PHYSICAL POWER IN THE SOCIAL REVOLUTION

A correspondent writes:

In the matter of the strike of the rail Locate workmen for the Philadelphia and Reading lines, the workmen have been working steadily for the past week.

"The workmen have been striking for some weeks now, and the strike has been growing in intensity. The men have been determined to get a fair wage, regardless of the efforts of the company to break the union."

A SUPPRESSED LETTER

THE WHY AND WHEREABOUTS OF WHICH WILL BE SEEN BY A VENAL THUG.

New Orleans, Jan. 26, 1877.

Mr. Editor—In reply to your publication of a letter, signed "A Reader," which was published in your paper, of the 18th inst., I would like to make the following statement:

The writer of the letter, "A Reader," is a member of my family, and I wish to state that the above letter was written by myself, in order to bring the facts of the case to the attention of the public.

The facts are as follows: On the 18th inst., a letter was received by my family, written by "A Reader," stating that the writer had been the victim of a robbery, and that he was in need of assistance.

I immediately wrote to the writer, and informed him that I would do all in my power to assist him.

The writer then stated that he had been robbed of a sum of money, and that he was in need of assistance in order to obtain the same.

I immediately wired the bank where the money was deposited, and informed them of the situation.

The bank immediately sent a message to the writer, informing him that the money had been sent to him, and that he could now safely return.

I am now writing to you to inform you of the facts of the case, and to request that you publish the above letter, in order to bring the facts of the case to the attention of the public.

I have your deepest gratitude,
