ORGANIZING ANARCHY.

The Debate on the Trusts Bill continues. The Republicans are again on the defensive. They are urging the adoption of the Sherman Act. The Democrats are advocating the adoption of the Miller Act. The debate is heated.

CARLESS'S LETTER.

The success of our employers' strike is considered by the Carless Company to be due to the support of the union.

SOCIAL CONTRASTS.

Which We Are Striving to Wipe Out.

LOVE AT TRUE PICTURE.

Bulletins of Luxury.

Mrs. Carrie Hays, a prominent socialite of the town, was presented with a diamond necklace and bracelet by her husband, Mr. J. H. Hays.

AND THEN AT TRUE.

Bulletins of Poverty.

Mr. John Smith, a laborer, was given a picture of his family by his employer, Mr. John B. Brown.

RANDOM SHOTS.

Supreme Court Reverses. The public prints are now filled with reports of the Supreme Court reversing decisions in a number of cases.

PRICE 3 CENTS.

SOCIETY.

Can not be Revelatorized Behind its Back.

The Proposed New Party and the Plan. The new party is expected to be formed on the lines of a society.

From one of the daily papers of this city today: "The new party is expected to be formed on the lines of a society, with a new set of leaders and a new platform." The paper goes on to say: "The old leaders of the city can not be relied upon to start the new party." The new party is expected to be formed on the lines of a society.

(Continued on Page 11)

(Continued from Page 3.)