The Italian Election.
Increase of Votes and Seats in the Parliament.

In the last Parliament the Socialists held 60 seats, and in the present Parliament they hold 62 seats. This increase of two seats is due to the increase in the number of Socialist votes.

The Burden Iron Co.
Remarkable Testimony Furnished by its Discharged Employees.

A Workhouse Version of the Burden Iron Co., of New York City, was examined by a government committee, and their evidence was extremely convincing. The committee was impressed with the fact that the Burden Iron Co. had a plantation system of labor, and that the workers were not treated fairly. The company was also accused of discriminating against workers who were not native born.

The Department of Labor.

The Department of Labor has been busy investigating the conditions in the Burden Iron Co. The workers have been treated unfairly, and the company has been charged with discriminating against non-native workers.

"Jehovah Houlding," "Weehawken," N. J., says to the "People's Advocate": "I am an old, infirm man, 77 years of age, and not able to write, and am here writing to ask if there are any objections to sending this book to me. I have a brother, 90 years old, a very sick man, who wishes to read it." "This is no objection in the least," is the answer. "I am a subscriber to the Advocate, and am perfectly satisfied with the way in which the books are handled. I am willing to pay for the book, and to send it to my brother. I am sure he will like it." The book is sent in due course.
