LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE

Of Charles Henry Corregan, Presidental Candidate of the Socialist Labor Party

To the National Executive Committee of the Socialist Labor Party.

Mr. Corregan: I cannot but be deeply satisfied with the high honor conferred by you upon me when you asked me to accept the nomination of your committee for the presidency of the Socialist Labor Party. It has been my constant desire to serve the working class in some way, and I have labored faithfully in the cause of socialism. I am glad to accept this nomination, and I shall do my best to carry it out.

The working class is the greatest force in the world, and it is our duty to organize and educate it.

Very truly yours,

Charles Henry Corregan.
COX ON THE CHURCH

Vice-Presidential Candidate of the Socialist Labor Party Answers Amessmer's Shogbyn Labor-Day Address.

(Special Correspondence.)

Shogynin, Wis., Sept. 9.—While Labor-Day was being observed in many parts of the country, many Socialistic protests were being made by Socialist organizations. One of the most notable of these protests was made by the Socialist Labor

Party of Shogyn, who through their Association at the Socialist Labor Convention held in this city a few weeks ago. The party decided to protest against the representation of the Church in the public schools, and also to protest against the use of the Church in the political life of the nation. The protest was made in the form of a letter to the Shogyn Labor-Day

Association.

Shogyn Labor-Day address

The letter was as follows:

Shogyn Labor-Day Association,

Shogyn, Wis.

Dear Sirs:

We, the undersigned members of the Shogyn Labor-Day Association, do hereby protest against the representation of the Church in the public schools, and also against the use of the Church in the political life of the nation. We believe that the Church should be kept out of the schools, and that the government should be responsible for the education of the people. We also believe that the Church should not be used for political purposes, but should be kept in its proper place, as an institution for the religious instruction of the people.

 Yours truly,

[Signature]

[Name]

The Shogyn Labor-Day Association

Shogyn, Wis.

This protest was made in the form of a letter to the Shogyn Labor-Day Association, and was signed by many of the members of the association.

The protest was a significant one, and was one of the many protests made by the Socialist Labor Party during the labor movement of 1906. The protest was also an expression of the belief of the Socialist Labor Party that the Church should be kept out of the schools, and that the government should be responsible for the education of the people.

The protest was a significant one, and was one of the many protests made by the Socialist Labor Party during the labor movement of 1906. The protest was also an expression of the belief of the Socialist Labor Party that the Church should be kept out of the schools, and that the government should be responsible for the education of the people.