Are We at Bulgaria or Italy?

We wish which I did not, at the very outset, tell the workers that the Socialist Labor Party had decided to come out against what was called the "Bulgarian question." But I shall try to explain to you why that is the case.

The 1878 Congress of the Bulgarian Social Democrats, held in Sofia, decided to come out against the "Bulgarian question." But I shall try to explain to you why that is the case.

In the course of the next few years, the Bulletin of the Revolutionary Social Democratic party, which was the organ of the Bulgarian Social Democrats, published many articles on the "Bulgarian question." But I shall try to explain to you why that is the case.

BROTHER JONATHAN—I am glad to see your Christmas card.

UNCLE SAM (cordially)—How are the holidays with you?

BROTHER JONATHAN (cheerfully)—Everything is as it should be.

UNCLE SAM (incredulously)—You know what I mean.

BROTHER JONATHAN (laughing)—Yes, I know what you mean.

UNCLE SAM (angrily)—Why do you always say that?

BROTHER JONATHAN (apologetically)—I don’t mean to be sarcastic, but I can’t help it.

UNCLE SAM (sighing)—I see. Well, I’ll let it go.

—From Uncle Sam’s Desk—

The news is as usual. The war is going on, and we are doing our best to support it. The government is doing its best to support the war, and we are doing our best to support the government.
