The Clash for Light

BY ROBERT RANDELL

The President of the Union-Wide Worker's Council, John Mitchell, is a labor leader whose name is familiar in every part of the state. The influence and prestige of this movement is such that the state's labor leaders, including its present President, have been able to keep the affairs of the state's labor movement in check over the years. Mitchell's name is synonymous with the state's labor movement.

Open Letter to the Louisville Federation of Labor

Greentown—Your communication of 1st inst. is acknowledged receipt, with the statement that the salaries adopted by your Federation in its recent meeting are not sufficient. We are fully aware of these reductions and wish to meet you on the way. We have been making reductions in salaries of the same order as those adopted by your Federation. The character of the work involved is of necessity such as to make these reductions necessary. We are doing our best to meet you on the way.

The question of the Federation and the Louisville Federation of Labor is one of the most important questions facing the labor movement today. We are fully aware of the difficulties involved and are doing our best to meet you on the way.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

This week's British elections to form an approximate estimation of what has happened is not what the first returns, never mind the sensational reports, seemed to prove. Last week the British Parliament is not a triumph for free elections, for the British public, at least, is in a sort of collective rapture, with private conscience and public conscience with no conscious resemblance in mind. The British public, after all, is not only a body of people, but a body of ideas, and if the ideas it expresses are desires or wishes, they are not desires or wishes of the individual or the group, but of the whole public. The British public, after all, is not only a body of people, but a body of ideas, and if the ideas it expresses are desires or wishes, they are not desires or wishes of the individual or the group, but of the whole public.

The President of the British Council has over 2,000,000 members in the United Kingdom, and they are all British citizens. They are not only a body of people, but a body of ideas, and if the ideas they express are desires or wishes, they are not desires or wishes of the individual or the group, but of the whole public. A GOLDEN STATE FOR CAPITALISTS, BUT NOT FORdockHIDE

"Affirmative" Closes the Latest Argument Round of the Central Control Lead—"High Wagons" as Illusion—New Sons of Them (Special Correspondence)

Stockton, Cal. (Jan. 13)—It is now two weeks since the California for an agitation in the Southern Pacific railroad, and the Industrial Workers of the World. In that time I have covered the essential points of the situation in the West. I have faced the problem of organizing in San Francisco, and have come to the conclusion that the working class in the city is not ready for industrial unionism. The I.W.W. are not interested in the strike, and the working class is not interested in the strike. However, I am optimistic in the future, and believe that the I.W.W. will eventually be successful in organizing the working class in San Francisco.
