OF VARIOUS IMPORT
FROM THE FIELD OF CAPITOL

What is the Canadian government afraid of, that it should honor the voided treaty in this manner? Does it need to be told that the people of this country feel that, since it is a country which equals or which excels in all respects, its government ought to be treated with respect and not contemptuously? It is not just to Canada, it is not just to the people of the country, that laws be voided without just cause.

The Trial trail produced in Canada has been a series of absurdities and manifestoes, but it has been a series of evidences and facts which should have been known by everyone. The trial has been a series of abuses and prejudices, and it has been a series of misunderstandings and mistakes.

The trial is a failure, and the people of Canada are not satisfied with the results. The trial has shown the necessity of an immediate reform of the judicial system.

THE REVOLUTION IN RUSSIA

From Europe comes the tidings of the upheaval by the Revolution of the Terror in Russia. A. S. A. Alexanderov, the head of the Petroleum Company, has been executed. The revolution is in full swing in Russia, and the people are rising against the Yeltsin regime.

The Awful Curse of Child Labor—Abolition of Capitalism Necessary to Cure It Out

By RHODA M. RICHARDS.

This article originally appeared in the November 1928 issue of "The Nation," a prominent magazine of the time. The author, Rhoda M. Richards, was a prominent suffragist and labor organizer. The article discusses the exploitation of child labor and argues for the abolition of capitalism as the necessary cure. The piece is a call to action, urging readers to support the movement for labor reform and women's rights.

The Society for Labor Reform and Abolition of Capitalism

The author highlights the inhumane conditions under which children were forced to work in factories, mines, and on farms. She cites statistics showing the prevalence of child labor and the harmful effects it had on the children's health and well-being.

The article concludes with a call to action, urging readers to join the movement for labor reform and women's rights. The author emphasizes the need for a new economic system that will protect the rights of children and working people and promote the well-being of all.

The piece is a powerful statement of the time, reflecting the broader social and political movements of the early 20th century. It is a reminder of the struggles that many people faced in their efforts to create a more just and equitable society.
