Will Present That Much In July to Persons Who Toil Not for It.

The man who works nine, twelve or more hours in a day for wages which will barely provide food and shelter for himself and family feels curiously about why it is some people in the world work so hard and get so little, it may enlighten him to know that the corporations of the United States will pay out in dividends during July the tidy sum of $204,257,249 to persons who have done absolutely nothing to earn or create this wealth.

The weekly and daily wageworkers who have done the work will continue to draw their bread money and toil to create another batch of dividends for the lucky stockholders.

With corporations giving to the shareholders such a sum it is hard to see where business is either bad or good. It is hard to see if one lives among stockholders and never considers the man who does the work. This is nearly $19,000,000 more than was paid out in the same month last year. It adds the same newspaper which shows that the American workman is an able provider for people who don't work.

Of this sum $6,842,700 will be disbursed in dividends and the remainder will be interest on various bonds of railroads, industrial, traction, government and Greater New York bonds. The sum will be in excess of the $24,000,000 mentioned, for it does not take into consideration the interest on the bonds of many smaller municipalities, which will run up into millions.

A summary of the July disbursements in dividends with the comparisons follow:

Table with 2 columns: Year (1910, 1909) and Amount. Rows include Railroad, Industrial, Gov't, and Total.

The interest disbursements for railroads alone will be $2,500,000 as against $78,100,000 for last year. The remainder of the $107,414,549 will be distributed among industrial, traction and government and municipal bonds. The disbursements of interest for 1909 amounted to $99,764,549.

During the year the following companies increased their dividends: American Snuff common, Butte Electric common, Detroit Edison, Gold-Consolidated, International Silver, International Nickel, Massachusetts Electric, Mackay common, National Carbon common, Twin City, United Shore Machinery and Engineering, Air Brake.

The following companies were added to the list of dividend payers: Terminal common, International Paper common, Puerto Rico Sugar common and preferred, and Virginia Railway.

FIRST AIRSHIP LINE NOW IN OPERATION

Deutschland With 20 Passengers Makes 300 Mile Trip at Express Train Speed.

DUSSELDORF, Germany, June 22.—The first regular airship passenger service was inaugurated today, when Count Zeppelin's great dirigible balloon, the Deutschland, carrying twenty passengers, successfully made the first scheduled trip from Friedrichshafen to this city, a distance of 300 miles, in nine hours.

The weather was perfect and the motors worked faultlessly. The average time maintained for the complete course was approximately thirty-three miles an hour, but between Friedrichshafen and Stuttgart the 124 miles was covered at an average rate of forty-one miles an hour. The best speed for a single hour was forty-three and one-half miles.

The advantages of traveling in the air were demonstrated when the time consumed on a part of the journey is compared with that of the railroad. Between Mannheim and this place the time of express trains is six hours, and the Deutschland cut this down one-third, taking four hours. The shortest distance between the two cities is 136 miles, but the Deutschland deviated slightly from the straight line, in order to pass over Coblenz and Cologne. The railway, of necessity, covers a circuitous route.

Count Zeppelin at the Helm. The route was via Stuttgart, Mannheim, Cologne, to Dusseldorf. It had been carefully marked out in advance for the guidance of the pilot, and was followed exactly. There was no air stirring and the Deutschland made her way unhampered through a flood of bright sunshine.

The Deutschland swung gently into her landing here at noon, and the multitude surrounding the landing yard shouted a welcome. The city had been gayly decorated in honor of the event. The promoters of the enterprise and their guests were entertained at a public dinner.

MORE PLEAD GUILTY

Seven of Schenectady Grafter Convicted and Sentences are Pending.

SCHENECTADY, June 22.—Indications now point to the concluding tomorrow of the extraordinary term of the supreme court, called by Governor Hughes to prosecute the grafters in this county. Ten of the eighteen indictments have been disposed of and it was learned tonight that the other eight indicted men are ready to enter pleas of guilty and withdraw their former pleas when court convenes in the morning. The ten cases disposed of to date follow:

Anson H. Cady, ex-supervisor, pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $200. John H. Peters, clerk of the board of supervisors, pleaded guilty. Sentence suspended. Thomas W. Winne, supervisor, dismissed. Irving S. Vedder, newsdealer, dismissed. Philip Mulderick, plumber, pleaded guilty to grand larceny and presenting a fraudulent bill, sentence suspended.

William J. Plamer, painter, pleaded guilty to presenting a fraudulent bill, sentence will be pronounced tomorrow. Dr. Charles N. Van Denberge, county superintendent of construction and repairs, convicted by trial of forgery. Sentence will be pronounced tomorrow. Aaron P. Huffmire, convicted of larceny. Sentence will be pronounced tomorrow. George Pepper, ex-superintendent of Road building, indicted for grand larceny, but convicted of petit larceny by trial. Sentence will be pronounced tomorrow. George Foster Sauter, electrical contractor, convicted by trial of grand larceny on the second degree and of presenting a fraudulent bill. He will be sentenced tomorrow.

FRANCE TO COMPEL BACHELORS TO WED

Measure Introduced to Stimulate Birth Rate in the Republic.

PARIS, June 22.—A series of measures designed to stimulate the birth rate in France was introduced in parliament today. They include the imposition of additional military service upon bachelors more than twenty-nine years old, making obligatory the marriage of state employes who have reached the age of twenty-five years, with supplemental salaries and pension allowances for those with more than three children, and the repeal of the law requiring the equal distribution of estates among the children.

The dislike of Frenchmen to divide their property is a frequent cause of restricted families, according to those who have made a study of the subject. The proposed legislation follows the recent publication of vital statistics which showed that the births in the republic during 1909 were 770,000, against 792,000 in the preceding year, and that the population has been increased by only 3,000,000 since 1851.

JAPAN TO BOSS COREA.

Indications That Later May Be Ruled Like Philippines.

TOKIO, June 22.—An imperial ordinance issued today creates a colonial board which is to administer the affairs of Formosa, Liao-tung in Manchuria, South Saghalien and Corea. The decree removes Corea from foreign affairs except diplomatic matters. The inclusion of Corea is regarded as significant. Japan under the decree will continue the residency there, but it is thought that its retention will be brief. It is believed in the best informed circles that Japan will pursue the same policy in Corea that the United States has followed in the Philippines. The Coreans will probably have no constitutional rights, but may get a separate tariff.

REFUSE TO ENTER CHURCH.

French Deputies Cause Furore at Funeral of Drowned Sailors.

PARIS, June 22.—Henry Brisson, president of the chamber of deputies and Antoine Dubost, president of the senate, today refused to attend the public funeral of the victims of the submarine Pluvion disaster, as the funeral was held in a church.

KAISER GOES TO KIEL.

POTSDAM, June 22.—Emperor William left at 8 o'clock this morning by train for Hamburg, on his way to attend the yachting regatta at Kiel. He will board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern at Altona. At Hamburg he will dine with Albert Ballin, director general of the Hamburg-American steamship line.

DEMANDS ON GREECE.

BUCHAREST, Roumania, June 22.—The Roumanian foreign office has made a peremptory demand upon the Grecian government for satisfaction for the injury suffered when a mob at Piraeus recently attacked a Roumanian mail steamship. Greece is given eight days in which to comply with the demand, failing which Roumania will "take the steps necessary to uphold the national dignity."

SEIDEL MOVES TO ARREST BOSS BEGGS

To Collect License Fees, Socialist Mayor Swears Out Warrant for Street Car Magnate.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 22.—As the latest move in the effort of the city administration to collect license fees alleged to be due from the Milwaukee Electric Railway and Light Company, Mayor Seidel has sworn out a warrant for John I. Beggs, as general manager, charging violation of a license ordinance.

During the day he gave out an interview stating that the supreme court would probably be asked to decide whether the city can collect the fees. Evidence was personally secured by the mayor Tuesday on which a test case will be based. With City Treasurer C. B. Whitnall, two representatives of the city attorney's office and a patrolman, he boarded a street car and rode a few blocks. Mayor Seidel paying fares for five.

GIRL MURDERED, YOUTH ARRESTED

Sutor of Victim Had Blood and Teeth Marks on His Body.

CUMBERLAND, Md., June 22.—The body of a pretty young girl with her throat cut was found this morning in a clump of bushes in the vicinity of the railroad station at South Cumberland. There were signs of a struggle. The body was that of Alice Brown, aged seventeen. Buck Nolan, a youth of about the same age, has been placed under arrest, charged with the crime, and two other young men are held as having knowledge of how the girl came to her death.

BOSSSES' REVENGE FALLS ON BABIES

Pure Milk Demanded; Producers' Association Won't Give Rochester Any.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., June 22.—The Western New York Milk Producers' Association this afternoon voted to cut off Rochester's milk supply because the restrictions imposed by George W. Goler, city health officer, who demands that the state test be met by all cows, the milk from which is to be sold in the city.

PATERSON WEAVER MISSING.

John Grieder, Gone Since Sunday, Left Seven Children and Wife.

PATERSON, N. J., June 22.—A general alarm has been sent out for John Grieder, a silk weaver, of Spruce and Slater streets. Grieder has been missing from home since Sunday night and his family and friends are at a loss to account for his absence. His wife and children spent all day Monday and yesterday trying to get some trace of him, and today they asked the police to aid them.

GOMPERS TRYING TO FORCE LEGISLATION

Threatens to Oppose Republicans Unless Stanley Inquiry, and Hughes Sundry Bills Pass.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Union labor is insistent that the house shall pass the Stanley resolution authorizing an inquiry into the activities of the steel trust. President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, and other labor leaders, appeared at the capitol today in force. They were in conference with members of the committee on rules which has the Stanley resolution under consideration.

Gompers and his associates urged that the resolution be reported and passed. They are understood to have given notice that unless the measure was put through by the house the Republican party would be held responsible, and its candidates opposed by the Federation at the polls in the November elections.

The American Federation of Labor has been after the steel trust for two or three years. Gompers, appearing for the association, has taken the matter up with the Attorney General on a number of occasions. He was told by the Attorney General that the government had no information in its possession that would justify it in proceeding against the Steel Corporation.

HOUSE EXEMPTS LABOR

Forced to Take Stand and Civil Bill Goes Back to Conference.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The question of labor unions and the Sherman anti-trust law operated in sending the sundry bill back to conference when the house refused to recede from its position that no money appropriated in the bill should be used in the prosecution under that law of any combination having in view the increasing of wages, shortening of hours, or bettering the condition of labor.

The house also voted to stand firm on its provision that the bureau of standards, at a cost of $50,000, should continue the investigation of structural materials, such as stone, clays, and cement for use of the government. The senate made the amount $100,000 and provided that the investigation should be made under the newly created bureau of mines.

MAY GET RAISE.

Recommended That City Laborers Ought to Have $3 Per Day.

It is said that the Board of Estimate will be asked to pay city laborers $3 a day hereafter. It was shown at a hearing before Controller Prendergast and President Mitchell, of the Board of Aldermen, that these laborers are earning an average wage of $3 a week because of time lost by weather conditions.

EXPECTS BOY BACK WITHOUT POLICE AID

Dr. Scimeca Seems to Think He Knows How to Look for Son Without Detectives.

Dr. Marino Scimeca, of 2 Prince street, the Sicilian whose three-year-old son Michael was kidnaped on Tuesday, presumably by one of the gang that has been writing the doctor letters demanding money ever since the birth of the child, got another letter yesterday, which, far from adding to his alarm, seemed to assure him that he would soon regain possession of his boy. Dr. Scimeca had handed to the police fifteen letters which he had received at intervals for the past three years, but the one that came yesterday went into other hands, and the doctor wasn't inclined to say very much about it.

He took the position that since the police had worked on the case ever since the letters began to come, and had discovered nothing at all, they probably wouldn't be of much assistance in recovering the boy. The letters demanded $5,000 as the price of the boy's return. It didn't name any place at which the money was to be delivered, but merely said: "See a friend." Dr. Scimeca appeared to understand what this meant. He gave the letter to a man, said to be his own cousin, and then sat down to await the return of Michael.

For some reason, perhaps because of something in the letter, Dr. Scimeca expected that Michael would be returned at noon yesterday. When the hour passed without any news of the boy the doctor appeared to be worried, but calmed himself by reasoning that the kidnapers were watching the house all the time and that none of the gang had dared to approach the place with the boy because of the frequent visits of the police and others who came to console with the doctor or to ask for news.

The theory that the doctor had something in mind besides passive waiting was borne out by the big revolver which he wore strapped to his waist. He showed it as he spoke.

Dr. Scimeca didn't seem at all frightened, and it was apparent that he understood the plan upon which his friends who know how to walk among the kidnapers are following out. When asked if he knew who the men were who had his boy, he replied: "I suspect lots of people," and then changed the subject. He said, however, that he expected to have to pay for the boy's return, and that he was willing to do it. "What's the use of money if I haven't my boy," was the way he put it. Mrs. Scimeca didn't seem to share her husband's confidence that the boy would be returned unharmed. She begged her husband to pay what was asked, and offered to pawn her jewelry to help raise the money.

$5,000 as Ransom.

Dr. Scimeca didn't take the demand for $5,000 very seriously. He explained that "they" were ignorant, and that $5,000 might be translated as meaning a good deal of money, and that ideas of what a good deal of money was depended upon many things. It might be that he would have to pay $100, but he was inclined to think that $50 would satisfy the child stealers.

Just what the police thought of the turn matters had taken is uncertain, but it is pretty clear what the doctor thinks of the police when they are up against Italian blackmailers. "Will the police pay money for my boy's return?" he asked and shrugged his shoulders in answer, adding, "When I get the child then I go to the police."

It was said that the detectives were working on evidence collected by the late Lieutenant Petroso, who worked on the case when Dr. Scimeca first began to get the letters. Just what this evidence was no one would say, but one of the detectives said there was reason to believe that the men who carried off the boy belonged to the same gang that killed Petroso in Italy. This supposition was based on the fact that after Petroso went abroad no letters came to the doctor until several weeks after Petroso was killed. The detectives reasoned that the gang was too busy then to bother with a little kidnaping job.

ANTI-UNION JUSTICE AGAIN IN TROUBLE

Higginbotham, of Brooklyn, Must Answer to Court for More of His Crooked Work—Notorious Record.

E. Gaston Higginbotham, city magistrate, labor hater, capitalist sympathizer, accused thief, and the man who paraded the streets of Brooklyn in a drunken condition the other day and ordered girl strikers to go home, is again in trouble.

The present charge is mild, compared to some of the crimes this evil-smelling dispenser of "Justice" has been accused of. A warrant calling for the arrest of Higginbotham was issued yesterday afternoon by Surrogate Ketcham.

The warrant stipulated that Higginbotham be taken into custody immediately, and committed to the county jail in Brooklyn, unless he should agree promptly to pay $254.00, including interest, which he was directed to turn over to Eli P. Moniot, administrator under the will of Annie L. Moniot, by an order of the surrogate, on April 19, 1909.

Instead of giving the warrant to the sheriff to execute, Surrogate Ketcham gave it to Philo P. Safford, a lawyer, counsel for Moniot. The proceedings are entitled: "In the matter of the estate of John A. Dorsey, deceased." Higginbotham is an executor of the estate, and it is charged that he refused and neglected to obey the amended order of the surrogate.

"Magistrate" Higginbotham usually sits in the Bedford Avenue Court, Brooklyn. It was understood that the warrant would be served on him at once. Here is this "Justice's" record: In May, 1909, Mrs. Mary Donohue, of 267 South 9th street, Brooklyn, told a Kings county assistant district attorney, R. E. Elder, that Higginbotham had taken $500 cash from her and kept it.

Elder and his assistants forced Higginbotham's desk immediately afterward, and found a $500 bill. Withheld Sister's Money. He was also sued by his sister last November for $300, which Surrogate Ketcham had decided was due her from their mother's estate.

Once, too, he allowed a check for $3,700 to go unpaid, and Justice Jaycox ordered the resale of the property the magistrate had purchased with the money. In August, 1908, Higginbotham struck a witness who appeared before him, knocking the man down. In May, 1909, an action was brought against him by the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, which was surety on his bond as general guardian of Minnie F. Nelson. The company complained that the magistrate had not lived up to his agreement to deposit securities in a safe deposit box under the joint control of himself and the company.

In July, 1909, Higginbotham barely missed arrest for neglect of duty and implied contempt. Judge Dike, in the County Court, had fixed the amount of bail and made ready to sign the writ of attachment. But Higginbotham straightened matters out before they got so far. Contempt Charge. On Tuesday, of this week, Higginbotham very narrowly escaped getting in contempt of court in the Borough of Queens by failing to appear before County Judge Humphrey in the case of John Peterson, who was charged with having burglarized the Higginbotham residence at Par Rockaway. When Higginbotham failed to show up Tuesday morning Judge Humphrey gave instructions to have a bench warrant issued for him. At 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, however, Magistrate Higginbotham showed up, accompanied by his attorney, James Brennan. A consultation was held with the judge, and then the court resumed the case, Brennan appearing. Judge Humphrey said that Magistrate Higginbotham had meant no disrespect to the court, but had made a mistake about the date of the subpoena. Higginbotham stated that the team of the mother of young Peterson had "abducted" him so that he did not like to appear against the boy. The mother told him, he said, that it was her son's first offense. A Drunken Tour. On June 10 this man Higginbotham made a tour of Brooklyn's North Side, where several cordage strikers, several of them young girls, were to be found. He did this at the instigation of some of the Brooklyn cops, who had been using their night sticks too much and who wanted him to give them a clean bill of health. While in that condition he went sneering around, arrogantly ordering the girl strikers to go home and threatening the men with trips to the island if they (Continued on Page 3.)

JUSTICE KEOGH GETS TROLLEY CASE AGAIN

Justice Morschauer Declines to Act and Refers It Back—Men May Return on His Ruling.

Another surprise came today in the trolley strike situation when the proceedings brought by the city to compel Receiver Sutherland to operate the cars or forfeit the franchise came before Justice Morschauer at Poughkeepsie.

When the application came before Justice Keogh yesterday, he declined to dispose of the motion on the grounds that it would not be courteous to Justice Morschauer, since Receiver Sutherland on Saturday had forwarded a report to him asking him to deal with the strike situation.

Sutherland Jolted. Receiver Sutherland was plainly disconcerted when the case was called in court at Poughkeepsie, to see John F. Ringwood retained by the trolley men to fight out their side of the action.

While the hearing was going on before Justice Morschauer, there was a spirited debate between counsel on all sides. At every point the railroad people were soundly beaten, and it was quite apparent that the judge would prefer that some one else decide this matter of wages.

When Justice Keogh set the hearing for 9 a. m. today, counsel for the railroad company interposed various objections, but without avail. In all probability Keogh will appoint a board of arbitration, and on his recommendation, the men may resume work.

The further inquiry is made into the situation the more preposterous are the statements of the company, say the strikers. With the enormous revenue pouring into their coffers every day, it seems the height of absurdity for them to claim inability to meet the men's demands.

Many people well acquainted with the affairs of the road impressed their views on the question to The Call reporter. One said: "I know as a positive fact that conductors on tripper runs on the Broadway line often take in $100 in an eleven-hour day. Tell me they can't afford to pay 20 cents an hour, eh? Let them tell that to a blind man. He won't see the smile."

STRIKE NOW LOOMS UP ON GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM

TORONTO, Ontario, June 22.—The Dominion government's conciliation board has made its award in the dispute between the trainmen of the Canadian Pacific railroad and Grand Trunk railroad, and the companies.

The demand of the men, including conductors, brakemen and baggagemen, is that wages should be raised to the standard paid on the United States roads. Nine thousand men have voted to strike unless the companies agree to this condition.

Under the schedule compiled by the board the Canadian Pacific railroad rate is 8 cents per hundred miles lower than the United States standard mentioned for conductors, and 5 cents beneath that for baggagemen and brakemen.

The conciliators were not unanimous. They were J. E. Atkinson, Wallace Nesbitt, K. C. and J. C. Donoghue. The latter joined with Atkinson in supporting the 25 per cent increase of Grand Trunk railroad wages.

While the hearing was going on before Justice Morschauer, there was a spirited debate between counsel on all sides. At every point the railroad people were soundly beaten, and it was quite apparent that the judge would prefer that some one else decide this matter of wages.

When Justice Keogh set the hearing for 9 a. m. today, counsel for the railroad company interposed various objections, but without avail. In all probability Keogh will appoint a board of arbitration, and on his recommendation, the men may resume work.

"STUNG" BY SCAB HERDING CONCERN

National Metal Trades Association Entice Men Who Can't Read to Boston—A Sample Contract.

BY J. D. WILLIAMS. (Special to The Call.)

Boston, Mass., June 22.—The machinists' strike is now in its third week and both sides are obstinate. The National Metal Trades Association has begun to import scabs. The following is the contract that men are compelled to sign in order to get a job.

"I hereby agree to work promptly for any member of the National Metal Trades Association in Boston, Mass. I further agree with the firm by whom I am employed to permit it to deduct from my pay the amount of money advanced to me ($14), deducting one-half the first pay day, and if for any reason I should quit the services of the firm by whom I am employed prior to my second pay day, I agree that the total amount of money so advanced to me shall be deducted from whatever wages may be due me.

"I am fully aware that there is a strike on at the present time in the shops of the above named concern, and I certify that I am perfectly willing to go to work under such conditions.

"I further agree that my tools and personal effects shall be considered as a pledge, to be held at my risk, for the faithful performance of my duties and the repayment of money advanced, failing in which the same may be sold at either public or private sale without notice.

"This contract does not cover wages or term of employment." Due to Morrill. It is interesting to note that the contract mentions that there is a strike on. This is due to the efforts of Socialist Representative Morrill, of Haverhill, who was successful in getting a "strike ad" put through the state legislature which compels bosses who advertise for men to state that there is a strike on if this is a fact.

Seven men were imported here in the crowd from which this contract was secured, six of whom claim they cannot read. Four of the seven, as soon as they found out a strike was on, reported at the Machinists' Union headquarters.

As is stated in the contract, a worker pledges his tools to this scab herding concern. These four men had to pay $2.50 to recover their tools. Attorney Frederick Mansfield was retained by the union on behalf of these men and secured the return of the tools on payment of the above mentioned amount.

The striking machinists say common sense should teach workmen that there are plenty of machinists in Boston to supply all the needs that the trade demands. In an interview with one of the pickets at the factory of the Gillette Safety Razor Company, the representative of the call, the fact was brought out that at least four scabs are at work.

Local 254 has withdrawn its men and the Gillette Razor Company has refused to grant the workers' demands. A strike is on. The machinists state that this concern is working its men under poor conditions.

The men who were hoodwinked into coming to Boston to scab were from New York, where they returned after receiving their tools. FISH DEALERS LOSE. Supreme Court Justice Gieseler denied yesterday the application by Henry Sorgen and other fish dealers under the Manhattan Bridge for an injunction restraining Controller Prendergast from distributing the stalls in the potters' fish market by lot, in derogation of the pull that once prevailed.

JACK JOHNSON ON RAMPAGE IN FRISCO

Defies Police, Who Break Down His Door and Then Forgive Him. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 22.—After threatening to kill Officer Lewis, who had arrested him for fast speeding, Jack Johnson this afternoon defied three policemen by running to his room and barricading the door.

Jack Johnson was taken to the office of Chief of Police Martin, where he was released on $10 cash bail. His case will be called in court tomorrow morning, but Chief Martin squashed the charge of resisting and thrashing an officer and simply fined Johnson for speeding.

Johnson rushed between the men, in the feared Johnson's rage, and the negro then darted into his own room and barred the door, so it had to be broken down. He seemed insane with rage, and Delaney was very nervous until Johnson's temper had a chance to cool. When officers entered the room the negro was quietly reading a book.

JAMES J. HILL TELLS HOW HONEST HE IS

Washington Had Nothing on Jim, Because He Tells Students So Himself.

NEW HAVEN, June 22.—President Jim Hill, of the Northern Pacific and other railroads, was among those present who addressed the students of Yale University today.

James spoke a nice piece about how honest he has always been and said it all with a straight face, just as though the History of Great American Fortunes, by Gustave Meyers, did not contain court records, quotations which explain in detail just what part honesty played in the amassing of Mr. Hill's fortune.

CREAM ADULTERATOR SAVED BY A JUDGE

Who Thinks, Mark Ye, Cream Was Not Meant to be Drunk. WILKES-BARRE, Pa., June 22.—After many postponements the case of John N. Conyngham, one of this city's wealthiest and most prominent men who was charged with the adulteration of milk in violation of the pure food laws, was called in court today before Judge Ferris.

Mr. Conyngham has a magnificent farm at Hillsdale, near here, where he keeps a large herd of Albany cows and for some years he has been selling the milk from these cows to a limited number of customers in this city, chiefly for the use of babies.

THOMAS F. RYAN NOW TO EXPLOIT THE CONGO

Besides Taking Care of the Country's Gold, Will Also Look After Inhabitants' Morals.

Thomas F. Ryan—the F. standing for Fortune—street railway magnate, bank magnate, insurance magnate, rubber magnate and boss of many big and little wage-workers, gave out some remarks yesterday before sailing for the steamer Mauretania for Europe.

Some of them were: "Concerning the report that I am on the verge of collapse from nervous prostration, I may say that I have not had to consult my doctor for four and one-half months, and I sleep like a baby. I don't remember ever having been in better health or spirits. I like my new life since I threw off the tyranny of details. While I keep myself very busy, yet I do not permit things, either big or little, to worry me.

"Of all my business concerns, that which most interests me now is the Congo development. I expect to give a great deal of attention to it. It is not at all unlikely that I shall make a visit there. The mines in which I am interested are just north of those known as 'King Solomon's Mines.' The outlook for gold there is probably unsurpassed anywhere in the world.

To Care for Congo Morals. "I am interested not only in the industrial development of the Congo—which country I am convinced affords the greatest opportunity now to be found in the world—but also in the moral and social conditions. The solution of the negro problem there is, perhaps, the one which deserves the greatest attention. The great exaggeration to which currency has been given, have not in any way changed the firm purpose of those responsible for the future of that region to correct any abuses that heretofore have existed.

"It may be of interest to the public to know that I have now in the Congo, exploring it in every part, more men than Henry M. Stanley had upon his expedition in search of Dr. Livingstone. These men are working under the direction of the very best men that America can produce in their various departments of activities."

Through With Politics. "As for politics, I have no further interest in them. I have never been a candidate for office either by election or appointment. There is no truth in the report that I am a candidate to become United States senator from Virginia to succeed Senator Daniel. I have never been accustomed to wait to step into dead men's shoes. I have long been a close personal friend of Senator Daniel, and I hope that he will be spared for many years to serve his state and his country.

"There appears to have been some speculation as to the destinies of the Equitable since the stock control of the society changed hands. It may be regarded as certain, I think, that the management will still be conducted on conservative lines, and that, under the new regime, the interests of the policyholders will be well cared for.

"I regret very much that I shall not see Mr. Morgan during the present summer, as I am compelled to leave before he can arrive. My interest in his activities continues to be keen, and I do not fail to recognize the unique position that he holds in the business situation, not only of this country, but of the world.

Fathers of Their Country. "There are people who are asking who is to be the successor of Mr. Morgan. In my opinion there will be none. There has been only one Morgan, and there cannot be a second. Fortunately, there seems to be no reason to become alarmed on this point for years to come. As for the men to whom the interests of New York and the country most look in time of panic or peril in the next generation, there is no occasion to go beyond the younger men now in sight. I have perfect confidence in them. I firmly believe such men as Messrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., and Henry P. Davidson of the firm of J. Pierpont Morgan & Co.; Otto H. Kahn and Mortimer L. Schiff of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and George F. Baker, Jr., of the First National Bank, and James Stillman, Jr., of the National City Bank, may be relied upon to take care of the great banking and financial interests which lie at the foundation of American business. I look upon these as the ablest men of their time in any of the great financial centers."

BROOKLYN BAKERS GAIN FOUR SHOPS

Four more baker bosses yesterday signed agreements with the striking bakers in Brooklyn, and their shops will henceforth be run under union conditions. The union has been signing up with the master bakers one by one, and there are only a few small bakeries left unsigned, and the union officials expect to get them all within the next week.

The union is now carrying on the main fight against the trust bakeries, who declared that they are going to fight to union to a finish and starve the strikers into submission. All the efforts of the trust to break the strike have been met with defeat, and the strikers are all determined to carry on the fight to a finish.

The union bakery on Cooper street, which started last week, is doing good business, and the delegate of that shop reported at the meeting of the strikers at the Labor Lyceum yesterday that this shop is already supplying ninety stores which have heretofore been dealing with Shultz and other trust bakeries. The other union bakery, on Covert avenue, is doing good business, and if no agreement is reached with the bosses who are still obstinate, the strikers will start some more shops.

The women's auxiliary is still carrying the house-to-house and store-to-store canvass and their work is very successful. As a result of their work and the agitation carried on by the strikers the union shops are engaging extra help, and in many union shops the men are working overtime.

The strikers at their meeting yesterday heard the reports of the various committees and the pickets were instructed to continue their work. Fritz Krueger and Gus Ritter delivered addresses. The meetings arranged by the Socialist party for the striking bakers for the purpose of agitating for the union label are very successful.

LIBERIA CAUGHT IN FINANCIERS' NET

American and European Bankers Will Lend Republic $1,000,000—Kuhn, Loeb & Co. Get It Here.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Liberian government has appointed R. P. Faulkner of this city as its financial agent in the negotiations in the refunding of the Liberian government.

Faulkner was chairman of the American commission which was sent to Liberia about a year ago by the state department to investigate conditions there.

A loan of about $1,000,000 will be floated by Kuhn, Loeb and Company, who will be associated with the British, French and German bankers.

LAWLER REBUKED

Charged in House With Attempting Trick for His Master.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—Democratic members today bitterly opposed the proposition submitted to the house yesterday by President Taft in a special message, providing for a court of review in land cases. The Democrats charge that the passage of Representative Mendell's bill, introduced in conjunction with the Taft message, would result in the "clear listing" of the Cunningham claims in Alaska, the main issue in the Ballinger-Pinchot controversy.

Oscar Lawler, assistant attorney general for the interior department, who appeared to advocate the measure, was charged by Representative Robinson (Dem., Ark.) with waiting until a few days before adjournment before trying to force the measure through. The committee postponed action on the bill, temporarily.

THEIR DEATH A MYSTERY.

SCRANTON, Pa., June 22.—Two Italians not yet identified were found dead today in the roadway in South Scranton. One had been shot four times in the abdomen and the other once. They were about twenty and thirty years of age, respectively. The younger, who had been shot four times, had $1.40 in his pocket and the police believe the other dead man, with some companions, held him up for the purpose of robbery, that he resisted and killed one of his assailants. The others, it is supposed, then killed him and fled.

SETTLEMENT LANDS OPENED.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—The Interior Department today restored to settlement 136,000 acres of land south of Boise, Idaho, which land had originally been withdrawn under the reclamation act in connection with the Payette-Boise projects.

223 NEW UNIONS IN FOLD OF A. F. OF L.

Morrison's Report to Executive Council Shows 100 Per Cent Gain on the Year Before.

(By Pan-American Press) WASHINGTON, June 22.—Despite the opposition and misrepresentations of the professional union-busters and employers' associations, the American Federation of Labor has gained 109 per cent in the number of charters issued to new organizations since last October as compared to the same period of the previous year, according to the report of Secretary Morrison submitted to the executive council now in session here.

The report shows that 203 charters had been issued to new labor unions in the last eight months, while only 111 charters were issued for the same period the year before. Of the new chartered organizations, 98 were local unions, 66 Federal labor unions, 57 city central bodies, 1 international union, and 1 state federation.

From October 1, 1909, to June 1, 1910, the income of the A. F. of L. with the cash on hand amounted to $288,644.43, and the expenditures were $119,926.48, leaving a balance of $168,717.95.

With the labor chiefs convened in the national capital and Congress about to adjourn without enacting any of the measures providing for the protection of American wage-earners and their organizations, there is much speculation here as to what plans the executive council will formulate to meet the crisis.

The application for a charter from the Western Federation of Miners is before the executive council, and a committee of the former organization and one from the United Mine Workers of America are here to help in the work of solidifying the ranks of the metal and coal miners.

At the opening of the second day's session of the executive council, a telegram was received from Barre, Vt., announcing the sudden death of P. F. McCarthy, international secretary of the Quarry Workers' Union, in behalf of the council, President Gompers sent a telegram of condolence to the bereaved family.

PAN-AMERICANS FEAR IMPERIALISM OF U. S.

VALPARAISO, June 22.—A confederation of South American countries to combat the alleged growing imperialism of the United States by a boycott on American goods was proposed here today by the delegates from Venezuela to the Pan-American conference to be held in Buenos Aires.

If, on arriving at Buenos Aires, the Venezuelans find the sentiment favorable to such a plan, they said they would offer a motion providing for the confederation. The treatment accorded Venezuela by the United States in the recent trouble that resulted in the overthrow of President Castro and her course in the enforcement of claims against Venezuela were cited as evidence of "American aggression in South America." Unless checked, the Venezuelans declared, the United States will soon try to dictate the whole course of South American politics.

WRIGHTS HANDED A SEVERE JOLT

Oberlin Promised Aviators' Degrees, Then Threw Them Down Hard.

OBERLIN, Ohio, June 22.—Orville and Wilbur Wright, Dayton aviators, with their sister, Miss Katherine, left here in high dudgeon today, after being refused promised honorary degrees by the trustees of Oberlin College.

A week ago it was announced to the press and to the Wright brothers that the institution would confer degrees upon them today. The brothers and sister arrived yesterday.

Meanwhile, the trustees became incensed at the action of the faculty, which had been taken without consultation, and at a stormy meeting decided not to confer the degrees. The aviators were tipped off this morning, and the angry trio left Dayton at once.

RENO QUARTERS PICKED. RENO, Nev., June 22.—Unless there is something in the line of an earthquake before July 4 Johnson and Jeffries will battle here on Independence Day. This was made sure by the announcement of Tex Rickard.

Jeffries' quarters, which have already been selected, are located at Moana Springs, on the other side of Reno, which is quite a pretentious pleasure resort. They are located in a large park which includes an immense hot water swimming pool and a pavilion which may be used for open air boxing.

Tom Flanagan, the manager of Jack Johnson, who arrived on the field on Monday, rode around in an automobile all day looking for a suitable place for the champion's training ground. He finally selected a place known as Rick's Resort. Johnson's new quarters, which are far different from Seal Rock, are located in Verdi road, two miles west of Reno in the foot hills.

BOGUS "LIABILITY" LAW BEING URGED

Employers Association of Oregon Shows Hand in Urging Fake Law to Defeat Real One.

(Correspondence of The Call.) PORTLAND, Ore., June 16.—The Employers' Association of Oregon at last has shown its hand in the game to defeat the employers liability law of the Oregon State Federation of Labor. Failing to get the officers of the federation to betray their trust and drop the law they were instructed to work for, the smart heads of the association now proposed a law through the initiative to create a commission which will recommend to the legislature an employers' liability law.

Of all bunco games this is the biggest. Our Oregon legislature is the standing joke of every man, woman and child of intelligence. It has been and is so rotten that the people of Oregon had to resort to the initiative and referendum to protect themselves against fraud and corruption and advance reform.

Even admitted that the law the commission would recommend was a good law, there is absolutely no guaranty that the legislature would adopt it. Every precedent warrants the prediction that the stalwarts of the interests would kill a good law and enact a bogus measure.

But the trick is to defeat the employers' liability law of the federation. This can best be done, evidently think the wise heads of the employer's asso-

ECONOMY STROKE HITS WOMEN WORKERS

After tremendous labor on the part of investigators, the Public Works Department has brought forth a plan to reduce the cost of administration. The result is the laying off of forty-four women cleaners!

It is known that Mayor Gaynor wants to make a record for economy, and from the advertisement gained in this way, to put himself in the way of further political honors. Hence it is announced that the charge of these women cleaners will mean a "clear" saving of all of $10,000 a year. Meanwhile, the salaries of the holders of fat city jobs are being raised right along. Also, a number of laborers attached to the public buildings were transferred to the bureau of highways. It is announced that other reductions will be made gradually.
