A BLOOMING NOVEL.

Two young men, one of whom had been a newspaper reporter, and the other a newspaper publisher, were sitting in an old-fashioned restaurant, discussing the latest developments in the world of literature.

"I think the novel we're working on is going to be a real hit," said the publisher. "People love a good story, and this one has plenty of action and suspense.

The reporter nodded in agreement. "I agree. And with the way publishing has been going lately, we should be able to sell plenty of copies."
