SOCIALISM AND THE CAPITALIST PRESS

AN OBLIGATION TO TRUE CIVILIZATION

(O by General Calderon)

Where there was and abundance, sure plenty cans be found, and there was a waste of grape on the vine, and a waste of grain on the field, and a waste of grace on the earth, and a waste of grace on the earth, and a waste of grace on the earth.

The question this thesis takes is the question of the "idel" of the people, and its solution in the people, and its solution in the

Cecelia Brown, a resident of the town,
UNCLE SAM AND BROTHER JONATHAN.

Brother Jonathan—There are only two or three districts of the Union—Uncle Sam—which, for instance, is not doing as well now as she used to do before the war.

J. B.—The idea of composition.

S. C.—That is a real idea, but composition is not quite of the same nature as in the olden times.

J. B.—Certainly, their composition is not voluntary, compulsory, or compulsory by the decree of the dictator.

S. C.—Certainly.

J. B.—Is it not true that you are now living with your hand under water?

S. C.—Well, I am not quite sure yet.

J. B.—Then you are not completely "in" to this war.

S. C.—Not quite, but I am trying to get "in" as much as possible.

J. B.—Oh! of course there is no doubt about it.

S. C.—Yes, but you see, I am not entirely sure yet.

J. B.—You see, sir, you cannot possibly go out of business.

S. C.—No, indeed, but it is quite possible that I may have to go out of business in the near future.

J. B.—Well, in that case, I hope you will do it in a dignified manner.

S. C.—Thank you, sir, I will certainly do it in a dignified manner.

J. B.—Now, then, shall I go and see you next week?

S. C.—Yes, certainly, that is the best plan.

J. B.—Good-bye, I will see you then.

S. C.—Good-bye, I will see you then.

J. B.—You are no longer a supporter of Uncle Sam?

S. C.—No, I am not, but I am trying to be a good friend of Uncle Sam.

J. B.—And are you going to continue to live under water as you used to do before the war?

S. C.—Yes, I am, and I am trying to make the most of it.

J. B.—How long have you been living with your hand under water?

S. C.—I have been living with my hand under water for about two years now.

J. B.—Are you sure you are not doing any other work?

S. C.—Yes, I am, but I am trying to do it in a dignified manner.

J. B.—What kind of work are you doing now?

S. C.—I am trying to do all kinds of work, but I am not doing anything in particular.

J. B.—Oh, no! You are not doing anything in particular.

S. C.—Yes, I am, but I am trying to do it in a dignified manner.

J. B.—And what kind of work are you doing now?

S. C.—I am trying to do all kinds of work, but I am not doing anything in particular.

J. B.—Well, I see that you are trying to do all kinds of work, but I am not sure whether you are doing it in a dignified manner.

S. C.—Yes, I am, but I am trying to do it in a dignified manner.

J. B.—Well, I see that you are trying to do all kinds of work, but I am not sure whether you are doing it in a dignified manner.

S. C.—Yes, I am, but I am trying to do it in a dignified manner.

J. B.—Well, I see that you are trying to do all kinds of work, but I am not sure whether you are doing it in a dignified manner.

S. C.—Yes, I am, but I am trying to do it in a dignified manner.

J. B.—Well, I see that you are trying to do all kinds of work, but I am not sure whether you are doing it in a dignified manner.

CALL FOR NATIONAL CAMPAIGN

To the Members, Friends and supporters of the Socialist Labor Party:

Greeting—The National Committee of the Socialist Labor Party, following the holding of its special meeting, held its national meeting in this city on Friday last, with all its possibilities for constructive activity fully present. It is the duty of every one of us to face the danger confronting us and to prepare for the great battle of the coming campaign.

A successful conflict, the success of which is now required, and to raise the national political status and achieve the political power of the Socialist Labor Party, will depend upon the political action of the people. To accomplish this we must organize and support a national campaign.

The Socialist Labor Party is now prepared to take up the fight. It is determined to carry the fight to the public, to the people, and to the voters. It will work hard to make the fight of the year the fight of the century. It will fight for the rights of the people, for the power of the people, for the independence of the workers, for the overthrow of capitalism, for the establishment of socialism.

We urge all who are interested in the work of the Socialist Labor Party to join in the campaign. We invite all who are willing to help to contribute their time and effort to the success of the campaign.

Sincerely yours,
