J. B. Willson, J. W. Bell, and W. L. Larrick, appointed as commissioners for the State Convention of the Sociali
Social forces operate in the same way in other countries, equally violently, despotically, as we have seen. But in our own countries, these forces are not so visible, but do operate in the same way. The result is that, although despotism is not as visible as in other countries, it is just as effective in controlling the people.

BRINGING HOME A LESSON.

Back in my old home state of Rhode Island, I observed a well-known author who had just returned from a trip to Europe. He was saying that the people in Europe were much more sophisticated than those in America. However, I disagreed with him and pointed out that the people in Europe were simply more experienced because they had been exposed to a wider variety of experiences and situations.

SMALL BANKS FOR GREAT TIMES.

In small banks, the depositors usually have more control over the management of their money than they do in large banks. This is because the management of a small bank is typically more responsive to the needs of the depositors. However, in large banks, the management is often more focused on maximizing profits and may not be as responsive to the needs of individual depositors.

THE HABIT OF NEVER.

The habit of never doing anything is a common one in many parts of the world. It is often seen as a sign of laziness or apathy. However, in some cases, it may be a sign of a deeper problem, such as depression or anxiety. If you have a habit of never doing anything, it may be helpful to seek assistance from a mental health professional to address the underlying issues.
CORRESPONDENCE.

The Board of Trade has announced the appointment of Mr. W. T. H. Green as its new secretary. Mr. Green is a well-known figure in the world of trade and has held various important positions in the past. His appointment will no doubt be welcomed by all who are interested in the welfare of the Board of Trade.

The weekly wage of £3 per week for a 48-hour week is the subject of much discussion among the workers of this city. Many of them feel that this is not a fair wage for the work they do. The employers, on the other hand, argue that they cannot pay more without losing money. It is hoped that some solution will be found to this problem in the near future.

The annual meeting of the Local Labour Party was held last week. The party was well represented and discussions were held on various important issues. The meeting was adjourned until the next week.
