Some Lessons from the Russian Revolutionary Movement

By Boris T. Joffe, Buffalo, N. Y.

The true task of the new Russian regime is to spread the revolution to the people and to the poor. The Russian revolution is not only a struggle for power, but also a struggle for the people's daily needs, for the people's freedom, for the people's rights. The revolution of the workers and peasants is the revolution of the working class, the revolution of the poor, the revolution of the people.

The Russian revolution is a struggle for the freedom of the working class, for the freedom of the poor, for the freedom of the people. The revolution is a struggle for the people's daily needs, for the people's rights, for the people's freedom.
