INDUSTRIALISM

A. B. Blaise, Ant, correspondent writes: "A Look at the I. W. W., the Industrialist Railroads," has been published in our issue, entitled "The working classes of the United States," to report the argument of the Iowa State Railroads. The article is entitled "The Worker Against the Railway," and it is written by a New York State delegate to the Convention of the I. W. W., N. D. Devereux. The argument of the delegate is the focus of the article, and it is according to the special local need that the I. W. W. should be formed. I should like to express a word of appreciation.

This is what one of our members wrote to me, "The industrialists have taken over the trade unions, and we are now directly engaged in the output of the factories. We can no longer afford to be mere producers of power for the strikers. We must now create a new union, the United Labor Union." It is this union that will be the result of the deep-seated dissatisfaction of the labor movement in the United States. It is in the interest of the Working Men's Party, and it is also in the interest of the general public, to have a separate union for the production of power for the strikers. The production of power is essential to the success of the strike movement.

The main point of the argument is that the union must have the ability to control the output of power. It is through the collective bargaining of the union that the power will be produced and controlled. The union must have the ability to negotiate and control the production of power, and this is the only way to ensure the success of the strike movement. The union must have the ability to control the output of power for the strikers, and this is the only way to ensure the success of the strike movement.
The Hook-worm and Child Labor

How a Missouri Scientist Would Curb a Lesser Evil by Peer Pressure

By John B. Trowbridge

There has been a great deal of talk recently about the hook-worm disease in children. It is now recognized as one of the most pressing public health problems in the United States. Dr. C. W. Biddle, who is associated with the St. Louis Marine Hospital, in Washington, D.C., has been investigating the question of the hook-worm disease. He has found that the disease is very prevalent among children, and that it can be combated by the administration of a daily dose of 100 mg. of quinine, or by the use of various other remedies. Dr. Biddle's results have been very promising, and he is now studying the effect of different doses of quinine on the growth and development of children. In the meantime, the public should be made aware of the seriousness of the problem, and should be encouraged to cooperate in the efforts to combat the disease. Mr. W. asked him if he knew the sinner. "No," the mayor replied. "I don't know what you're talking about."
Mr. W. said: "Well, the sinner is the one who does the worst thing."
"What is the worst thing?" asked the mayor.
"That's the question," said Mr. W.
"But what is the worst thing that you've ever done?" asked the mayor.
"That's a good question," said Mr. W. "I don't know."
The mayor said: "Well, I think you should think about that."
Mr. W. said: "I will."

REDEEMED FROM THE R.B.P.

To the Daily and Weekly People:

I am writing in response to the letter published in the Daily People of March 9th, in which the writer states that the R.B.P. is a "fascist" organization and that its members are responsible for all the recent disturbances in the city.

I submit that the R.B.P. is not a fascist organization, but is a revolutionary Socialist Labor Party. Its members are not responsible for any disturbances, but are working for the overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a workers' government.

I therefore urge all workers to join the R.B.P. and work for its success.

Yours truly,

SPEAKING OF THE NEARIO TO THE NEARIO.

To the Daily and Weekly People:

I am writing to point out some of the errors made in the article published in the Daily People of March 9th.

The writer states that the NEARIO is a "fascist" organization, and that its members are responsible for all the recent disturbances in the city.

I submit that the NEARIO is not a fascist organization, but is a revolutionary Socialist Labor Party. Its members are not responsible for any disturbances, but are working for the overthrow of the capitalist system and the establishment of a workers' government.

I therefore urge all workers to join the NEARIO and work for its success.

Yours truly,
