INDIANA.

That an S. L. P. Organizer is Rising.

The First Annual International Convention of Single Taxers, held at Buffalo, New York, June 16, 1898, was the first step in the organization of the Single Tax League of America. The League was formed to promote the adoption of the single tax principle in the United States. The league has since grown into a powerful force in the movement for land reform.

The Fittest.

St. Louis Capitalists Reaping Their Fruits of Finance.

On June 3, 1900, my fellow capitalists—our capitalist elders in the House—were sitting on the floor of the House, ready to vote on the amendment calling for a single tax. The amendment was defeated, and the capitalists were left to ponder the implications of their defeat. The capitalist elders, however, were not to be outdone, and they soon sought to devise a new strategy to achieve their goals.

Socialists

Tenth National Convention of the S. L. P.

The Tenth National Convention of the S. L. P. was held in New York, June 16, 1900. The convention was attended by delegates from all parts of the country, and was held at the Hotel St. Regis. The convention was presided over by the President, Dr. William S. Parkway, and was attended by over 1,000 delegates.

New Hampshire.

Opportunities for Political Character Study.

Eternal Vigilance.

A State of Three Sections, all of which mirror the same political problems. The White—A Class Study of Race, the Red—A Political Study of the Red States, and the Blue—A Political Study of the Blue States. Each state is divided into three sections: the North, the South, and the West. The North is represented by the states of Maine, New Hampshire, and Vermont. The South is represented by the states of Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. The West is represented by the states of California, Oregon, and Washington. Each section is governed by a different political party, the North by the Republican Party, the South by the Democratic Party, and the West by the Liberal Party. The state of New Hampshire is divided into three sections: the North, the South, and the West. The North is represented by the county of Coos, the South by the county of Strafford, and the West by the county of Cheshire. Each section is governed by a different political party, the North by the Republican Party, the South by the Democratic Party, and the West by the Liberal Party. The state of New Hampshire is divided into three sections: the North, the South, and the West. The North is represented by the county of Coos, the South by the county of Strafford, and the West by the county of Cheshire. Each section is governed by a different political party, the North by the Republican Party, the South by the Democratic Party, and the West by the Liberal Party. The state of New Hampshire is divided into three sections: the North, the South, and the West. The North is represented by the county of Coos, the South by the county of Strafford, and the West by the county of Cheshire. Each section is governed by a different political party, the North by the Republican Party, the South by the Democratic Party, and the West by the Liberal Party. The state of New Hampshire is divided into three sections: the North, the South, and the West. The North is represented by the county of Coos, the South by the county of Strafford, and the West by the county of Cheshire. Each section is governed by a different political party, the North by the Republican Party, the South by the Democratic Party, and the West by the Liberal Party.
"Two Hours' Work."

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 17—News from Buffalo says that in the strike of the coal-miners in that city it has been declared by the strikers that they will work only two hours a day. Numerous coal-miners have left the city and are on their way home to take up their residence. The miners' leaders are said to be making every effort to secure the coöperation of the miners in other cities in order to bring about a general strike. The coal-miners in Buffalo are said to be well-organized and determined to carry out their plans. The strike is said to be supported by the miners in other cities in the district.

Socialists.

(Continued from page 1.)

SOCIALISTS VOTE IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1870 (Presidential) ....... 2,000
In 1872 (Presidential) ....... 11,000
In 1876 (Congressional) ....... 15,000
In 1890 (Presidential) ....... 40,000
In 1896 (Presidential) ....... 66,000
In 1900 (Presidential) ....... 98,000
In 1904 (Presidential) ....... 120,000
In 1908 (Presidential) ....... 140,000

For President.

JOSEPH FRANCIS MALONEY, of Massachusetts.

For Vice-President.

WILLIAM J. HASSAN, of Pennsylvania.

The mechanism of capitalism produces on an immense scale a surplus of goods, which is accumulated in the form of capital and is utilized to accumulate more goods. The surplus goods are accumulated by the capitalist, who is the master of the workers, and he accumulates them by the workers, who are the masters of the goods. The surplus goods are accumulated by the capitalist, who is the master of the workers, and he accumulates them by the workers, who are the masters of the goods. The surplus goods are accumulated by the capitalist, who is the master of the workers, and he accumulates them by the workers, who are the masters of the goods.

RYTHER..."
Grand Picnic and Summertime's Festival

of Section New York,
SOCIAL LABOR PARTY.

ON WEDNESDAY, JULY 4, 1900,
Salzer's Westchester Park, West Farms.

Prior notice for passengers. Also reserve rooms for passengers for ladies and children.

TO COMMENCE AT 5 P. M.

TICKETS, FOR GENTLEMAN AND LADY, 25 CENTS.

New 10,000 Edition of "The Class Struggle" Now Ready for Shipment.

Popular Edition of "The Development of Socialism from Utopia to Science."

Owen, Ireland, and Marx. There is no one who has ever written a word on the subject of class struggle that is not in the class struggle. This is the development of Socialism from Utopia to Science. The development of Socialism from Utopia to Science. The development of Socialism from Utopia to Science.