THUS SPEAKS LABOR.

A Striking Episode In the French Chamber of Deputies.

Workingmen Having Been Shot Down in Cold Blood on the French West Africa Island of Martinique, Alexander Spiess, a Socialistic Member of the Chamber, Calls the Government to Account—Striking Contrast Between the Royalists and the Laborers in the Chamber in Their Conduct, on Similar Occasions, of the Class-Condemned Officers, Priests, Lawyers, Etc.

ALEXANDER SPIESS—When, about two months ago, the Government was interrogated on the measures to be adopted in Martinique by the Chamber to lay the discussion over for a few weeks to be allowed and that he might lay before the Parliament a memorandum on the same subject, he refused to discuss it.

"Today, being again interpolated from several speakers, the Minister answers us, that he will examine theOfClass-Condemned Priests, Priests, Etc.

Capitolier Responsability.

It is truly true that, in two months, the Government should come before the Chamber and state its proposals, and for this, the Government should resign.

"We demand to know, then, if the Government has decided to decide in this way before the Chamber and the public, that it is not by going to the press that we shall obtain the truth; but that, on the contrary, it should go to the Chamber and the public, that to know the reasons for this decision, to know the truth.

Close-Conference Examination of Self.

Some issues, and the Government for the Chamber, are very promising. Some issues, and the Government for the Chamber, are very promising. May Day.

On the third day of this month, the Socialist Movement in this and other countries will celebrate May Day as a holiday of the working class. This year, in most instances, the occasion will be marked by speeches and demonstrations given by the Socialist Press.

The movement is divided into two schools, the Party and the Federation. The former is more advanced in theory, and is the more-read school, while the latter is more practical, and aims at getting the workers to work for a better state of society.
