WORKINGMEN AND TRUSTS
An Address to Those Employed in Shop, Factory, Mill and Mine, and Who are Members of Trade Unions.

WRONGS—
In the coming election, the one issue in the campaign is the so-called trade issue. Those who believe that they are in the right are too alive to the issues of the campaign, and, accordingly as you view the situation, the issues around which you stand on the trade question. The right is, therefore, the only way to decide the issue. You have a right to know on what things are they looking right on the question under discussion.

First, let us consider the claim that to the best of your ability you have employed yourself as a dependent laborer. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must employ yourself. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercies of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Second, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Third, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Fourth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Fifth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Sixth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Seventh, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Eighth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Ninth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Tenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Eleventh, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Twelfth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Thirteenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Fourteenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Fifteenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Sixteenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Seventeenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Eighteenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Nineteenth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

Twentieth, let us consider the claim that you have been employed to work for wages. If you don’t agree, I shall leave the paper at your door. You must work for wages. To do otherwise is to trust yourself to the mercy of the landlords, and what will happen to them is only a matter of time.

This is all that I have to say on the trade question. I will leave you to your own considerations.
Just The Thing!

The Party members, readers of The Daily and Weekly People, and sympathizers have taken hold of The Monthly People at Ten Cents a Year, ed. with enthusiastic determination.

"It is Just The Thing!" is the comment of most in sending lists of subscriptions and the subscriptions are coming in rapidly.

It is the easiest thing in the world to get them, as an S. L. P. paper for only Ten Cents a Year!

It is desirable that we start off with a good subscription list as it is possible for our members and friends to send. In the name of the new list, it helps us at this end in getting up the mailing list. It will be a benefit to the readers also, to start them off with a good beginning.

There are tremedous possibilities in The Monthly People at the low price of Ten Cents a Year. Remember it will be purely a propaganda paper, and be much of interest to Party members, must be given space in The Weekly People that the propaganda must be in its place. The Monthly People devoted solely to propaganda matter, and only Ten Cents a Year, Get out among your friends and help the Monthly People.

No one will refuse the Monthly People, for the price of a newspaper.

Get bona fide subscribers. We don’t want to get into complications with the postal authorities, so please see to it that the names you send in will stand the test of official investigation by the postal authorities. That is, the paper must have been ordered by the reader to whom it is sent.

The Monthly People should prove a boon to the Party organizations. It should prove a boon to sympathizers. If you are a bona fide in some locality, start up and get for The Monthly People at Ten Cents a Year, and then watch it grow.

It is in the hands now, and keep coming. Let us start The Monthly People off with the greatest boom ever given a new publication! Remember, the paper will be devoted solely to Socialist propaganda. It will be good use; it will be good for all.

The S. L. P. is dead, say its enemies, from the capitalists down to the hoodlums. But all the more will it rally more and more subscriptions from the people to make lodgement on it. The advent of The Monthly People will be the hardest blow the whole outfit has received in many years.

Every real Socialiststands ready at all times to do his duty. While The Daily People is the organ of the Party, and at the same time a very necessary instrument for every Socialist and sympathizer to take up this present duty with the utmost zeal and make The Monthly People blow at capitalism all the harder.

Because of the low price of The Monthly People, we cannot expect to make a profit, and yet we believe that the Socialist and every other public spirited people who are interested in Socialist propaganda can afford to pay a few cts. to have a copy of the new publication sent in.

The following blank should be used in forwarding subscriptions:

Get subscriptions to postal regulations subscriptions for The Monthly People cannot be taken within the limits of Greater New York, except in Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond boroughs.

Date...

Manager Monthly People:

New York City.

S. D. M. People for one year to the subscribers whose names and addresses are given below:

NAME

ADDRESS

TRENTON ORGANIZED.

New Jersey’s Capital Again Renovated In Special to The Daily People.

The S. L. P. headquarters of New Jersey’s capital appears among the organizations which are well regarded and while we cannot, at this time, enter into a discussion of the various issues among them, we have made a good beginning and hope to continue the same. The headquarters of the state organization at Trenton is a pleasant place to visit and one of the most valuable assets of the state organization is the headquarters of the New Jersey chapter of the S. L. P.

It is in the hands of the local committee, and is open to all who care to visit it. It is well worth a visit and is highly recommended.

Daniel Harris is going to demand of the headquarters of the state organization, that if in the absence of the headquarters are not considered of any use to the party, he is going to make the headquarters of the state organization the headquarters of the New Jersey chapter of the S. L. P. and the headquarters of the state organization at Trenton is a pleasant place to visit and one of the most valuable assets of the state organization is the headquarters of the New Jersey chapter of the S. L. P.

This headquarters is to be the headquarters of the state organization at Trenton, and it is in the hands of the local committee, and is open to all who care to visit it. It is well worth a visit and is highly recommended.

The headquarters of the state organization at Trenton is a pleasant place to visit and one of the most valuable assets of the state organization is the headquarters of the New Jersey chapter of the S. L. P.
A SHORT HISTORY OF INDUSTRIAL PROGRESS

PART I

The Teachings of Science.

Modern science, in the domain of both theory and practice, has achieved results that would have been the wonder of the earlier ages. The philosopher has been able to demonstrate the laws of nature, and the practical scientist has been able to apply these laws to the solution of everyday problems. The development of the steam engine, the telegraph, the telephone, the electric light, and a host of other inventions have been the result of the application of scientific principles.

We have dealt with the steam engine as an example of industrial progress. It was the first great step in the direction of mechanization. The steam engine was not only a source of power, but it also opened up new possibilities for the use of coal. The coal industry, which had been dependent on the use of water power, now became a major industry, providing employment for many people. The growth of the coal industry had a profound effect on the economy of the country, and it is still a major industry today.

The steam engine also made possible the development of the railroads. The railroads revolutionized transportation, making it possible to move goods and people from one part of the country to another quickly and efficiently. The railroads also contributed to the development of the country's economy, as they provided a means of transporting raw materials and finished products.

Another important development in the field of science was the invention of the telephone. The telephone made it possible for people to communicate with each other over long distances, and it revolutionized the way that people conducted business and carried on their personal lives.

The development of the electric light was another important scientific achievement. The electric light made it possible to provide light and power to areas that were previously dark and unproductive. The electric light also opened up new possibilities for the use of electricity, and it was the beginning of the age of electrical power.

The development of the automobile was another important scientific advance. The automobile made it possible for people to travel quickly and comfortably from one place to another. The automobile also revolutionized transportation, and it has had a profound effect on the economy of the country.

The development of the airplane was another important scientific achievement. The airplane made it possible for people to travel quickly and comfortably from one place to another. The airplane also revolutionized transportation, and it has had a profound effect on the economy of the country.

In conclusion, the development of science has been one of the most important factors in the progress of the country. The application of scientific principles has led to the development of new industries, and it has contributed to the growth of the economy. The development of science has also helped to improve the quality of life for people, and it has made it possible for people to live longer and healthier lives.