John Mitchell No Longer to Warm Coal, Borax, Barones' Hearts. But Another Mitchell Will Arrive. Turrell With the Same Sticks—Hughes Services to the Social Question.

The apologetics for capital's shortcomings were growing day by day, and the votes of the members of the La Follette committee were winning the debate against the Cattleya forces. The game was losing the game; the government was losing the game.

In and around the Washington DC, John Mitchell himself had met with 12,000 of the agents and salesmen of the American Federation of Labor to ask for their support.

John Mitchell, who has held the chairmanship of the American Federation of Labor since the death of Samuel Gompers, is reported to have asked the agents and salesmen to support the creation of a new Labor party.

The King of Spain, King Alphonso XIII, was reported to have offered Mitchell a knighthood, to which he has not yet given any answer.

G. O. Smith, a New York Froster, is said to be planning a subscription drive for the La Follette movement.

The 30 best labor unions in America, representing 30,000,000 members, have joined the economic boycott against the New York Times. The boycott is said to be supported by a large number of labor unions.

The statement of the Unions Federation, which was issued on the occasion of the La Follette meeting, was as follows:

"We, the Unions Federation, hereby declare our support for the policies of the La Follette movement, and we hereby pledge our support to the creation of a new Labor party."

It is said that the "socialists" who made the statement were not the only ones who supported the boycott.

The meeting was held in the New York Times building, which was attended by a large number of labor leaders.

The meeting was presided over by John Mitchell, who was joined by the president of the American Federation of Labor, John L. Lewis.

The meeting was addressed by several labor leaders, including John L. Lewis, who spoke of the need for a new Labor party.

The meeting was well attended, and a large number of labor leaders pledged their support to the creation of a new Labor party.

In conclusion, the Unions Federation stated that it would continue to support the La Follette movement, and that it would work for the creation of a new Labor party.

The La Follette movement was well received by the labor leaders, and it is expected that it will continue to receive support from the labor movement.
THE FOUNDATION OF THE LABOR MOVEMENT
BY WENDELL PHILLIPS

Delivered in Rotary Music Hall, Oct 31, 1917.

Ladies and Gentlemen,

We are sometimes so near to their bright track that we do not notice it. A few days ago, I was sitting on the近 the City Hall court-yard when I saw a man stepping on a bowling ball or a game of ball in progress. It was a sight that is familiar to all of us, and yet, how often do we pass by it without noticing it? We are always too busy to stop and think. We are always too busy to take the time to see the people around us.

And yet, it is important that we do. For the people around us are the ones who will shape our future. We must understand them, we must know their needs, we must know their desires. Only then can we hope to create a better world.

Thank you.
WHOM CAN SHE MEAN?

LADY WARDWICK SPEAKS OF "SHAMING" AND OF ARTICLES ON THE "BARRING BROOK.

In an interview given to a New York reporter this week at the Hotel Wal-ter, the American "Shamming," did not go to the British public. "The Queen said, "Who can mean this? I must know the lady who said it."

We are told that Lady Wardwicke, the most remarkable lady in England, who has never been in America, is going to stop here in a few weeks. She is a lady who is very popular in England and she is said to be a very clever lady. She is said to be very clever in her conversations and she is said to be a very clever lady in her conversations.

CARDINAL GURKISCH AGAIN.

To the Daily and Weekly People:

R. P. Gorak, Parish Priest, 60-19 34th Street.

To the Editor of the Daily and Weekly People:

I am writing to inform your readers of a recent event that took place in the town of our diocese. On the evening of last Saturday, I attended a Mass at the local church. During this Mass, I noticed that there were many people present, including some who had never attended a Catholic Mass before. I believe that this is a sign of the growing interest in our faith, and I encourage all of you to attend Mass and learn more about our religion.

Sincerely yours,

R. P. Gorak
