ELEMENARY SOCIALISM

What is Capital? The Capitalists — The New Model of Capitalism and the Modern Socialist — The Class Struggle

By Mrs. Olive M. Johnson

It has often been said that the Socialists by their agitation, are trying to produce a better world, and acting against the interests of those who are in power. This is not true. The capitalists have no legitimate interest on earth, and do not care more for the welfare of the masses than they do for their own profits.

It has also been said that the Socialists by their agitation, are trying to produce a better world, and acting against the interests of those who are in power. This is not true. The capitalists have no legitimate interest on earth, and do not care more for the welfare of the masses than they do for their own profits.

Volcanic Rumblings

We shall consider the proposition that the Democrats and Republicans are two political parties and nothing more. The former is the party of the rich and the latter of the poor. The Republican party is the party of the capitalist class and the Democratic party is the party of the working class. The two parties are completely opposed to each other in their ideals and principles. The Democratic party represents the interests of the working class, while the Republican party represents the interests of the capitalist class.

In order to achieve their goals, the two parties use propaganda and manipulation to influence the opinions of the electorate. However, the Democratic party is more focused on issues that directly affect the working class, such as labor rights and social justice, while the Republican party is more focused on issues that benefit the capitalist class, such as corporate profits and tax cuts.

Ultimately, the Democratic party seeks to create a society where the working class has equal opportunities and is able to participate fully in the decision-making process, while the Republican party seeks to create a society where the capitalist class has control over the economy and is able to extract profits at the expense of the working class.

In conclusion, the two parties are fundamentally opposed to each other in their goals and ideals. The Democratic party is the party of the working class, and the Republican party is the party of the capitalist class.

THE AMERICANS (JOL) KEPT OUT OF CAFE EXCEPT BY LICENSE

To the Daily and Weekly People:—

Lately I have been in the position of a cafe owner and have observed that Americans refuse to enter certain cafes except by license, and for the reasons which I have observed, I believe the latter is the proper method of doing business.

I have seen American cafes in Europe and have noticed that Americans refuse to enter certain cafes except by license. I believe this is the proper method of doing business.

A QUIRKY FOR SOCIALIST CANDIDATES

To the Daily and Weekly People:—

I am a socialist candidate for the election this year and I am writing to you to ask for your support. I believe in the socialist principles and I am sure that I can do a lot of good for the working class.
