PHILADELPHIA, October 1.—The Special Courier and Times this morning contains a letter from a gentleman residing in the city of Philadelphia, who has just returned from a long journey through the western part of the country. He states that the harvest is in, and that the prices of wheat and corn are very low. He also states that the railway companies are charging very high rates for the transportation of grain. The writer says that the railway companies are making a profit of three dollars for every bushel of wheat transported. He suggests that something should be done to prevent this extortionate practice.

MANIFESTO ON DRYFUS.

by the Socialist Deputies in the French Chamber of Deputies.

Since the agitation has centered in the controversy between the French government and the Socialists, we find ourselves involved in a struggle which, it is likely, will continue for an indefinite period. The government has appeared to take a position on the main facts of the case in a manner which gives just the impression that it has not sufficiently considered the subject. We have therefore decided to express our sentiments on this matter in an open letter to the people of France.

SOCIALIST LABOR PARTY
- THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

PLATFORM.
The Socialist Labor Party of the United States, in Convention assembled, resolves: 1st. That the individual right to self-government is the fundamental right of all men, and that the ultimate aim of the labor movement is, therefore, the establishment of the Socialist Commonwealth, in which the people shall own the means of production and distribution, and shall have complete control over the direction of their work and the products of their labor. 2nd. That the ownership of the means of production is the source of all political oppression and economic exploitation, and that only by the destruction of the private ownership of these means can true freedom and equality be secured to all men. 3rd. That the state-socialist form of government is the only form of government that can guarantee the equal enjoyment of the fruits of man's labor, and that only by the establishment of the Socialist Commonwealth can the principle of justice be realized. 4th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be based on the principle of self-government, and that the power of the state shall be limited to the protection of the individual against the aggression of others, and to the maintenance of law and order. 5th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of cooperation, and that all industries shall be organized on a cooperative basis, in which the workers shall have a voice in the management of their own affairs. 6th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of international cooperation, and that the workers of all countries shall unite in a great international Alliance for the achievement of their common aims. 7th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of democracy, and that the power of the state shall be vested in the hands of the people, who shall have the right to elect their own representatives, and to be governed by laws made by the people for the people. 8th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of the individual, and that the state shall be the servant of the people, and not the master. 9th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of equality, and that all men shall be free from the oppression of class distinctions, and shall have equal rights and opportunities. 10th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of women and children, and that the state shall be the ally of the poor, and not the enemy. 11th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of the arts and sciences, and that the state shall be the friend of education and culture. 12th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of the oppressed, and that the state shall be the champion of the suffering millions. 13th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of the individual, and that the state shall be the servant of the people, and not the master. 14th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of the individual, and that the state shall be the servant of the people, and not the master. 15th. That the Socialist Commonwealth shall be founded on the principle of the protection of the rights of the individual, and that the state shall be the servant of the people, and not the master.
