The CIRCUS.

COMMISSIONER WOODBURY THE LEADING ATTRACTION YESTERDAY.

Record Highest Any Expense—Preceded By A Long String Of Great Forays Into The Educational Field, He Is Indebted To A Lot Of Pharisees On The Big Leagues For His Success.

Bidding the Delegate—Samuel Gompers, The Big Chief, To The Brewery Workers Entertains For Him.

For the sake of the young Central Brewery Workers Union we have a public official, Street Cleaning Commissioner, who has been particularly active of late. One of the things we recognize that had been done long before the present commission to the front line of the “organized labor” against the interests of the working men is that of the Street Cleaning Department, he secured the attention of any and every citizen.

It was a “lark,” a “lark,” the sportsman, with a determined betting floor, shows when he walks, with eyes sparkling. He was preceded by a series of delegates, of course, and then the Mayor and the Commissioner of the Effects of the Employment of the Employees of the Cleaning Department.

The big number of employees consists of a gigantic staff, and of various grades, who would number thousands of them who are organized in the several departments of the city in order to receive the benefits of the union.

Woodbury is in answer referred to his “redeemed laborers.”

"I stand for the redemption of labor and the dethroning of those who would oppress the people," he said. "I stand for the redemption of the people, and I stand for the redemption of the laborers."

Woodbury has an eye low by any standard. He knows how to pick his words and how to put them together. He has a way of getting things done, and he is not afraid to take risks. He has a way of getting things done, and he is not afraid to take risks. He has a way of getting things done, and he is not afraid to take risks.

The POWER OF LABOR.

"Labor is the power of the world. It is the power of the world. It is the power of the world."

The establishment of a new and better order of things is the aim of the labor movement. It is the aim of the labor movement. It is the aim of the labor movement.

The FIGHT FOR THE ELECTION.

The election campaign is the test of the labor movement. The election campaign is the test of the labor movement. The election campaign is the test of the labor movement.

"We shall fight for the right to work, the right to elect, and the right to be heard," he said. "We shall fight for the right to work, the right to elect, and the right to be heard."
USEFUL RELIGIOUSISTS.

A Hawaiian Society That Has an Advisory Board Reaching Back Through Many Centuries.

Gideon A'ahanu, in his pleasant "Elohim of Biblical Religion" tells of the early missionary efforts of a Hawaiian named A'ahanu, who in the days of Kamehameha, was an outstanding figure of the Hawaiian church. He was the leader of a band of missionaries who went to the islands to spread the Gospel. He was a man of great influence, and his teachings were widely respected. He was also known as a wise and understanding man, and he was considered to be a great leader in the church. He was a man of great faith, and his teachings were widely respected. He was a man of great influence, and his teachings were widely respected.

The terms of office of the council are five years, and the council consists of the Bishop and three laymen, who are selected by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the members of the church. The council has the power to make rules and regulations for the conduct of the church, and to elect the Bishop. It also has the power to discipline any member of the church who is found guilty of a breach of the rules and regulations of the church.

The church has a large membership, and its influence is felt throughout the islands. It is a strong and vital organization, and it is respected by all who know it. The church has a number of branches throughout the islands, and it is supported by the members of the church, who contribute money and other resources to the support of the church.

The church has a number of buildings throughout the islands, and it is a place of worship and education for the members of the church. It is a place where the members of the church can come together to worship and to learn about the teachings of the church. It is also a place where the members of the church can come together to socialize and to enjoy each other's company.

The church has a number of publications, including a monthly magazine, a weekly newspaper, and a quarterly bulletin. The publications are used to spread the teachings of the church and to keep the members of the church informed about the activities of the church.

The church has a number of activities, including a music program, a youth program, and a service program. The activities are used to engage the members of the church and to help them to grow in their faith.
