A REVIEW OF THE WORK DONE BY THE DAILY
PEOPLE DURING PAST SIX MONTHS.

The extra general situation of the country and the need for more effective and more vigorous action on the part of the people made it necessary for the Daily People to increase its activity in the past six months. The Daily People has been more active, its columns have been filled with more articles, and its editorials have been more forceful than ever before.

CONGRESSIONAL DOINGS.
A CURIOUS BILL THAT THE DEFEATS WILL REAPPEAR.

The National Civil Service Bill is expected to be defeated in the House of Representatives. The bill was introduced by Representative A. H. Smith of Ohio, and it was generally considered a good measure. However, opposition from various quarters has been strong, and it is likely that the bill will be defeated.

DISFRANCHISE ALL UFW.

The United States Senate has refused to consider a bill that would disfranchise all UFW members. This is a blow to the working men, who rely on the UFW for protection and support.

LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE.

JOHN Q. FENYER NOMINATED FOR MAYOR OF CHICAGO.

The Chicago Daily People is pleased to announce that John Q. Fenyer has been nominated for mayor of Chicago. Fenyer is a strong advocate of labor rights and social reform, and he has the support of the Daily People.

ORGANIZED SCAFFERY.

SEATTLE, WASH., Dec. 21.-

The Seattle Daily People is pleased to report that the Labor Employees Union has been organized in Seattle. This union is composed of workers in the shipbuilding industry, and it is expected to be a powerful force in the struggle for better working conditions.

SIZING HER UP.

THE SUPERSTITION ABOUT THE "ENGL ISH MOVEMENT" LOSING GROUND.

The Daily People is not impressed by the superstition about the "English Movement" losing ground in the United States. The Daily People believes that this movement is growing stronger every day, and it will continue to be a force for social reform.

THE DAILY PEOPLE'S WORKERS

The Daily People's Workers have been busy in the past six months. They have been involved in various labor struggles, and they have been active in organizing new unions. The Daily People supports the work of the Daily People's Workers, and it looks forward to even greater success in the future.
Guesde’s Famous Speech.

THE CARE OF MILLIONS.

The story of the famous speech by Guesde is well known in labor circles. It was delivered at the Biennial Conference of the American Federation of Labor in Chicago, and it has been widely reprinted and discussed. The speech was a powerful plea for the working class to unite and fight for its rights.

Guesde emphasized the importance of solidarity and the need for the working class to work together for their common benefit. He called for a stronger union movement and for the formation of a socialist party.

The speech ended with a call to action, urging the working class to rise up and fight for their rights.

STREET CAR WORKERS.

FELLOWSHIP.

We hereby extend our congratulations to the Railway and Locomotive Workers Union on the successful conclusion of their strike. The strike was called to protest against the unlawful and unfair practices of the management, and it was won through the solidarity and determination of the workers.

The victory is a clear reminder of the power of the working class when they unite and fight for their rights.

The Railway and Locomotive Workers Union has set an example for other workers throughout the country. Their victory is a source of inspiration and encouragement for all workers who are fighting for their rights.

We commend the Railway and Locomotive Workers Union on their victory, and we wish them continued success in their efforts.

THE DRESDEN AFFAIR.

The Dresden Affair has been a major topic of discussion in recent weeks. The incident involved a group of workers who were involved in a strike, and the police were called in to help resolve the situation.

The incident has sparked a debate about the role of the police in labor disputes, and it has highlighted the need for workers to be protected and supported by their unions.

The Dresden Affair is a reminder of the importance of solidarity and unity within the working class. We stand in solidarity with the workers who were involved in the Dresden Affair, and we call for continued support for their efforts.

We commend the workers who were involved in the Dresden Affair and we wish them continued success in their efforts.
WELCOME XX CENTURY!

From the first day of the century, since the world was first organized, we have been living in the era of the 20th century. The year 1901 marked the beginning of the 20th century, and it was a significant year for many reasons.

In this issue, we will explore the events and developments of 1901, including social, political, economic, and cultural changes. We will also feature articles on noteworthy individuals and institutions of the time.

This issue of Weekly People magazine is dedicated to celebrating the beginning of the 20th century and the events that shaped our world.

Uncle Sam and Brother Jones

BROTHER JONATHAN

The Daily Leader

The Social Democratic Party, founded by Karl Marx in 1847, was the first great socialist party in history. It was a century ago that the Social Democrats held their first national congress in London, and it was at this congress that the party was formally established.

The Social Democrats had been founded by a group of radical intellectuals who were dissatisfied with the prevailing political system. They believed that the working class was being exploited by the capitalist class, and they sought to create a new society based on equality and justice.

In 1901, the Social Democratic Party was still a relatively small organization, but it was already beginning to make its mark on the political landscape. The party had won several local elections, and it was gaining support among working-class voters.

As the party continued to grow, it faced many challenges. It was often targeted by the ruling class, and its members were frequently arrested and imprisoned. However, the party was determined to continue its work, and it was eventually able to win several important victories.

Today, the Social Democratic Party is a major force in the world of politics, and it continues to fight for the rights of the working class. Its history is one of struggle and determination, and it is an inspiration to all who believe in the power of the people.
SELECTED ARTICLES

The South Beach Consolidated Fund.

THE NEW TRUSTS.

By H. S. HANSON.

This book is intended to give to all who would study the subject of the trusts a clear and comprehensive view of the subject, and to show the dangers they involve.