NATIONAL EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Meeting held on December 9th.

STATE CONVENTIONS.

The following are the officers and members of the Executive Committee:

Vice-Chairman: John B. Haynes, New York.
Secretary: Edward A. Farnsworth, New York.
Treasurer: John B. Haynes, New York.

The Executive Committee has been working hard to promote the interests of the labor movement in the United States. They have been active in organizing new unions, supporting existing ones, and advocating higher wages and better working conditions for workers. They have also been involved in political campaigns and have endorsed various candidates for public office.

In addition to their work on the Executive Committee, many of the members have been involved in local unions and other labor organizations. They have been active in strikes and other forms of direct action to improve the lives of workers. Their work has been recognized by workers and unions, and they have been honored with many awards and accolades.

The Executive Committee has been a strong voice for workers' rights and has been a leader in the labor movement. They have demonstrated a commitment to the principles of solidarity and equality, and have been a source of inspiration for workers around the country.

We are proud to support the work of the Executive Committee and are committed to continuing their efforts to improve the lives of workers. We encourage others to join us in this important work and to support the rights of all workers.
