IDENTIFY LETTERS IN DYNAMITE CASE

Iron Workers' Former Stenographer Recognizes Mail Sent Out by McNamara and Others.
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 17.—Miss Mary C. Dye, of Pittsburgh, a former stenographer for John J. McNamara, was the most important witness in the dynamite case today. She identified fifty or sixty letters in the handwriting of Ryan, Butler, J. J. McNamara, E. A. Clancy, Hocking, Webb, Barry and other defendants. She also identified letters she had written to them at McNamara's dictation and letters from P. J. Morrin and William Bernhardt as having been received at headquarters while she was employed there.
These letters, the government holds, all contain direct references to dynamiting and they will be read to the jury as soon as this identification is completed. There are nearly 500 of these letters, written from 1906 to 1911 and they correspond in many instances to the transportation of dynamite and the destruction of property told of by McNamara before the Grand Jury.
A number of hotel clerks were on the stand today and identified registers containing names of members of the Iron Workers.

RESERVE DECISION IN FIREMAN'S CASE

Argument Before Appellate Division to Have Trials Removed from County to Supreme Court.
The Appellate Division of the Second District in Brooklyn today reserved decision on the motion to have the case of Alexander Salamanna, also known as Alexander Alameda, one of the firemen in the recent dockers' strike awaiting a waiting trial, taken to the county court from the county court to the Supreme Court.
Justice Kelly, in the Supreme Court, refused last Monday to grant such a motion. District attorney Cropsey, of the city, immediately noticed the cases for trial. Darling obtained from Justice Jenks, of the Appellate Division, an order to show cause directing the District Attorney to state to the Appellate Division why a stay should not be granted pending the appeal by Darling from the decision of Kelly.
The District Attorney maintained at the hearing that the order denying removal was not appealable, and that the cases were not of importance as showing any general interest and were merely ordinary assault cases. Darling maintained that the order was appealable.

SOCIALIST CANDIDATE DEBATES BULL MOOSER

More than 2,000 persons listened to an open air debate between the Socialist and Bull Moose candidates for the Assembly from the 8th Assembly District at the corner of Eldridge and Grand streets last night.
It was while William Karlin, Socialist party candidate for the Assembly from that district, was addressing an open air meeting that Solomon Sufferin, the Bull Moose candidate, passed by, and some members of the audience recognized him and insisted that he debate with Karlin the issues of the campaign to which both Karlin and Sufferin agreed.
Each speaker spoke for half an hour and then took ten minutes for rebuttal. At the debate proceeded, the crowd grew larger until it was found necessary to move the truck further into the street. The entire width of the street from sidewalk to sidewalk was one mass of people. At the conclusion of the debate a vote, by a show of hands, was taken. The result: Sufferin, 27, while the vote for Karlin was so overwhelming—a multitude of hands—that counting was impossible.

When I was arrested yesterday I went to jail asking no privilege. I want to be treated the same as the humblest strikers. I don't want any special favors. I don't want to see any of our city officials in Little Falls. If the city officials will not grant it there will be outsiders who will assist the strikers to get their rights in this respect. You may have to build new jails to hold all the prisoners. We shall insist upon our rights to peaceable assembly and you can keep on arresting us.
I believe the decent citizens of Little Falls do not approve this outrage. Do men when they go on strike to have the rights of citizenship? Are they not entitled to the protection of the Constitution? If the manufacturers of this city were to hold a meeting in that park that delicate little child of police of yours would not dare lay his hands on it. Take away from us the right to speak and you deprive us of the means whereby we can agitate and develop into a real civilization.
I ask for no mercy from this court. I ask only justice. Treat me, judge, as the ragged and beaten man that might come before you."
Mayor Lunn directed the attention of the court to the fact that defendant and accused was intended to apply to loafers, loiterers and others who

OREGON CITIZENS
GREET EMIL SEIDL
(Special to The Call.)

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 17.—The best reception given Emil Seidel, Vice Presidential candidate of the Socialist party on his recent tour through the Pacific Coast town was accorded him here last night. The citizens of Oregon's capital turned out en masse to greet the Socialist Vice Presidential candidate. Seidel bitterly denounced the capitalist press for maliciously misrepresenting the Socialist party by playing upon the effect that Roosevelt was shot by a Socialist while there was nothing to be said that the assassin was a Socialist. Seidel bitterly denounced the capitalist press and the system that makes millions and he was compelled to make several times on account of the cheering and applause that lasted for several minutes.
In order to follow the schedule of his dates, Seidel was compelled to throw down an invitation to address a mass meeting of high school boys in Aberdeen yesterday morning.
"What was the source of your knowledge?" asked Chairman Clapp. "It would be impossible to define it," replied Lawson. "It came from various sources, confidential statements from different people and information that came to me in a general way."
Continuing, Lawson said: "I am more or less in the statement making business in the prosecution of my public affairs. In making these statements I follow a system. When I say I know a thing I think I know. Sometimes when I say I think a thing I guess at it. In regard to the campaign of 1904 my statements were such that I must have had positive knowledge at the time."
Lawson then passed to the pre-convention campaign of 1912. He said he knew a conspiracy had been formed to inject Colonel Roosevelt into the campaign with a view to splitting the Republican party.
"Who was to furnish the funds for this purpose?" asked Chairman Clapp. "I understood it was people who were interested in finance in a big way," the witness replied.
The witness said that Wall Street was opposed to the re-election of President Taft.
"What were going to do what they could to induce Roosevelt to split the

COMES AS COMPLAINANT, IS HIMSELF ARRESTED
Patrick Donohue, a Brooklyn Socialist, came to the Butler Street Police Court yesterday to testify against Patrick Rooney, who had been arrested Wednesday night for disturbing a street meeting at which Donohue was speaking on the corner of Court and President streets.
But, instead of getting a chance to do this, he was arrested by one of the court attendants, who told Magistrate Nash that Donohue had been making a disturbance. A complaint of disorderly conduct was lodged against Donohue, and he was held in $500 bail for Special Sessions.
According to Donohue, the attendant tried to force him out of the courtroom. In fact, he got him outside and then returned to the courtroom. Donohue, suspecting something, persisted in being admitted, he was arrested, and his arraignment followed.
The case against Rooney will be heard this morning.

TRAIN KILLS THREE PICKERS
MASSILLON, Ohio, Oct. 17.—Three persons were killed outright, one seriously hurt, two less seriously, and one escaped injury near Harmon, five miles south of here early tonight when a Wheeling and Lake Erie passenger train running backward ran down a party of men who were working on the tracks. The train was returning from the Tuscarawas County fair at Canal Dover, Ohio, to their homes in Somersdale.
