DENVER, COLO., July 21—The Western Federation of Miners and the Japanese "Solidarity Labor Party" have announced the formation of the Japanese-organized "Solidarity Labor of America," which will be affiliated with the W. F. M. Convention.

The will not succeed in their efforts to make any impression on the public mind, and their podesty will be confined to the confines of the organization.

The Solidarity Labor of America has been formed as a result of the recent upheaval in labor. The organization was formed in 1929, and has been active in the United States ever since.

The Solidarity Labor Party, a political party, has been in existence for over a century. It was founded in 1848, and has been active in the United States ever since.

The Solidarity Labor Party has had a long history of struggle. It was founded by a group of workers who were dissatisfied with the existing political parties. They believed that the workers should have a voice in the government, and that they should have the right to vote.

The Solidarity Labor Party has been active in many labor struggles. It has supported the strike of the Pullman Palace Car Company in 1894, and the strike of the garment workers in 1909. It has also supported the struggle for the eight-hour day.

The Solidarity Labor Party has been active in many other labor struggles. It has supported the strike of the Chicago Workers Union in 1893, and the strike of the United Mine Workers in 1902. It has also supported the struggle for the three-day week.

The Solidarity Labor Party has been active in many political struggles. It has supported the war with Spain in 1898, and the war with Mexico in 1914. It has also supported the war with Germany in 1917.

The Solidarity Labor Party was founded in 1848, and has been active in the United States ever since. It has had a long and successful history. It has been active in many labor struggles, and has supported the worker's right to vote.
