REAPING THE HARVEST

The Weather of Which is Good, the Harvest is Plenty.

THE WHEAT FARMER.

W. H. A. BAKER.

Phila., Feb. 17. - The weather of the past week has been favorable to the wheat harvest. The fields have been dry and the wind has been mild, which has allowed for a good harvest. The wheat is expected to be of good quality, and prices are high. The farmers are now busy harvesting the wheat. The crops are expected to be abundant this year.

AN address delivered by a local farmer that the wheat harvest will be bountiful. The fields are dry and the weather is mild, which has allowed for a good harvest. The wheat is of good quality, and prices are high. The farmers are now busy harvesting the wheat. The crops are expected to be abundant this year.

Agricultural conditions in the Midwest are favorable, with good weather and a bountiful harvest. Prices of wheat are high, and farmers are busy harvesting the wheat. The crops are expected to be abundant this year.

ABERDEEN NEWS.

The admirable facilities of softwood lumber and coal is the one good thing which the town of Aberdeen has over the town of Milwaukie. The Aberdeen people are very much behind the times in a good many ways, but they are very much ahead of the times in coal and softwood lumber.

CART BEFORE THE HORSE POLICY.

There has been a lot of talk lately about the "cart before the horse" policy, and there has been a lot of discussion as to whether or not it is a good policy. I think that it is a good policy, and I think that it is a policy that should be followed by all people.

Political and Economic.

The New Orleans Times-Democrat points out the interesting fact that the "cart before the horse" policy is not a very new one. It is said that the policy was adopted by the city of New Orleans in 1832, and that it was adopted by the city of New York in 1842. It is also said that the policy was adopted by the city of Philadelphia in 1850, and that it was adopted by the city of Chicago in 1860.
