DOWNFALL OF THE "VOLKSBETJcentsm."
IT'S BETRAYAL OF THE WORKING CLASS AND CALUMNI'S CONDUCT DOCUMENTARILY PROVED.

[Address Delivered by Max Farker at Wohlman's Hall, Brooklyn, April 12, 1919.]

On Friday, March 22, Commie Max Farker speechified to the assembly before the subcommittee under the above title at Wohlman's Hall, Brooklyn.  Authoritative sources say that 2000 workers were present.  While the L. I. U. was on strike, the strike was declared illegal by the Wohlman's Hall, and therefore the organizers of the strike were expelled.  The Wohlman's Hall, however, took the entire field of the strike under its wing, and for the purpose of educating the workers, Max Farker was invited to address the assembly.

The Wohlman's Hall is one of the most powerful unions in the country, but their ranks have been depleted by the illegal strike.
