SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY vs.
SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY

Debate between Milton Mayes and Herman Hoffman on the side of Section District, Socialist Labor Party, against GEORGE E. BAGWELL and WILLIAM E. WALTERS, on the side of the Social Democratic Party.

The debate, which was held on February 8, 1902, and was read in the "New York Tribune," is as follows:

Milton Mayes: "The Socialist Labor Party is the most democratic party in the country. It is the party of the working class, and it is the only party that represents the interests of the working class. The Social Democratic Party, on the other hand, is the party of the capitalists, and it represents the interests of the ruling class. The Social Democratic Party is a party of reaction, and it is opposed to the progress of the working class. The Socialist Labor Party is a party of revolution, and it is in favor of the working class revolution. The Social Democratic Party is a party of compromise, and it is in favor of the compromise of the working class. The Social Democratic Party is a party of reaction, and it is in favor of the reaction of the working class. The Socialist Labor Party is a party of progress, and it is in favor of the progress of the working class. The Social Democratic Party is a party of reaction, and it is in favor of the reaction of the working class. The Socialist Labor Party is a party of revolution, and it is in favor of the revolution of the working class. The Social Democratic Party is a party of compromise, and it is in favor of the compromise of the working class.

UNCLE SAM AND BROTHER JONATHAN.

UNCLE SAM—Now you needn't feel so much afraid of the Kaiser, Brother Jonathan, I don't think you need worry so much about the Kaiser and the Germans nowadays.

BROTHER JONATHAN—I don't think so, Uncle Sam. I guess I don't need to worry any more.

UNCLE SAM—Well, I'm glad to hear that, Brother Jonathan. It's a good thing we're all getting along so well with the Germans.

BROTHER JONATHAN—Yes, I think we're all getting along pretty well with the Germans these days.

UNCLE SAM—And I hope we'll continue to get along well with them. I think it's important for us to work together for the good of our country.

BROTHER JONATHAN—I agree with you, Uncle Sam. We need to work together for the good of our country.

UNCLE SAM—And we'll do our best to make sure that happens. Now, I think we should get back to work. We have a lot of important things to do today.

BROTHER JONATHAN—That's right, Uncle Sam. Let's get back to work.

UNCLE SAM—Yes, let's get back to work. I'm sure we can do great things together.

BROTHER JONATHAN—I'm sure we can, Uncle Sam. I'm sure we can do great things together.
