An Appeal to the Workers to Enroll Themselves in the Ranks of the Socialist Labor Party.

The Socialist Labor Party never nominated a candidate in the election at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, last year, but it made a show of strength by having a hall, almost filled, at a meeting held there. This year the Socialist Labor Party is making a much more vigorous effort to win the working class into the ranks of the trade union movement, and the struggle is being carried on in all parts of the country.

The organization is growing rapidly, and it is believed that it will be able to nominate candidates for political office in the near future. The program of the Socialist Labor Party is based on the principles of social democracy, and it is striving to obtain a voice in the government of the country through the ballot box.

The Socialist Labor Party is opposed to the capitalist system, and it is working for the establishment of a socialist state. It is advocating the principle of the division of the land and means of production among the working class, and it is proposing to do away with private property and the wage system.

The Socialist Labor Party is also working for the abolition of war and the establishment of peace. It is advocating the principle of international cooperation and the abolition of all national boundaries.

The Socialist Labor Party is working for the protection of the working class, and it is advocating the principle of the eight-hour day, the ten-hour day, and the shorter working hours.

The Socialist Labor Party is working for the advancement of science and culture, and it is advocating the principle of public ownership of the means of education.
