THE SOUTH CAROLINA SENATORS PASS STRIKE BILL

Supposed to Prove Ineffective. Presentations of a Bill are Personal Charges to "Labor Only." New York, Feb. 19. The South Carolina senators have passed a strike bill which is supposed to prove ineffective. The bill was presented to Congress by Senator Elbert Hubbell, chairman of the Senate Committee on Labor, and has been referred to the Committee on the Rights of Women and Children.

The bill provides that anyone who employs any person under 16 years of age shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $500 or imprisonment for not more than one year.

Section 2. Any person who, contrary to any law of the United States, employed or uses or causes to be employed or used as a laborer or in any occupation or industry any person under the age of 16 years, or any person who, contrary to any law of the United States, employs or causes to be employed or used as a laborer or in any occupation or industry any person under the age of 16 years and over the age of 18 years, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $1,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years.

Section 3. Any person who, contrary to any law of the United States, employs or causes to be employed or used as a laborer or in any occupation or industry any person under the age of 16 years and over the age of 18 years, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $2,000 or imprisonment for not more than four years.

Section 4. Any person who, contrary to any law of the United States, employs or causes to be employed or used as a laborer or in any occupation or industry any person under the age of 16 years and over the age of 18 years, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $4,000 or imprisonment for not more than six years.

The bill passed by the Senate and has been sent to the House of Representatives for consideration. It is set for consideration in the House of Representatives on March 10th.
