TRUSTEE'S.

The Function That the Capitalist Class Now Desires to Fill.

The cipher master of John Burns, the ex-King of the South, is not yet white and, as a report from the Department of State shows, neither are his political associates in the South very likely to be changed. For, as the report states, they are "color blind." The report further states that "attempts to effect a change in the political situation in the South have been made by the former Confederate government in the South."
