WEEKLY PEOPLE.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1901.

VOL. XI. NO. 10.

THE MINER'S "LIFE."

AN INNOCENT ROUND OF TOIL AND WISERY.

McClure's, Inc., 50-52 Main St. and Market St. Today, July 14th. The strike continues.

The strike is the result of the owners' refusal to pay the miners union wages.

The miners are determined to stand united and will continue their strike until the owners agree to their demands.

THE MINERS' GRIEVE.

The miners' grievances are many and complex. They are demanding a fair wage, better working conditions, and an end to the exploitation of the miners.

The miners are also concerned about the safety of their work. They are demanding better safety measures to prevent accidents and injuries.

THE ANNEAL SHOOTING.

MILITARISM REDUCE CONSUMER HARDS' THREATS TO PROSECUTE.

Neither Lieutenant Wilson has the right to use his club nor his fist. The police are on the lookout for any trouble that may arise.

The police are also on the lookout for any trouble that may arise.

THE ATHLETES SHOOTING.

SWEETING EXHIBITION.

Our correspondent in London reports: "The shooting match between the American and English teams was held today. The American team won by a margin of 50 points."
HAYES-GILCHRIST DEBATE.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.

D. E. GILCHRIST then spoke for the Democratic Party.

The committee, for calling the meeting to order, announced the question and discussion of the resolution of the Republican Party regarding the granting of a pardon to Hayes, and the question of the granting of a pardon to Gilchrist.

The question then came up for discussion.
WEEKLY PEOPLE, SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1901.

FRIDAYS & SUNDAYS.

Section 1.

[Article content]

Section 2.

[Article content]

Section 3.

[Article content]

Section 4.

[Article content]

Section 5.

[Article content]