TO MEN WHO THINK
A FEW NUTS TO CRACK WITH JUICY, NOURISHING AND THOUGHT- STIMULATING KERNELS.

Daniel S. D. is free to marry the clever young lady he styles "sweetie pie." She needs not penny for her pin and never was a richer girl. He's an old & wise man, however, upon the subject of marriage, for he says, "Money is never any good when it is spent in marriage.

The Chinese are reduced a division below the threshold of good taste as described by the English. Their mode of dressing is altogether wrong. It is a mistake to trust a Chinese, for they are perhaps the most insidious and sly in their class of men. The Chinese have been found guilty of espionage in several cities of the United States.

When you see a man of Chinese appearance, watch his actions and movements. If he is acting suspiciously, do not approach him. Chinese are known to be thieves, pickpockets, and spies.

Cultural Exchange:

The Rat Tower of Today

Every winter down the River is told, and every German schoolchild knows, the story of Bishop Hatto, whose "Rat Tower" still stands on a little island in the river, off the town of Hatto.

Bishop Hatto, the original lord of the land, was said to have been so clever that he kept his rats from turning into witches, which is why he is supposed to have built the tower.

In the modern world, the "Rat Tower" is a symbol of the struggle against the forces of evil.
