HOLYOKE STRIKE ENDED.

WORKERS ACCEPT COMPROMISE AGREEMENT.

Mr. C. A. Swann, the mysterious man who had been the subject of so much speculation, has returned from his trip to Boston.

The strike at Holyoke was ended last week when the workers accepted the compromise agreement.

The strike was caused by a dispute over wages and working conditions. The workers had been demanding higher wages and better working conditions, while the company had been offering lower wages and poorer working conditions.

The compromise agreement included an increase in wages and some minor improvements in working conditions. The workers accepted the agreement, and the strike was ended.
