FATHER MORGAN M. SHEEHD ON SOCIALISM

The story is told of Mark Twain that he was once asked what it was that gave him the secret to his success. He replied that it was the secret of being able to keep his mouth shut. The same can be said of Mark Twain when it comes to his political views. He was always careful to keep his thoughts to himself, even when it came to his conservative views on socialism.

Sheehy said that one of the reasons for his success in the field of socialism is that he has always been able to keep his mouth shut. This has allowed him to advance his ideas without being overshadowed by his own persona. He has been able to focus on his work and let the work speak for itself.

Sheehy believes that the key to success in socialism is the ability to keep one's mouth shut. This allows the ideas to be presented in a clear and concise manner, without being bogged down by personal opinions or biases.

Sheehy's views on socialism are based on a deep understanding of the economic and social conditions of his time. He has always been a proponent of the idea that the state should play a role in ensuring the well-being of its citizens.

In conclusion, Sheehy's success in the field of socialism is due in large part to his ability to keep his mouth shut. This has allowed him to present his ideas in a clear and concise manner, and to focus on the work at hand. He continues to be a respected and influential figure in the field of socialism today.
THE TWO CITIES

By F. M. Scott, City Editor, NEW YORK.

I was on the summit of a mountain and looked down into a valley which was a small village. I saw a man walking along a path, and I noticed that he was carrying a bag. As I watched him, I saw him turn and sit on a bench.

I thought that I would like to see the people in the valley, so I decided to go down there.

I walked down the path, and when I reached the valley, I saw a lot of people. They were all very happy and seemed to be enjoying themselves. I walked through the village, and I noticed that everyone was very friendly.

I talked to some of the people, and they told me that they were very happy to be living in this valley. They said that they had everything they needed, and they were able to live very comfortably.

I asked them how they were able to live so well, and they told me that they had a lot of crops and livestock. They also had a lot of animals, and they were able to sell their products for a good price.

I was very impressed by the people in this valley. They were very kind, and they seemed to be very happy. I decided to stay there for a while, and I was able to learn a lot about how they lived.

I think that this valley is a great place to live, and I would recommend it to anyone who is looking for a good place to live. If you are interested in learning more about this valley, I suggest that you visit it sometime.
SWERING CANADA SONS LOYAL TO KING AND CAPITALIS.

For a long time we have been taught that "Lord Rorbus is the true friend of the nation and its heros in all its branches." This has been the popular opinion for years. In military circles, however, it has been found that the true friend of the nation is the soldier. It is he who has shown the greatest devotion to the cause of his country and has been the backbone of the nation in times of peace and war. The soldier is the true friend of the nation.

One of the most notable of the soldiers who have shown their loyalty to the nation is Capt. John D. MacDonald, of the Royal Canadian Engineers. He has been with the army for many years and has shown his devotion to the cause of his country in many ways. He is a true friend of the nation.

A little learning is a dangerous thing, deep thinkers, and deep thinkers know it. Dr. A. D. Burrell, in a recent address, said: "A little learning is a dangerous thing, for it is a step toward knowledge, and knowledge is power."

MADAM.

The paper shall supersede the word "Madam," and shall be called "Sir." The woman shall be called "Miss." The man shall be called "Mr." The gender of the woman shall be indicated in the name of the person who signs the paper.

A good theme.

Time is not to be wasted, not even a moment. A good man's life is too short to be spent in idleness. A good man's time is a precious commodity, and should be spent in useful work. A good man's life is a valuable asset, and should be used to the best advantage.

A man's time is a valuable asset, and should be used to the best advantage. A good man's time is a precious commodity, and should be spent in useful work. A good man's life is a valuable asset, and should be used to the best advantage.
