IRELAND'S

Address to the Working Class.

Irish of America.

UP, IRISH PROLETARIAT!

The Irish of America, a national political party of the working class, is organized for the purpose of uniting the Irish of America in a common spirit of national pride and fighting for national independence.

The Irish of America will work consistently and systematically to promote the cause of Irish independence and to raise the standard of national pride and respect among the Irish people.

The organization of the Irish of America will be conducted in a manner that will ensure its success in the struggle for national independence.

The Irish of America will strive to educate the Irish people in the principles of national independence and to create a spirit of national pride and respect that will bring about the desired results.

The Irish of America will work toward the establishment of an independent Irish republic, free from foreign domination and under the control of the Irish people.

The Irish of America will cooperate with other national organizations and movements to achieve the common goal of national independence and to promote the cause of national pride and respect.

The Irish of America will strive to create a spirit of national pride and respect that will bring about the desired results and ensure the success of the struggle for national independence.

I notice that THE PEOPLE never refer to the Electric Light Union. I shall not discuss the subject, but I feel that at the last meeting should be pubicized. It will be found to deserve a place in the pages and not in the gutter of the Labour and Industrial news.

The Labour and Industrial News, therefore, I have written down the reason for the four parts and a preface, entitled "The Large and Little Light Union," as follows:
