SOVIET THINKERS DEFEND PATRIOTIC PARTIES

Cardinal Gibbons, the apostle of the Catholic Church, has issued a statement in support of the Catholic Church in Russia. Gibbons, who is one of the leading Catholic politicians in Europe, has been a strong advocate of the Catholic Church's position on the relationship between the Church and the state. He has been involved in numerous political and religious disputes, and has been a prominent figure in the Catholic Church's efforts to defend its interests in Russia.

Gibbons's statement comes in response to recent developments in Russia, where the government has taken steps to restrict the activities of the Catholic Church. The Church has been facing increasing pressure from the government, which has accused it of being too influential in the political and social life of the country.

In his statement, Gibbons expressed his concern about the situation in Russia and called for international intervention to protect the Catholic Church's rights. He also called on the Church to continue its efforts to defend its interests in the country.

Gibbons's statement has been met with mixed reactions. Some have praised his efforts to support the Church, while others have criticized him for his involvement in political affairs. However, Gibbons has remained committed to the Church's cause and continues to be a prominent figure in the Catholic Church's efforts to defend its interests in Russia.
WHERE THE WEALTH, SQUEEZED FROM THE WORKERS, FLOWS LIKE.

It is interesting to see how much the fashionable rich manage to spend on such expenses in a year. Here is a list of some of the more important:

- 1937-1938: New York stock market crash, causing a significant drop in stock prices.
- 1939: World War II begins, leading to increased military spending.
- 1940-1945: World War II continues, with significant expenses for military equipment and personnel.
- 1946: Post-war prosperity and increased consumer spending.
- 1947-1951: Korean War, with continued military expenses.
- 1952-1956: Cold War intensifies, leading to increased defense spending.
- 1957-1961: Sputnik launched, accelerating the space race between the United States and the Soviet Union.
- 1962-1968: Vietnam War, with significant expenses for military operations.
- 1969-1975: Post-war, with increased focus on economic recovery.
- 1981-1985: Reaganomics, with significant cuts in government spending.

In addition to military spending, there are also significant expenses for education, healthcare, and infrastructure. These expenses are often cited as a reason for the growing national debt. Overall, it is clear that the wealthy manage to spend a significant amount of money on a variety of expenses, with military spending being the largest component.

SOCIALISM OR THE UNION—THE UNION OR SOCIALISM?

P. O. Box 67, New York City.

Dear Sir or Madam:—

How can a socialist in the strictest sense of the word, have anything to do with the so-called Labor-Lieutenant of the Capitlalists? Under no conceivable circumstances will a socialist ever have anything to do with the Union of the Labor-Lieutenant of the Capitalists. If he has, it is because he is a so-called Labor-Lieutenant of the Capitalists.

WHO WANTS REFORM? Bulletin of the CIO Unions

The Failure of Capitalism
By John Mitchell, President of the American Federation of Labor, published by the Labor News Company, 1924, 150 pages. It is a work of great importance to the working man, containing valuable information and facts that will enable him to understand the working of the capitalist system and the need for cooperation among the working class. The book is divided into three parts: Part I. The Failure of Capitalism; Part II. The Failure of Cooperation; Part III. The Failure of Socialism.
