RED LETTER DAY
TO THE READERS OF THE WEEKLY PEOPLE
May 1st is INTERNATIONAL LABOR DAY.

Our readers of the East, West, North and South—of every country, to send in subscriptions to THE WEEKLY PEOPLE.

THE PEOPLE is not the same as our former publication, THE RED LETTER DAY, which had many good points, but was not as whole in its movement. We are now starting afresh, and hope to do better.

The workers, in every country, are now beginning to look forward to May 1st with renewed enthusiasm. It is the day on which they can show their strength and demand their rights. It is the day on which they can strike, and demand their share of the wealth which they have earned.

No worthy man will shirk his duty, and when we call upon you of all our states and several other countries, we want to see all respond on mass on INTERNATIONAL LABOR DAY.

Every reader should be inspired to join in the greatest and most earnest effort our people have ever made. We call upon you to work, and labor, and demand our rights. Only a few days are left until May 1st. It is time to hustle for Red Letter Day subscriptions.

If you are interested in this movement, we invite you to join us, and help in every way possible. We are ready to welcome all who wish to work for the cause of labor.

Now, altogether, one strong and mighty pull—and the circulation of the Weekly People is doubled!!
AN ADDRESS
To The Members of The Socialist Trade and Labor Alliance,
By DANIEL DE LEON.

Fellow-members of the S. T. & L. A. Perish, the present session of the S. T. & L. A. letters have come to an end, and you have seen the end of the convention, which meets next June at St. Louis. It was the old question of the night: ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’ It was a question which all the papers, and in fact all the people, who have been in contact with the convention, have had to ask. The question was not, ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’ It was, ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’ The question was not, ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’ It was, ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’ The question was not, ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’ It was, ‘Did we get all that we asked for?’

Existing conditions render it imperative upon us to meet this question, and we have met it. We have met it, and we have done so in a manner which has been highly satisfactory to the convention, and which has been highly satisfactory to the people of the country. We have met it, and we have done so in a manner which has been highly satisfactory to the convention, and which has been highly satisfactory to the people of the country. We have met it, and we have done so in a manner which has been highly satisfactory to the convention, and which has been highly satisfactory to the people of the country. We have met it, and we have done so in a manner which has been highly satisfactory to the convention, and which has been highly satisfactory to the people of the country.
TO RAILWAY WORKERS

Fellow workers of the Railway Brotherhoods, the situation of the railroad workers throughout the United States and Canada is very dangerous. The object of this circular is to make you aware of the danger that threatens our brothers throughout the country, and to urge all of you to do everything in your power to aid in the movement for the betterment of our conditions.

The situation is such that we must act now or forever lose our chance to gain any improvements. The railroad companies are getting more powerful every day, and the workers are becoming more and more exploited. We must unite and fight for our rights!

DON'T DELAY! ACT NOW!

Yours for a better future,
