To Fight Tobin.

SHORWORKERS CALL MEETING TO ORGANIZE FOR PROTECTION AGAINST HIM.

The Socialist Labor Party of Wisconsin sent the political campaign in 1894, and since then the party has grown steadily in numbers, activity, and influence. The Socialist Party of Wisconsin is now the largest and most active political organization in the state, and its successes in the coming election will no doubt be even greater than those of the past.

Shorworkers, who are the backbone of the Socialist Party, are calling a meeting to organize for protection against Tobin. The meeting will be held on Tuesday, August 1st, at 7:30 p.m. at the Labor Temple, 100 N. 1st St.

The meeting will be addressed by socialist leaders, including speakers from the Wisconsin State Convention and the National Conference of Socialists. The meeting will be a great opportunity for the shorworkers to come together and discuss the issues of the day and how they can work together to build a more just society.

The Socialist Party of Wisconsin has always been at the forefront of the fight for workers' rights and social justice. They have been a strong voice for the working class, and they have fought for the rights of workers for over a century.

LETTERS OF ACCEPTANCE FROM G. H. ROYAL, Esq.

San Antonio, Texas, July 24, 1907.

Dear Sir:

I am very much interested in the work of the Texas Socialists, and I will accept your nomination for Congress as a Socialist. I have always been a supporter of the Socialist cause, and I believe that the time has come when the working class should have a voice in the government of this country. I am willing to work for the advancement of the working class and to help to bring about a juster society. I will do my best to help the Socialist movement in Texas and to make it a success.

Yours truly,

UNCLE SAM AND BROTHER JONATHAN.

BROTHER JONATHAN—Uncle Sam and I got a plume in the eye to see the reply to the demand of the London government for a loan.

UNCLE SAM—What would you give to be able to say the same thing of them as we do of our own government? I know we were all /offended/ when some of them sent us back their loan offer, but after all, their government is a government that has had some pluck, and they may live to be a great and powerful nation some day. But, as for England, I think they have been most ungrateful, and we ought to show some spirit in return.

BROTHER JONATHAN—That's right. We should stand up for ourselves, and not be afraid to say what we think. We are a great nation, and we should not be afraid to express ourselves.

UNCLE SAM—What do you think of the recent speeches of the President?

BROTHER JONATHAN—Well, I think they were very strong and powerful. He spoke of the need for a strong government, and I believe he is right. We need a strong government to protect us from our enemies.

UNCLE SAM—I agree. We need a strong government to protect us, and to give us the confidence we need.

BROTHER JONATHAN—And we should be ready to stand up for our rights. We should not be afraid to say what we think, and to stand up for our principles.

UNCLE SAM—That's right. We should stand up for ourselves, and not be afraid to say what we think. We are a great nation, and we should not be afraid to express ourselves.
