TRUMPET BLASTS

OPEN LETTER

To the Congress of the United States:

I am writing to you to express the concern of the people of our nation regarding the current conflict with China. It is important that we stand together in solidarity to address this issue.

The Constitution of the United States guarantees our right to peaceful assembly and protest. By acting against the Federal Government, we are exercising our constitutional rights. The decision to support the Chinese Communist Government is a serious matter and it is our responsibility to hold you accountable.

I urge you to consider the consequences of your actions. The Chinese Communist Government is not a democratic government and it does not represent the interests of the Chinese people.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

The Constitution and the laws are freely declared to be in force by the people of the United States. It is the duty of the people to uphold and defend these laws. By opposing the Chinese Communist Government, we are upholding the principles of freedom and democracy.

I believe that the Chinese Communist Government is not a legitimate government and that it does not represent the interests of the Chinese people.

Sincerely,

[Signature]
