WAGES

The Men Who 'Ringing Them Man's New Big Lean

Wages can never rise high as to make the present type of employment a satisfactory one. The difficult task is to secure a living business and one that will yield a reasonable profit. This can be done if the wages are not too high to equal the value of the product. There are certain industries that can be made to pay a small profit on a small wage. If the wages of the workers are not too high they can be made to pay a profit on the product. It is a good plan to make the workers feel that they are doing a good job and that their wages are not too high. If the wages are too high they will be less inclined to work and will not make the best products.

The Daily People, ever alert, has been keeping the workers of the labor trade informed. It has compiled the note book of the labor movement, and its daily publication is the most consistent. The work of the daily is not done without the workers, but the work of the workers would be incomplete without it.

The influence of the Daily People on the labor movement is great and it should not be slighted. It is a valuable and necessary factor in the labor movement.

FRENCH METAL WORKERS STRENGTHEN UNION

A French metal workers' union has been formed in Paris. The previous metal workers' congress at Marseille decided that the metal industries in the organization should enter into negotiations to bring about a nationalization of one organization. The metal workers and employers' unions complied with this decision, but the union of the employers' unions, represented by a general vote decided not to participate in the Paris congress, to continue its organization. Nevertheless, ten of these bodies of that organization entered into negotiations with the metal workers' congress, by which the union of the employers' congresses, attended by representatives of the employers, were brought into the congress.

The socialists will represent the working class of America on the International Socialist Federation.

That comprehensive course of study which disqualifies the S.P.U.S. from acting as a party among the rest of the Socialist Federation parties will in the near future come to an end. Naturally the working class will not find the S.P.U.S. so that we don't want to make this change for our party.

The Socialist Party will represent the working class of America on the International Socialist Federation.

The success of the movement depends upon the ability of the Socialist Party to represent the working class of America. The Socialist Party is not recognized as a separate party, and is a part of the International Socialist movement. I have been a Socialist for many years, but the Socialist Party of America is not a part of the International Socialist movement.
