LATEST LESSON

On the Class-Struggle Going on in our Capitalist Society.

On Wednesday, March 8, the strikers, after a series of meetings, decided to make a general strike of the iron and steel workers in the Wilkes-Barre district. The strike was called to protest against the low wages paid to the workers. The strike was a significant event in the labor movement in the United States.

WASHINGTON, March 8th.—A large crowd gathered at the State Capitol on Wednesday on the occasion of the funeral of Senator Culbert B. Rickenbacker, and the day was observed as a Memorial Day. The day was marked by a series of events, including a parade and a ceremony at the Capitol.

MANCHESTER, N.H., March 8th.—The funeral of Major John F. Kennedy was held in Manchester, New Hampshire, on Wednesday. The funeral was a significant event in the city, and the day was marked by a series of events, including a parade and a ceremony at the Capitol.

Notes

In this city, the strike of the workers in the steel industry has caused a great deal of unrest.

MAYOR HAMILTON, in his address to the workers, said: "The workers in this city are the backbone of the country. They are the ones who built this city, who made it what it is today. They are the ones who keep this country running. They are the ones who deserve our respect and our gratitude."
POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC

To judge from a correspondent to the New York World, Mr. William H. S. Bissell is nearer at the moment to becoming a candidate for the Republican nomination in the present presidential campaign, than any other candidate for the presidency.

"Mr. Bissell has, it is true, not as yet been mentioned as a candidate, but he has a large following among the Republican leaders, and has a large force of friends who are working hard for him."}

In the New York World letter, Bissell is described as a man of the people, with a large following among the Republican leaders, and working hard for him.

The letter also mentions the large force of friends who are working for him. The reader can infer that Bissell is a significant contender in the presidential race.

This letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.

The letter is from a correspondent to the New York World and is dated April 3, 1908. It mentions Mr. William H. S. Bissell as a candidate for the Republican nomination in the presidential campaign. The correspondent describes Bissell as having a large following among the Republican leaders and friends who are working hard for him. It is a detailed account of the potential candidate and his supporters.

The letter is a good example of how newspapers covered the presidential races in the past, with detailed accounts of potential candidates and their supporters. It also highlights the importance of friends and followers in the political process.
WORKERS, GUARD THE BALLOT!

ARGUMENT UNFAIR, AS HELD OF THE SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY, BY DAVID DE LEON ON HIS PRIMARY BILL SPONSORED BY LABOR "ELECTION REFORM"

COMPLAINTS AGAINST THE PRIMARY BILL AS PROPOSED

In the words of the Labor "Election Reform" Comité, the Primary Bill is "a bill that will destroy the working-class political party by making it impossible for it to take a stand in any election in which the primary vote is cast." The bill seeks to annul the nominations of the socialist candidates and place the entire slate in the ballot box by the regular party method. This, the Comité maintains, is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.

Your Primary Bill provides that at registration the voter shall declare his political preference and that the preference of the majority of the voters shall be the selection of the slate. The bill thus gives the right to those who do not wish to be candidates to control the nomination of the slate. It establishes a method of nomination that in its main features is the same as the method of nomination by the regular parties. By doing this the bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class.

Your Primary Bill calls for a ballot on the second Tuesday of September of every year in the regular primary election, in which all candidates of the working class shall be opposed to the candidates of the regular parties. The bill thus provides for the annulment of the nominations of the socialist candidates and for the elimination of the working class in the ballot by the regular party method. This is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.

The bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class by taking from it the right to choose its own candidates and place them in the ballot box by the primary vote. By doing this the bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class and to place it in the ballot box by the regular party method. This is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.

The bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class by taking from it the right to choose its own candidates and place them in the ballot box by the primary vote. By doing this the bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class and to place it in the ballot box by the regular party method. This is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.

The bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class by taking from it the right to choose its own candidates and place them in the ballot box by the primary vote. By doing this the bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class and to place it in the ballot box by the regular party method. This is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.

The bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class by taking from it the right to choose its own candidates and place them in the ballot box by the primary vote. By doing this the bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class and to place it in the ballot box by the regular party method. This is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.

The bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class by taking from it the right to choose its own candidates and place them in the ballot box by the primary vote. By doing this the bill seeks to destroy the political party of the working class and to place it in the ballot box by the regular party method. This is a violation of the right of the working class to have its own political organization and to control its own affairs.
From April 1, 1898, the subscription price of The People will be reduced to 50 Cents a Year.
6 months, 25 Cents. Single copies, 2 Cents.
Subscribers, who have paid in advance, will have their terms prolonged or can have two copies each week until subscription expires. In case the latter is wanton or neglected, no
The People, Sunday, March 20, 1898
THE DAILY PEOPLE
$50,000 FUND.

Amount Pledged down to February 9th, 1898.
$4,575.

For our Unemployed.
Grand Bowling Entertainment
Local Alliance 33, S. F. A.
Saturday, March 19th, the Ladies’ Benevolent Auxiliary of the 27th Anniversary of the Commemoration of the Great Civil War.
Institution of Real Estate, foot of 9th St.,
Section Philadelphia E. D.

On Monday Evening, March 21st,
Ely’s New Hall, 11th and Chestnut Sts.
The People’s National Bureau of Labor.
Section Committee.

OPTIMIZE USE OF IT

The DAILY PEOPLE

THE DAILY PEOPLE

OPTIMIZE USE OF IT