THE GREAT VICTORY OF THE WORKINGMEN OF FRANCE
OVER THE FRENCH BOURGEOISIE. THE MONBODDIE MIDDLE CLASS.

Miliband is Dead. Miliband is a Corpse. Socialism is Alive.
The Great Conscience of Parisian Socialism, the Leader of the Communist-Confederate Workers of Paris, has fallen.

It is said by the militant socialists that the socialists of France have been victorious. Yet in their official newspapers, they have made no mention of the importance of the event.

In the General Club of Paris, a banquet was held in honor of Miliband. The speakers were: Dumas, Lenine, Kerensky, and Miliband himself. The name of Miliband has been struck from the register of the club.

Miliband was a member of the Club, but he was never active in its affairs. He was a man of principles, and he was always ready to fight for them.

In the clubs of Paris, the socialists have been meeting every night for a week, discussing the political situation. They have decided to continue their struggle for the revolution.
