The letter of Marie Spiridonova was written to me on the occasion of the 20th anniversary of the death of my beloved mother, Marie Spiridonova. The letter is a powerful testimony to her character and the legacy she left behind. It is a moving reflection on the impact of her life and work, and a reminder of the importance of her contributions to society. The letter is a testament to the enduring legacy of her work, and a call to action for all those who wish to continue her legacy and build upon her achievements. It is a powerful reminder of the power of love and dedication, and a call to action for all those who wish to make a difference in the world. SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY to the sufferings of the toilers on the one hand, and the profits of the bosses on the other hand, is making the American people realize that the capitalist system is rotten to its very foundation.

SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY

The Socialist Labor Party of America was founded in 1870, and its principles are based on the following resolutions:

1. The abolition of private property in land and in the means of production.

2. The establishment of the eight-hour day.

3. The establishment of a system of industrial democracy.

4. The establishment of a system of social insurance.

5. The establishment of a system of education for all children.

6. The establishment of a system of public health and social services.

7. The establishment of a system of international cooperation.

8. The establishment of a system of international peace.

The Socialist Labor Party is a political party, and its aims are to promote the economic and social reform of society through the democratic process.

The Socialist Labor Party is a part of the International Socialistic Movement, which is an international organization of socialist parties in different countries.

MONTANA I. W. W. GIVES THE CRAFTS A FEW GOOD DRUBBINGS

Latter insisted on a campaign of Agitation, with the result that the former is making gains in important centers.

Butte, Montana, May 30—There has been hot blood in the People recently pertaining directly to the Industrial Union. The coal company has been making a point of obtaining more workers and has been doubling its efforts. The I. W. has been furnishing men to the coal company; but the latter has been finding it necessary to employ more men, and the I. W. has been making a point of obtaining more workers.

The I. W. is composed of about five thousand members and is actively engaged in the organization of the coal company. Among its more influential members are: W. J. Noll and T. R. White, the latter being one of the most active members of the organization.

The next move of the I. W. was made to Kingfish, where a proposition was put forth by the company to foreclose the strike. The I. W. boldly and unhesitatingly declared that the coal trade is not being interfered with, and that the strikers are not being employed.

The I. W. is composed of about four thousand members and is actively engaged in the organization of the coal company. Among its more influential members are: W. J. Noll and T. R. White, the latter being one of the most active members of the organization.

The representation in the Great Lakes area is in some respects more difficult. For instance, there are two labor unions in the area, the I. W. and the A. F. of L., and each is trying to organize the workers in the area. The I. W. is making a point of obtaining more workers, and the A. F. of L. is trying to organize the workers in the area.
