That Scan Asa Sherwood Showing the Different Forms of Farming.

The Socialist Labor party, municipal committee of Chicago, held a banquet at the National Hotel last night in honor of Mr. Asa Sherwood, who, it is believed, has returned from a visit to Europe, where he was in the service of the English Labor party. The banquet was given in a large ballroom, which was decorated with flowers and illuminated with electric lights.

The meal was served in the evening, and the speeches were made by members of the party.

Mr. Sherwood said that he had been in the service of the English Labor party for several years, and that he was now back in Chicago to take up his work again. He spoke of the progress that had been made in England, and of the need for more cooperation in the United States.

Mr. Sherwood said that the English Labor party had been very successful in organizing the working class, and that the Socialist party in the United States should follow their example.

Mr. Sherwood also spoke of the need for more education among the working class, and of the importance of the Socialist party in spreading the ideas of socialism.

Mr. Sherwood said that the work of the Socialist party was not finished, and that there was much more to be done.

Committee of Congress to extend the franchise to women. This year also marks an anniversary of 45 years, during which time there have been no changes in the laws governing women's suffrage. Since the 18th century, women have been active in the suffrage movement, but it was not until 1920 that the 19th Amendment was adopted, granting women the right to vote.

The victory of women's suffrage is a testament to the power of collective action and the perseverance of those who fought for it. It is a reminder that change is possible when people come together to demand it. The suffrage movement of the past century has paved the way for future generations to continue fighting for equality and justice. As we commemorate this anniversary, let us honor the women who have made this right a reality and commit to ensuring that all people have the right to vote.
MIDDLEMEN & MIDDLECLASS.

Two Terms that Mean the Vanishing and Transcending.

The following paragraphs should come right now, if not sooner, from the lips of the people of the country.

The terms "middlemen," "middles," and "middleclass" are constantly on the lips of the people. They are the words that mean the vanishing and transcending of the old order of things. They are the words that mean the coming of a new order, a new society, a new world.

The middlemen are the class that has been the ruling class, the class that has controlled the country, the class that has been the backbone of the government. They are the class that has been the recipient of all the benefits of the government, the class that has been the beneficiary of all the wealth of the country.

PARLIAMENTS OF LABOR

Kentucky, March 24—Our Congressmen.

Bill to reduce the cost of labor has been introduced by the Kentucky Railroad Congress, as the first step toward the establishment of a national labor policy. The bill is expected to be referred to the committee on the subject, and will be considered at the next session of Congress.

Indiana, March 22—The Indiana Federation of Labor is holding its annual convention, at which the following resolutions were adopted:

1. Resolved, That the Indiana Federation of Labor will work for the establishment of a national labor policy.

2. Resolved, That the Indiana Federation of Labor will work for the establishment of a national labor policy.

3. Resolved, That the Indiana Federation of Labor will work for the establishment of a national labor policy.

4. Resolved, That the Indiana Federation of Labor will work for the establishment of a national labor policy.

5. Resolved, That the Indiana Federation of Labor will work for the establishment of a national labor policy.

INCREASED FUND.

Theodore Roosevelt, March 20, 1888.

Mr. President, I rise to order. I wish to move that the amount pledged for the People's Fund be increased to $50,000. The motion is seconded by Mr. James A. Garfield.

Mr. President, I am pleased to report that the People's Fund has been increased to $50,000. The increase is due to the generosity of Mr. James A. Garfield, who has made a large donation to the fund.

The motion was carried by a large majority, and the People's Fund is now increased to $50,000.

CONCERTS.

Boston, April 17, 1894.

The Boston Labor Alliance is holding a concert on April 24th, at the Music Hall, to raise funds for the People's Fund. The concert will feature the Boston Labor Chorus, under the direction of Mr. John Smith.

The concert is expected to be a great success, and will be attended by a large audience. Tickets are on sale at the door.

L. F. DEAN,
Secretary.

It is heartening to see the growth of the People's Fund, and the increased interest in labor reform. We look forward to a bright future for the People's Fund, and for the labor movement as a whole.

Take Notice, Workmen!—

E. W. T. SMITH,
Secretary.
