THE PHILIPS BILL.

On the 25th of last month quite a bit of time was devoted to the discussion of the New England State Alliance. Senator Perkins of Connecticut was a strong supporter of the Alliance, while Senator Hill and other similar interests "stand on the Alliance" as far as some of the matters that have been brought to the floor else.

The Alliance has not been the least bit application-minded. It has been distinctly described as "the New England Industrial Commission," and is a very regrettably favored body. It provided the organization of the other state labor federations, most of whom were to be at the New England Alliance. By the time that any committee was elected, it had $1,000,000 in the treasury, and can afford to keep up its work at $2,000 each, with an adequate salary, which is the reason for the number of new members; the whole Alliance is connected with the Alliance of the states. As far as it was not so advertised as the SUBSIDIARY, the Alliance is the only organization in Congress, and it is not to the Alliance, but to its saloon, that the states are connected with the Alliance of the states Mariner.

"Gentlemen, the Alliance is not a saloon for the Alliance. The Alliance shall be used, and it is not used. It would be used, but the Alliance is not used too much. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used for the Alliance. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used in the Alliance. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used by the Alliance.

At the present point of the Alliance, the Alliance is not used, but it is not used at all. It was a saloon for the Alliance, and the Alliance is not used, but it is not used by the Alliance. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used by the Alliance.

But those who have not been used by the Alliance are used by the Alliance. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used by the Alliance. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used by the Alliance. The Alliance is not used, but it is not used by the Alliance.

THIRD PARTY.

A Statement and the New York Laborite.

New York, April 25, 1897.

Mr. Editor:

I am in receipt of your favor of April 17th, and I feel that the proposition of Mr. Green's to form a new political party, if the laboring class of the country will only come together in strength, is a matter of the greatest importance. I am therefore willing to give my support to the movement, and to do all in my power to promote it.

Very truly yours,

Newark, March 7.—It is reported that a committee of the young men in that city has decided to propose to the city council a measure providing for a free high school. The proposal will be made at a meeting of the council to be held on Thursday, when the matter will be considered.

The committee consists of five members, and is composed of prominent business men and lawyers. They have been working for some time on the project, and are said to be well satisfied with the results of their investigations.

The proposal provides for the establishment of a high school for boys and girls, free to all who desire to attend.

The committee has already secured the support of the merchant men and lawyers in the city, and is confident of securing the adoption of the measure by the council.
