the whole proceeding taking less than a month to reach the highest court.

The companies contend that the law is unconstitutional in that they are deprived of property rights without due compensation.

FOUR BURNED IN BARN.

WICHITA, Kan., Oct. 18.—Four men were burned to death and one fatally burned in a barn fire here today. They were asleep in the hay.

BANKER SHOOTS SELF.

Mother-in-Law Drops Dead When Body Was Brought Home.

MINERAL POINT, Wis., Oct. 18.—Two deaths today followed the wrecking of the First National Bank of this town. F. E. Hancock, the cashier, late last night shot and killed himself, and when his body was removed to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. John Gray, she dropped dead.

The bank failed Oct. 11 with a shortage of nearly $400,000, and the government took charge of it with John A. Schofield as receiver. Philip Allen, the vice-president, is in a serious condition in his home.

For the men that good men most despise... who, ill-begot and spawned... who, for rot before men's eyes... who, for rot before men's eyes... who, for rot before men's eyes...

of it. What is more, all through Germany you meet groups of school children tramping in the country with their teachers, sleeping in barns, ransacking out—anything to keep them away from the cities. They have grasped the fundamental idea that the modern city is fatal to the child.

of the school is to train children for life it hardly seems to be an unqualified success. So far as this idea has been applied it seems to have taken the form of teaching them how to increase their capacity when they leave school.

BROOKLYN.
E. Lindgren reports that at a special meeting the executive committee of Local Kings County decided to revive the Citizens' Protest Conference of Brooklyn to arrange a Ferrer demonstration on October 26, at the Brooklyn Labor Lyceum. Advertising matter will be ready on Tuesday evening; comrades and sympathizers are requested to call for same.
NEWARK.
At a meeting of the county committee, Saturday night, a committee was organized to carry out that policy that the action was taken.

GREEK CAR MEN STRIKE.
A report from Athens, Greece, is as follows: "After two or three striking organizations in Greece for an industrial point of view, a strike has broken out here among the employees of the Society of Electric Tramways. The principal cause of the strike was the long hours of work, which the men tried to have reduced to ten a day. Already the company has capitulated in the matter of hours, and it is expected that the men will soon be back at work."
FRENCH ELECTRICIANS MEET.
The tenth congress of the International Federation of Chauffeurs, Conductors, Mechanicians, and Automobile Electricians of France, has voted in favor of the diminution of the number of scattered strikes, and of organization for the general strike. The proposition was put forward by Pataud, one of the most famous labor leaders in the world.
The delegates to the congress are also agreed that workers should be so instructed that in case of war between the powers, the workers will respond to the declaration of war by a declaration of a general revolutionary strike.

ected to arrange a monster protest meeting against the assassination of Ferrer. Letters have been drawn up inviting progressive organizations, ministers, teachers and labor unions to join in the demonstration. One of the largest halls in the city has been engaged and prominent speakers will voice the indignation of the people against the Spanish outrage.

PASSAIC COUNTY.
A special meeting of Passaic County was held last Friday night in headquarters. Condemnation of the Spanish government was indulged in and a motion to organize a monster protest meeting over Ferrer's death was carried. The following committee was elected to organize a conference of all liberal organizations at once and proceed for a great hall meeting: Hueck, Keller, Alexander, Kawer, Kadel and Huebschmitt.
All progressive organizations are requested to correspond at once with F. Huebschmitt, 285 Ellison street, Paterson, N. J.

A FAKE BULLETIN.
McDevitt, organizer of Local San Francisco, reports that "the so-called Socialist Bulletin of San Francisco seems to have misled so many of our keen and judicious editors that I fear an official announcement will be necessary that this Socialist Party Boosting Club, which stole our address and is trying to defoul our name, is composed of some renegade Socialists and a ragged runt of the S. L. P. diorganization. These Hessians of politics have, for unknown but not unguessable rewards, attached themselves to the fortunes of P. H. McCarthy, the candidate of the so-called Union Labor party here. Mr. McCarthy has repudiated the working class in politics; his appeal is entirely to the 'taxpayers and the business men'; his platform expressly states that his party is 'not a class party,' and all the most uncompromisingly corrupt elements in San Francisco, responding to his promise to make 'this city the Paris of America,' for the tourist and the man out for a lark, are lined up for McCarthy and the gang of salooners that are with him.
"Despite the fact that the Socialist party here is conducting the most stalwart campaign ever conducted by the Socialists anywhere, as our platform (published in the International Socialist Review) testifies, those who masquerade as Socialist boosters are endeavoring to hurt the Socialist party throughout the country by circulating this sheet, known as the Socialist Bulletin, and thereby affording such 'testimony' as the S. L. P. may use for the next ten years as evidence of the kind of politics the Socialist party indulges in."
The Bulletin was so absurdly mendacious, its statements were so grotesque in its efforts to be comical, that the party here deemed it a useless thing to take the Bulletin seriously enough to send out any official disavowal of it. But as the purveyors of the slanderous document have sent it out to every quarter, and as some credulous editors and others have taken the matter as authentic, the Socialist party of San Francisco hereby denounces the Socialist Bulletin issued by the so-called 'Socialist Party Boosting Club,' as a campaign canard, fathered by the McCarthy laborite renegades and damned by a ragged remnant of the S. L. P. The incentive for the canard was most likely easy machine money, and the S. L. P. fear that the Socialist party might deal a death blow to the false Union Labor party here in the present campaign.

NATIONAL.
The National Office of the Socialist party to date has sent to the strikers' headquarters in Sweden the sum of $2,886.15. The National Executive Committee of the Socialist party, by unanimous vote, repeats to the party members the above call. "Do all you can" and do it now. Remt to J. Mahlon Barnes national secretary, 150 Washington street, Chicago, Ill.
The National Executive Committee, by vote, decided to recognize M. St. Laurents, 110 W. Granite street, Butte, Montana, as state secretary of Montana.
The State Committee of Nevada has appropriated $1.75 for the Minnesota Primary Law Contest.
The national secretary reports that the following local second the request of Local Philadelphia to change the wages of organizers from four to three dollars a day:
Fostoria, Ohio; Jackson, Tenn.; Rochester, Pa.; Meunsville, W. Va.; Troy, N. Y.; St. Louis, Mo.; Dover, N. J.; Berks County, Pa.; Warren, Pa.; and Aberdeen, S. Dak.

TWO INJURED IN SMASH-UP.
Charles Zeimer, of Weehawken, was knocked from his wagon in front of 65 Columbus avenue by a Columbus avenue car yesterday and was so badly injured that he was sent to Flower Hospital. Herman Goldman, of 347 Cherry street, a passenger in the car, was badly bruised.

LADY COOK LANDS.
Famous Suffragette Here With Fortune to Win Votes for Women.
Lady Cook, formerly Tennessee Claffin, one of the foremost suffragettes in the world, arrived here yesterday on the Celtic, of the White Star line, to lead a campaign that, the American woman suffragists believe, will bring to them the franchise in all states and lead to similar rights in England.
An enthusiastic welcome was accorded Lady Cook at the pier, and eight automobiles, all flower bedecked, carried her and her receiving delegation to a reception at the headquarters of the union, 22 East 23d street, following which she was taken to her hotel, the Buckingham.
Lady Cook will be here until December and will return after presiding at a big suffragette meeting in London, where Israel Zangwill is to be among the elect on the platform.
The following statement was given to reporters by Lady Cook:
"I am going straight to President Taft and will ask him to use his mighty influence to get votes for women, for which I have been fighting more than forty years."
"I am going to ask the Congress of the United States to give me a majority report on the meaning of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution, for I want to know if white women, as well as negroes of the male sex, are, by virtue of that amendment, entitled to the franchise in this country."
"I am going to transfer to this country several million dollars, all of it to be used, if necessary, in the interest of this cause, for women are surely going to have the vote here, and I want to see them enjoy that privilege before I die."

FOR LOWER STEPS.

Connecticut W. G. T. U. to Get After Naughty Trolley Company.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 18.—It is whispered—whispered, not spoken—in Connecticut cities that boast a board of aldermen, that the city fathers are about to receive wholesale visits of an official nature from prominent members of the State W. G. T. U. the object of the visits being an attempt to have ordinances passed which will force the Connecticut Company, a subsidiary of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, to lower the steps of their trolley cars.
At the recent annual convention of the Connecticut W. G. T. U. resolutions were passed condemning the present high steps. It was declared that the steps could not be mounted by women with a proper degree of modesty.
The low step crusaders are in intense earnest. They declare they will snow suffragette stoicism to carry their end. Just what power the aldermen of the various cities will have to force the traction company to lower the steps they do not yet know, but they are willing to try the municipal governors first and then, if necessary, carry their fight to other and higher authorities.
"Shameful," "outrageous," "insult to womanhood," are some of the epithets the crusaders are applying to steps now in use.

Red Cross and United States Army Will Aid Storm Sufferers.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—In response to appeals from the mayor of Key West the officers of the American Red Cross Association and of the army general staff at a meeting today decided for the next few days to issue rations to the recent storm sufferers from the military post, the expense to be borne by the Red Cross treasury.
The Red Cross also decided to send J. C. Logan, of Atlanta, one of its special relief agents, to the scene in order to ascertain the extent of relief that is necessary.

TO CARNEGIE HALL.

Tonight every lover of liberty in this city will be at Carnegie Hall to take part in a most imposing demonstration against the royal and ecclesiastical assassins who murdered one of the greatest champions of freedom, one of the noblest teachers of the youth, one of the most unselfish lovers of his kind that ever breathed on this earth.

The capitalist press of this city has been coldly, shamefully silent. It therefore devolves upon the workers' press to speak out. The respectable elements of this city, engaged in the mad scramble for profit and loot, utter not a word of dissent. It therefore remains for the workers to assemble in a mighty demonstration of solemn protest.

And while expressing our abhorrence at the most infamous deed of blood, we will not forget our ten thousand brothers immured in Spanish dungeons whose fate will be that of Ferrer unless we join our voice to that of our European brothers and demand their release in the name of justice and a common humanity.

The demonstration at Carnegie Hall will be one of many thousand similar demonstrations taking place at the same time in every country where the voice of freedom has not yet been utterly stifled. This universal simultaneous exhibition of international solidarity is a most impressive portent of our time, filling the tyrants, oppressors, and exploiters with dread and dismay, and inspiring the workers and fighters for liberty with fresh hope and courage. Let us therefore join the voice of New York to the international cry of execration at the murder of Ferrer and to the loud demand for the liberation of the survivors.

THE APOTHEOSIS OF RYAN.

What a wonderful man is this Thomas Fortune Ryan! Every one figuring prominently in this campaign is being accused by his opponents of being the hireling of Thomas F. Ryan. Gaynor accuses Ivins and Hearst of being tools of Ryan. Hearst and Ivins reply by charging Gaynor with friendship and subservience to Ryan. Amory joins in the melee and accuses Ivins, Hearst's leading champion in this campaign, of having sold out to Ryan.

If the touch of Midas turned everything to gold, the touch of Ryan seems to transmute everybody into a moral leper.

The only man not thus far accused of having sold out to Ryan is Bannard. This may be due to the fact that although he is the Republican candidate for the mayoralty he does not cut much of a figure in this campaign. But it may also be due to the fact that, never having posed as a radical, it is taken for granted and as a matter of course that he is a tool of Thomas F. Ryan.

But always and everywhere it is Thomas F. Ryan! And whoever will be defeated, Thomas F. Ryan will be the victor.

GOLDWIN SMITH ON THE CAUSE OF MISERY.

We have seen that Goldwin Smith, while acknowledging the existence of classes and ascribing it to "divergences and inequalities of capacity and character," nevertheless deplors the fact. The misery, the ignorance, the barbarism of the slums sicken him. What are these due to?

One might imagine from his frank admission of the existence of classes that he would admit with equal frankness that the misery of the "lower classes" is due to their exploitation by the "upper classes." But this is by no means the case. According to him "the main source of the misery at present perhaps is redundancy of population in certain centers, caused by reckless breeding, which produces swarms of want and barbarism, such as made hideous the Mafeking night. Upper classes are more prudent in marriage and the breeding of children."

The reference to Mafeking night is an extremely unfortunate one for an upholder of the existing social order. For was not that grand debauch of patriotism brought about by the capitalistic-imperialistic press of London in its delirious joy over the defeat of the Boers and the triumph of Chamberlain's imperialistic policy? Patriotism is the last refuge of the scoundrel, and the modern exaggerations and distortions of patriotism—jingoism, imperialism, and militarism—are the last refuges of the capitalist class. Mafeking was a joint orgy of the swell mob and of the mob of slums. It was a legitimate product of the capitalist order which Goldwin Smith champions.

But this only en passant. If Goldwin Smith were asked, What was the cause of the misery of Roman slaves or medieval serfs, would he have answered: "Their reckless breeding," or would he have said, Their exploitation by their masters?

Goldwin Smith recognizes the existence of classes in present-day as well as in past societies. That the prevalence of misery among the exploited classes in past societies was due to their exploitation is something that none but an imbecile would venture to deny. And yet a man of established reputation for wisdom and learning, who admits the existence of "higher" and "lower" classes in our own society, nevertheless denies the exploitation of the latter by the former and ascribes the misery of the masses to their "reckless breeding" to overpopulation!

And this at a time when the productive powers of social labor are

THE COMIC SUPPLEMENTARY CONVENTION.

"HOIST! HOIST! HOIST!"

THE WAGES OF ONE CAPTAIN OF INDUSTRY

By Robert Hunter.

A great trans-Atlantic liner is a world in miniature.

Authors find great ships a never-ending inspiration. The magazines and newspapers print pictures and articles on the luxury of travel, the baths, the games, the gymnasium, the sports, the splendor of the drawing rooms and the excellence of the cuisine.

And the moralist finds his subject in the contrast between the few above and the multitude below.

Still another side is worthy of thought. Great Atlantic liners are today an industry. They are magnificent "sea side" hotels requiring the investment of seven to ten million dollars. Companies and pools own these moving hotels. The stocks and bonds which furnish capital for these companies are a subject for the financiering of great bankers and railway magnates.

The capitalist whose money is invested in the trans-Atlantic lines knows nothing of steamships.

He could not give the necessary orders to enable the boat to leave the dock. He could not pilot the creature through the Lower Bay. He could not take an observation or do any other useful service.

The men who manage the property, see to its safety, care for the comfort of the passengers and manage the whole industry year in and year out are salaried men. Not capitalists, mind you, but workmen who do not own a dollar of stock in the great Steamship Trust.

The wages of these men are now being investigated. It appears that the captain and the executive staff of six who bring the great ship Lusitania from Liverpool to New York receive altogether about $100 for the passage. For this wage the captain and his officers must transport this great hotel, from two to three thousand passengers, the mail and an immense cargo through ice, fog and storm from Liverpool to New York.

The trip consumes about a week in all. The captain remains up sometimes day and night most of the journey, while in fog he never leaves his post.

Yet for his week's service he receives a wage of $40.41. His first assistant gets $14.55, the second $12.15, the third $9.70, the fourth and fifth $8.08, and the sixth $6.47.

The ocean offers "equal opportunity" to all, and yet where will you find a more perfect example of Capitalism?

The ocean is not staked out in private lots. There is no rent to pay. Any one who chooses can sail a boat in competition with the Lusitania. Yet a trust now controls this great industry.

The property is owned by men who know nothing of the industry. It is managed and conducted entirely by expert seamen, engineers, firemen, etc., who are wage workers.

One single first cabin passenger on the Lusitania pays for his passage more than enough to pay the wages of the captain and all his officers. And for this miserable wage this great Captain of Industry handles a capital of about $10,000,000 and makes it yield a handsome profit to idle investors. Even the Hunkies a McKees Rocks do about as well as these steamship officials.

It is a great system, don't you think? Perhaps in a few generations when the working Capitalist is no more, all our actual captains of industry will be equally well paid.

greater than ever before in human history; when the application of steam, chemistry, and electricity to the productive process have multiplied human labor-power beyond the utmost conception of utopian dreamers; when, also, the birth-rate of nearly every highly developed capitalistic country, with but few exceptions—of Great Britain, as well as of France, and even of Germany—shows an unmistakably declining tendency.

The laws of population—that is, of the rise and fall of the birth-rate—are as yet quite obscure. But one thing has been established with absolute certainty, namely, that a high or a low birth-rate is not the cause of either prosperity or poverty. When the Roman Empire was declining and misery was widespread, the population was also rapidly declining and the barbarians had to be called in to fill the thinning ranks of the legions and to cultivate the soil of depopulated districts. According to Goldwin Smith and his fellow Malthusianists, the empire should have been rolling in prosperity because its population was declining.

On the other hand, take the case of modern Germany. The German birth rate is one of the highest in Europe, about 34 per 1,000 of population, against about 25 for the United Kingdom. The population of Germany is increasing faster than that of any other Western European country. Yet the advance of German industry in the last generation is one of the most striking developments of the time. German capital is growing at a great rate. Simultaneously there has also been a most remarkable advance in the physical and intellectual well-being of the German workers. According to Goldwin Smith Germany should be perishing in misery.

If we look at the United Kingdom itself, we find that the poorest division thereof—Ireland—has also the lowest birth rate. According to Goldwin Smith, Ireland should, therefore, be rich, and England, with its higher birth rate, poor.

The fact is that whatever "redundancy of population" there is in any highly developed capitalistic country is due entirely to the fact that there are more wage-laborers than capital is able to employ with profit to itself.

DIAZ--TAFT.

By C. W. Ervin.

At El Paso the two chief political representatives of the capitalist class in North America—Diaz of Mexico and Taft of the United States—clasped hands. The one controlling by sheer brute force a vast majority of voters in the interest of a minute minority of spoilers; the other cajoling by all the arts of the political charlatan a like majority in the interest of the same minority.

Each is a type of the political and economic development of the countries which they govern in the interest of their class. Upon both the bloody shambles of capitalist civilization has left its mark. The one—the more primitive man, as he is the representative of a more primitive society—has not scrupled to wade waist deep through these shambles; the other, with the smiling, lying face of the legal trickster, has fastened more securely the shackles of wage slavery upon millions of toilers and producers for the benefit of a few thousand idlers and wasters. Each dwells in a "Paradise of the Rich" created out of the "Hell of the Poor."

Each stands out sharply against a background of degrading poverty for the toiling mass.

Back of one are the tortured toilers of Yucatan, whereas no one—from the toiling infant to the tottering aged—is spared; the women and children slaving in the "modern" cotton mills, the gift of "civilization" to these unfortunates; the burrowing slaves of the mining districts whose lives are held so cheaply that it would be counted rank extravagance to spend a penny on safety devices.

Back of the other are nearly two million of children deprived of their young life, doomed to the industrial hells of the mine and mill, with no chance, even during their childish years, to loiter in the sun-kissed, wind-swept and flower-gemmed fields which our Mother Nature intended for the childhood of the race; millions of women degraded from that highest of functions—maternity, to that lowest of wage slavery: millions of men toiling in heat and cold for "just enough to work upon and want upon and keep alive in them a knowledge of their hard fate."

Men of the capitalist press, you can continue to fashion from such material as Diaz and Taft false idols for the people to fall down and worship, but we Socialists will continue to show that these idols are but the veriest clay and that both they and the class they represent will crumble into dust at the co-operative touch of the true Lords of Life, the working class.

When these two met, surrounded by lesser lackeys of the capitalist class, we do not for a moment imagine that the thought came to either of them that things as they are were NOT to continue forever. Were it not that they and their class have "eyes that see not and ears that hear not" they would have perceived the mighty figure of their Nemesis—Socialism—already projecting its shadow across their "primrose path" and would have heard it utter this warning and prophecy: "You profit by the night. But have a care. There is a great power—the dawn. The dawn cannot be vanquished. It will come. It is coming. It bears within it the irresistible light of day. You are Privilege. Be afraid. The true master of the house is about to knock at the door. You have everything which is comprised of the nothing of others. Of this immense universe you behold a shadow. I will rise with a bunch of people's rags in my hands and will shake the misery of the slaves over the masters and you will no more be able to escape the memory of the unfortunates or rid yourselves of the smart of the poor. And so much the worse for you if they be vermin, and so much the worse for you if they fall upon lions.

One day true society will arrive. There will be no more masters, no more slaves, no more ignorance, no more oppression. No more men, women and children mere beasts of burden, but free, living beings."

THE MURDER OF FRANCISCO FERRER.

By WILLIAM J. ROBINSON, M. D.

"Whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad." Only on assuming that there is a real foundation for this adage of the ancients, can one explain the suicidal action of the weak-minded King Alfonso and his cruel bureaucracy and the ignorant, bigoted Spanish priesthood. The Spanish priesthood has not yet forgotten the traditions of the glorious times of Torquemada and the Inquisition with the rack, wheel and the auto-da-fe, and it is still clamoring for victims. For it must be borne in mind that while Alfonso and the bureaucracy are responsible for not interfering with the execution of Ferrer, it was the priesthood that originally demanded and persistently howled and clamored for his life. His terrible offense consisted in organizing schools in which the children were taught to throw off the yoke of the priesthood and to think independently—an unpardonable offense, a mortal sin in the eyes of the medieval clergy, and medieval the Spanish clergy still is.

The terrible deed is done. Another victim has been sacrificed at the altar of clerical cruelty and bureaucratic brutality. Ferrer cannot be brought to life again. But all free thinking and liberty loving men and women of the world should unite in a might protest, so that Alfonso, his bureaucracy and the priesthood—and the bureaucracies and the priesthoods of other civilized countries—might know that the twentieth century is not the sixteenth, so that repetitions of cruel murders of advanced thinkers might become impossible.

Every radical party, every liberal society, every free thinking circle, should call special meetings to protest against the execution of Professor Ferrer. To the blame such meetings and protests may seem futile and illusory, but we believe that they do have their effect; the effect may not be apparent at the moment, but it is there all the same.

NOTICE.

COMMENT AND DISCUSSION IN THE SUNDAY CALL.

The Sunday Call will be able to give considerable space for a forum in which the comrades shall have the widest possible latitude in the discussion of party affairs. This department will have a highly educational value, and, though no doubt at times it will contain some communications imbued with strong feeling, it will in the long run be a powerful instrument for achieving clearness as well as party unity and solidarity.

Letters intended for this department should be addressed to Sunday Editor of the Call, and should reach the editor on the Wednesday preceding the Sunday on which they are intended to appear.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

TAFT'S SWING AROUND THE CIRCLE.

Editor of The Call: Twice I have come across President Taft in his continial farce—"tour," and it seems strange how the American public is.

In Frisco, and again here in Los Angeles, where I am with "Miles" chief," an opera, at the Auditorium, the school children were herded together like so many innocent animals, through the inspiration of flags, drums and general excitement and the jollity of a day off, they cheered as they saw grown-ups "shilly" doing it, many of whom have not thought of such a thing before the excitement began. For President Taft was paraded about. And the newspapers add to all the senselessness of things by printing about the Taft "smile" and his "lifelike" responses to words of welcome.

Why do Presidents of late make such contemptible tours? To the mind—and as one traveling over country—it is because of a fear of the powers that be that the American citizenship are arousing themselves from deep slumbers. I am sure Taft-Diaz handshake won't help matters. Nor the expensive automobiles filled with top hats and rich suits of Prince Alberts, toting behind hundreds in Taft parades. Those who only exemplify the hideousness of things. Yours fraternally, ROBERT LANDSOWNE, Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 13, 1909.

THE CALL AT OPEN AIR MEETINGS.

Editor of The Call: The 23d Assembly District has for some time purchased a certain number of The Call on those days when street meetings are held in the district, for free distribution, and intends to continue doing so during the remainder of the campaign. It wishes through these columns to suggest to the other districts in the city also to take this action, which is a two-fold value. In the first place it brings The Call to the attention of people who would otherwise not see it, and in the second place it is a means of assistance to The Call, which can still be done during the remaining days before election. Fraternally, ANITA C. BLOCK, Sec'y, New York, Oct. 15, 1909.

NOTIFICATION FROM WALTERS NO. 5.

Editor of The Call: I have been informed to notify you by the delegate of the Central Districted Union to the effect that the meeting of Local No. 5, Walters Union, has been taken and the lock of our meeting place has been tampered with. So would like you to kindly place the notification in your columns. Yours fraternally, LORENZO W. MACKETT, Pres. Local No. 5, Walters Union, 308 West 42d Street, New York, Oct. 17, 1909.

COMRADE LIPES REFIRES.

Editor of The Call: My young critic in Wednesday's Call was not authorized by the Children's Socialist School Committee to speak for it in print. Besides, the committee, of which I am chairman, did not engage me nor put me at the head of a teachers' training class under my own management, and as a member of the committee has had no hand in whatever I have accomplished along that line.

Through my own efforts I have opened the Socialist Training College of Greater New York as a permanent institution (note my ads in the Call) for the training of Socialist teachers, writers and speakers. The public classes will meet every Thursday night at 155 Tompkins Avenue, near Willoughby Avenue, Brooklyn, in the Brooklyn Educational League rooms. And, furthermore, since all students are admitted free of tuition to the first term weekly class lecture course, there is involved personal expense instead of "personal gain," which was gratuitously thrust at me.

I have been planning to establish such an institution for a long time, and I am not under obligations to anyone for putting my matured plans into operation. Surely every plain-minded comrade will applaud my inspired action—and some will help by donating money to extend the work of the Socialist Training College in the name of humanity. Sincerely for the Co-operative Commonwealth, JOSEPH CHANT LIPES, Brooklyn, Oct. 15, 1909.

Editor of The Call:

Why doesn't the Socialist party find their attacks on the "communist enemy," which I call the Republican party? Leave the Democratic party out of it altogether?

I think the Socialist party at present time is making a great mistake in not continuing their war against the Republican party, and that party alone. Why? Because the Republican party is in power, and power is not good for the working class.

It has even reached my ears from leading trades unionists that you Socialists confine a whole lot of attention to trades unionism, when you trades unionism has made Socialism what it is today. Respectfully,

WILLIAM CLARK BLACK, Editor Union Labor Journal, Washington and Greene Counties, Member Typographical Union No. 455, Typographical Journal Correspondent, Washington, Pa., Oct. 14, 1909.

[The Democratic party is in control throughout the South, in several States in other sections of the country, in numerous municipalities, including the city of New York. It is the rival of the Republican party. It will need to serve the interests of capital, and its ally in enmity to labor. It is necessary to speak of the labor of the South and of numerous outrages against the working class perpetrated by the Democratic party. The Call has been from the first a champion of the oppressed. It is the organ of a large number of workers. If there ever was a hostile campaign against trade unionism in the United States, it is being carried on by the Democratic party. Of course, no honest unionist will object to friendly criticism of any particular act of action to act.—Ed The Call.]
