THE FIGHT ON.

Emperor - Gown Massachusetts Capitalist Parties.

In order to maintain and sustain the power of the conservative parties in the state, it is necessary that the people should be kept in ignorance of the facts. The authorities are therefore expected to suppress all information that might be prejudicial to their interests. The newspapers are controlled by the rich and powerful, and are directed to serve the interests of the capitalist class. The people are thus deprived of the means of knowing the truth about the state of affairs.
OBSERVATIONS ON THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

By A. J. McHenry, M.D.

Medical students observe a system of examination in which the first examination is made in the second year of the course. This examination consists in the presentation of a small piece of work which is handed over to the examiner, who then asks questions about it. The student must know the work thoroughly, for the examiner takes no notice of any small slip. The student must also have a good idea of the general principles of medicine, for the examiner is likely to ask questions about the subject. The student must also have a good idea of the general principles of surgery, for the examiner is likely to ask questions about the subject.

THINGS IN MARYLAND.

Tactics of Insurance and "S" in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 25.—Here in Baltimore, where the people are not so much interested in insurance as in other cities, the tactics of insurance are being carried on with great success. The people here are not so much interested in insurance as in other cities, for they do not have so many choirmen who go through the streets and sell insurance.
