BEAUMONTISM IN DAYTON.

A TROUBLED BOWLERS.
Their Charges Prompted by Their Own Rank.

Mrs. Emma Matney charged into Dayton, Ohio.

A Beaubon appointment was made.

On the anniversary of the death of Mr. Beaubon, the late manufacturer of Dayton, Ohio, Mrs. Emma Matney, the former wife of the late Beaubon, came to Dayton.

She had been a resident of Dayton for many years and had been a notable figure in the city's history.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a prominent figure in the city's social and cultural life and had been a frequent speaker at the Beaubon Memorial Lectures.

Mrs. Matney had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.

Mrs. Matney had been a close friend of the late Beaubon and had been a constant companion to him during his illness.

She had been a lifelong Democrat and had been a strong supporter of the Party.

She had been a member of the Dayton Women's Forum and had been a frequent guest at the annual Beaubon Memorial Luncheon.
The Labor Union Claimed That It Worked Only in Fields Regulated by the Federal Farm Board. The Naval Yard Strike is Now Being Led by the Western Federation of Miners, and the Western Labor Union is on Strike for the Fifth Time in Ten Years.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 25.—The Western Labor Union has issued a statement to the effect that the negotiations for the settlement of the strike at the Naval Yard in Denver have been conducted in an illegal manner. The union claims that it was coerced into the strike by the Government, which is controlled by the National Labor Board. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.

The strike at the Naval Yard is now in its fourth week. The Yard, which is one of the largest in the country, is now closed and the workmen are idle. The union claims that the Government is trying to force the men back to work by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs.

The Western Labor Union, which represents the workers at the Naval Yard, has been on strike for the fifth time in ten years. The union has been forced to strike several times in the past, and each time the Government has attempted to settle the dispute by legal means.

The union claims that the Government is trying to settle the dispute by legal means, and that the strikers are being prevented from returning to their jobs. The union has called a meeting of its members to consider the matter, and it is expected that a decision will be made soon.
WE WEEKLY PEOPLE, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1901.

SOCIALIST VOTE IN THE UNITED STATES.

In 1880, 4,249,668; in 1892, 4,680,908; in 1896, 5,918,276; in 1900, 6,419,199.

WHAT ELSE BUT BLOOD MONEY?

On November 25th, front-page headline in the Providence, R. I., 'Telegraph' was an ad for a paper which, if admitted, would be inflammatory. It is said to have been developed by the War Department, with the approval of the President, to show that the war is necessary.

BROTHER JONATHAN—It's time we realized that the world is not as we thought it was. It is too bad that we are talking about the war, but it is too late to do anything about it.

THE MASSES MAN OF STATESMAN—Get him again.

THAT'S RIGHT—There is great good in the Bank of America. It is very much needed in the country at large. It is very much needed in the country at large.

AN UNWILLING WITNESS TO THE STUPID DEMOCRACY OF THE S. L. P.

Sometimes in 1900, there arose out of the International Typographical Union of Chicago a movement that was to change the course of labor in this country.

Weekly People, Saturday, December 14, 1901.
CORRESPONDENCE.

Weekly People, Saturday, December 14, 1901.

From the City of the Philippines.

To the DAILY and WEEKLY PEOPLE, Boston, Mass., December 14, 1901.

I would like to express my appreciation of the sympathetic interest which you have shown in the welfare of the people of the Philippines.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. M. D.

Attraction.

Weekly People, November 30, 1901.

I would like to express my appreciation of the sympathetic interest which you have shown in the welfare of the people of the Philippines.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. M. D.

From the City of the Philippines.

To the DAILY and WEEKLY PEOPLE, Boston, Mass., December 14, 1901.

I would like to express my appreciation of the sympathetic interest which you have shown in the welfare of the people of the Philippines.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. M. D.

From the City of the Philippines.

To the DAILY and WEEKLY PEOPLE, Boston, Mass., December 14, 1901.

I would like to express my appreciation of the sympathetic interest which you have shown in the welfare of the people of the Philippines.

Sincerely yours,

A. R. M. D.